Pastoral Message from Fr. George, November 19, 2025

Extending Hospitality Beyond Our Circle

Introduction

Hospitality is more than good manners or sharing a meal—it is a spiritual discipline rooted in love. In the Orthodox tradition, hospitality reflects the very heart of Christ, who welcomed sinners, healed the broken, and embraced the outcast. When we open our hearts and homes, we imitate His divine generosity.

Reflection

Christ calls us to a radical hospitality—one that mirrors His own love for the marginalized and forgotten. In Luke 14:12–14, Jesus teaches: “When you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, and you will be blessed.” This is not simply about sharing a meal; it is about opening our hearts and lives to those who cannot repay us. True hospitality is sacrificial and grace-filled.

Presbyter Marinda and I recently experienced a glimpse of this grace. While dining at a restaurant this week, we complimented our server on the excellent food, service, and restaurant ambience. Her response surprised us: “You guys have made my day... you always bring such great energy when you walk in.” What began as a simple gesture of kindness became a moment of mutual blessing. In offering encouragement, we received joy in return. This is the mystery of God’s grace—when we give freely, He multiplies the blessing.

Servers often work long hours under pressure, juggling multiple tables while managing personal struggles we never see. Despite this, they are expected to provide “perfect” service with a smile.

When we pause to acknowledge their effort and offer genuine kindness, we do more than brighten their day—we help restore dignity and hope. In that exchange, our words became a blessing to her, and her gratitude became a blessing to us.

Imagine what it would look like if our tables—whether in our homes, parish halls, or even restaurants—were places where Christ’s love was evident. Hospitality begins with seeing the image of God in every person, especially those who serve quietly and faithfully. In this season of Thanksgiving, we have the potential to change the outlook of others so they can fulfill the potential God gave them. A kind word, a sincere compliment, or an invitation to share a meal can be the spark that rekindles hope in a weary soul.

As St. John Chrysostom reminds us, “If you cannot find Christ in the beggar at the church door, you will not find Him in the chalice.” Every act of kindness is an encounter with Christ Himself. Let us make our gratitude tangible by extending hospitality beyond our circle—so that in blessing others, we too may be blessed.

Pause and Reflect

- Who in your life might feel unseen or forgotten?
- How can you extend hospitality—not only through a meal, but through words of encouragement, a listening ear, or an act of kindness?
- Prayer: Lord Jesus, open my heart to welcome You in every person I meet. Teach me to give without expecting return, trusting that Your grace will bless both giver and receiver.

Closing Prayer

O Christ our God, You welcomed all who came to You with love and mercy. Grant me the grace to see Your image in every person and to offer hospitality with joy and humility. May my words and actions bring comfort to the lonely, hope to the broken, and peace to the outcast. For You are the Giver of every good gift, and to You we give glory, now and forever. Amen.

Very Rev. Fr. George Tsahakis, Mr. Stephen Sarantis, Parish Council President and Esteemed Parish Council Members of Saint Christopher Hellenic Orthodox Church
313 Dividend Drive, Suite 210
Peachtree City, GA 30269

My Beloved in the Lord,

I greet you with love and joy in the Name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

Upon reviewing your plans for the construction of your new parish home—including the church, the administrative offices, & the meeting spaces—and with the advice of both Archon Frank Boardman (AIA), Chairman of the Parish Facilities Committee, and George Matthews, of blessed memory, I am pleased to offer my permission and blessings to proceed. I would like to take this opportunity to thank you, Fr. George, the Parish Council, and all the faithful who have undertaken the responsibility to ensure a stable future for your parish family. With Christ's love in my heart, you have my understanding that 'time is of the essence' and I congratulate you on this development.

Per our discussion, after your site work is completed, I also look forward to joining you on Meatfare Sunday, February 15th, 2026, to visit with your community, worshipping & breaking bread together, before we perform the Groundbreaking Service at the construction site.

May this endeavor meet with our Lord's abundant grace and every blessing from Above. I remain,

In the love and service of the Lord,

+SEVASTIANOS
Metropolitan of Atlanta

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

St. Christopher Church in Peachtree City Announces Plans for New Church Complex

Peachtree City, GA — St. Christopher Hellenic Orthodox Church joyfully announces its decision to pursue the construction of a new church complex on its 10-acre Ebenezer Road property, marking a significant milestone in the life of the parish and its mission to serve Orthodox Christians of Peachtree

City and surrounding communities throughout the southern Atlanta metro region.

The new complex will include a traditional Byzantine-style sanctuary, administrative offices, meeting spaces, and the initial shell of a future fellowship hall. This comprehensive plan is designed to support the parish's continued spiritual and communal growth for generations to come. It will begin breaking ground in January 2026.

“Our vision is to create a sacred space that reflects our Orthodox faith, fosters fellowship, and welcomes all,” said Fr. George Tsahakis, Pastor of St. Christopher Church. “We are lifting high the banner of courage, conviction, faith, and sacrifice as we begin this holy endeavor.”

The parish is deeply grateful for the encouragement and support of His Eminence Metropolitan Sevastianos of Atlanta, who offered his episcopal blessing and spiritual guidance for the project. “May this new church complex be a beacon of light and a place of peace, prayer, and healing for all who enter,” said Metropolitan Sevastianos. “I commend the faithful of St. Christopher Church for their devotion and vision.”

St. Christopher Church invites the broader community to join in prayer and support as this exciting chapter unfolds. Updates on the project will be shared through the parish website and future announcements.

Special thanks to our partners helping us build for the future: Jefferson Browne Architecture in Peachtree City, Tomco Construction in Newnan, and Renasant Bank in Peachtree City.

Light & Life

This stained-glass window speaks a timeless truth: Christ is our Light (φως) and our Life (ζωη). The warm amber tones frame the autumn leaves outside. Even as seasons change, His light shines through, and His life renews us. "I am the Light of the world... I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly." (John 8:12; 10:10)

As leaves fall and nature transitions, the promise of life in Christ remains unchanging, illuminating our path and renewing our spirit.

Where do you see God's light breaking through the ordinary today? How can you share His gift of life with someone who feels surrounded by shadows?

Building Our Future: Join Our $1.5M Capital Campaign

Dear Parish Family,

We are excited to announce the launch of our $1.5 million Capital Campaign, a five-year endeavor to build our future home. This is an incredible opportunity for us to come together as a community and create a space that will serve and inspire for generations to come.

To make this vision a reality, we encourage everyone to fill out pledge cards now. Our lenders are looking for a strong show of commitment from the parish, and your early pledges are crucial to meeting their requirements. As we consider discussions with outside donors, our ability to demonstrate the Parish Family's commitment to the capital campaign is an integral part of the process and success to raise funds from outside our parish. During our last campaign, we raised an impressive average of $264K per year, and with your continued support, we are confident we can do it again.

Your participation is vital. Please continue your existing commitment to the stewardship fund and start giving to the new capital campaign or consider increasing your existing building fund pledge amount. Together, we can turn our dreams into reality.

Let's build our future home with faith, dedication, and collective effort. Please consider completing the online pledge card today, St Christopher Capital Campaign Pledge Card Link, so we can show the lenders our unwavering commitment and take the next steps toward our shared goal.
