Pastoral Message from Fr. George, August 13, 2025

On Sunday, August 10, Fr. George blessed the religious educators and parish youth and adults as we begin the 2025-2026 school year. He gave everyone a daisy to remind them of his spiritual encouragement in the following message: "Children's Sermon - The Daisy and the Divine Light".

As you begin this new school year, I want you to think about a simple daisy blooming in a field. It doesn't try to be the biggest or the brightest flower—it simply turns its face toward the sun and soaks in the light. That light helps it grow strong, beautiful, and full of life.

Each of you is like that daisy. When you turn your heart toward Jesus, you begin to reflect His love and light in everything you do—whether you're learning in school, helping a friend, or being kind at home.

Now here's something special: once a week, I water the plants in my office. If I forget, they start to droop. But when I care for them, they perk up and bloom again. In the same way, each Sunday we gather in church to receive the blessings God gives us—especially through worship and the Holy Eucharist, His precious Body and Blood. That's how we stay fresh and strong in our faith, just like the daisy that needs water to stay vibrant.

So as you begin your school year, remember to turn toward the light of Christ, and come each Sunday to be nourished by His love. You are His beautiful creation—meant to grow, shine, and bless the world around you.

+Fr. George Tsahakis, 8.10.25

Fr. George is so grateful to Jeanie Ellinas for sharing the beautiful sunflowers she and Johnny saw after hearing the above sermon. Like the daisies, the sunflowers grow facing the sun and are inspiring to view. Jeanie's Orthodox name is Alexandra... she shared: "I pass these fields of sunflowers frequently in Turin, 1 mile from my home in Senoia. They are so beautiful! I thought you would enjoy the pictures. I am enjoying the daisies given to Johnny and I today. Thank you so much! - Alexandra

[Priest's note: During our adult religious education lesson on Sunday, we discussed the importance of a “prayer corner” in our homes. Alexandra shared a photo of her family’s prayer area – notice her vigil light along with her cross, icons, and fresh daisies! Thank you for helping reinforce this Orthodox tradition, Alexandra and Johnny.]

Did you know Orthodox Christians observe the Sabbath on Sunday — the Lord's Day?

In the book of Exodus, God commands His people to keep the Sabbath — Saturday — as a day of rest, because on the seventh day, God rested after creating the world (Exodus 31). This was a holy command for the people of Israel, shaping their entire rhythm of life.

But everything changed with Christ's Resurrection. In the Gospel of Matthew (Matthew 28), we read that "after the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week," the women came to the tomb — and found it empty. Christ had risen. That first day of the week, Sunday, became "the Lord's Day" (Κυριακή in Greek), the day of joy, of new creation and eternal life in the light of the Resurrection.

The early Christians, including the Apostles, gradually shifted communal worship from Saturday evening into Sunday, celebrating the Holy Eucharist (the breaking of bread — what we now know as the Divine Liturgy) and gathering in the joy of the Resurrection.

The Didache, a first-century Christian text, tells believers to gather and give thanks on "the Lord's Day." By the second century, Saints like Ignatius of Antioch encouraged Christians to worship on Sunday, not the Sabbath. By the time of the First Ecumenical Council in 325, Sunday had become the central day of Christian worship.

In Greek, we don't call it "Sunday" but Kyriake (Κυριακή) — "the Lord's Day." We don't rest because of the seventh day — we rejoice because Christ is risen. We worship the Risen Son of God, who fulfilled the Sabbath and gave us eternal rest in Him. [From Greek Orthodox Archdiocese Religious Education]

Mother of Every Mother

By: His Grace Bishop Athenagoras of Nazianzos

National Philoptochos Spiritual Advisor

Model of Motherhood

Panaghia's motherhood is prayer, offering, and love. In her, every woman finds a holy example.

Mother of Every Mother

The Theotokos understands the joys and sorrows of motherhood. She raised Christ with love and watched Him walk the road to the Cross. Her motherhood is not just biological—it is spiritual, eternal, and full of prayer.

Today's challenge: Whether you are a mother, daughter, godmother, or spiritual friend—find one woman today to encourage or support.

Fr. George invites ALL our parishioners to respond to His Grace Bishop Athenagoras' challenge above. What a beautiful act!

Feast of the Dormition of the Theotokos – Join us This Friday for Services – Lamentations at 8:00 a.m. and Divine Liturgy at 9:00 a.m. We will finish by 10:00 a.m.

Lamentations at Tomb, 8:00 a.m.

Join us for the Divine Liturgy of the Theotokos on August 15 +FGT

Divine Liturgy , 9:00 a.m.

1. In a tomb, O Pure one, you were truly interred, as the woman who contained God within your womb
and ineffably gave birth to Him on earth.
2. Mary, as the Mother of the Giver of life,
how can you now die and dwell in a sepulcher,
since your Son has raised the dead out of decay?
3. He who set the measures of the earth, God the Word,
deigned to be contained, O Pure one, within your womb
How do you now fit within a tiny tomb?

Lamentations for the Theotokos

1. Right it is indeed that we magnify you who received God;
for you are the animate treasury
of the virtues and of every grace of God.
2. She who has contained
Him who holds the universe together and is thus perceived as the house of God is translated now to heaven, there to dwell.

1. All generations offer,
O Virgin, hymns in honor
and praise of your entombment.
2. To death you have submitted,
O Virgin, who gave birth to Him who dealt death to Hades.
3. In dying you went over to the undying dwellings,
putting to death the foe death.

Beloved Parish Family,

With heartfelt gratitude, I thank each of you for your faithful and generous financial pledges to both our operating and building fund budgets. By God's grace and your unwavering commitment, we have met our budget projections year-to-date—a remarkable testament to your love for Christ and His Church.

As your Spiritual Father, I commend the sacrifices you have made to sustain our ministries and help build our future church complex. Too often, we overlook the quiet generosity of others, but today I pause to celebrate and acknowledge your stewardship and thank you.

Let us be reminded of the words of King David:

“All things come from You, and of Your own we have given You.”

— 1 Chronicles 29:14

I also ask the Lord's blessing upon our annual GreekFest Fayette event this Saturday. What a blessing it is to witness the many hands and hearts that have helped plan and prepare for this joyful event.

Again, I thank you for your great help and support—for our Chairs, Patrons, Sponsors, and Friends who will join us in fellowship and celebration.

May the Lord bless you abundantly for your sacrificial offerings, and may our parish continue to grow in faith, love, and unity.

With love in Christ,

+Fr. George Tsahakis

Building Our Parish Outside Its Four Walls

It's amazing what one photo can hold. Ten years ago, our parishioners and their friends were at an Atlanta Braves game—sunny skies, foam fingers, and the kind of laughter that echoes louder than a home run cheer. Looking at the snapshot below, it's like opening a time capsule filled with joy. Some of the kids in the photo are now taller than the adults were back then. Some faces have added a few laugh lines, and some are cheering us on from a different seat. But the spirit in that moment? Still alive and well. There's something beautiful about watching lives unfold. That day wasn't just about baseball—it was about being together, sharing stories, and making memories that still warm the heart a decade later. Time moves fast, but joy has a way of lingering. So grateful to those pictured and for their encouragement and support. May God bless us always.

Trust In the Lord With All Your Heart

The distant jet ascending into a thick blanket of clouds calls to mind the moments in life when our path ahead is obscured—when clarity fades and uncertainty looms. The jet, though vanishing from sight, continues its journey with purpose, guided by instruments unseen to us.

So too we can trust in God when the way forward is hidden. Our Lord does not abandon us in the fog of confusion or the weight of sorrow. Like the pilot who relies on unseen guidance, we are called to lean not on our own understanding, but on the divine wisdom of our Creator.

The clouds may be heavy, the sky may be gray, but above them shines the light of God's presence. Let us walk forward in faith, knowing that even when we cannot see the destination, God is already there—waiting, guiding, loving.

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths.” - Proverbs 3:5–6

Orthodox Nun Mother Agapia Stephanopoulos is interviewed by Tucker Carlson. She is the daughter of Rev. Dr. Robert Stephanopoulos, former dean of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocesan Cathedral in NYC, and sister of George.

She shares a candid and deeply personal account of life as a Christian in the Holy Land—navigating challenges few outsiders truly grasp.

Against the backdrop of geopolitical indifference, she exposes uncomfortable truths: how Western Christian support of Israel often ignores the struggles of local Christian believers.

Christianity is not a matter of persuading people of particular ideas, but of inviting them to share in the greatness of Christ. So pray that I may never fall into the trap of impressing people with clever speech, but instead I may learn to speak with humility, desiring only to impress people with Christ himself.

Building Our Future: Join Our $1.5M Capital Campaign

Dear Parish Family,

We are excited to announce the launch of our $1.5 million Capital Campaign, a five-year endeavor to build our future home. This is an incredible opportunity for us to come together as a community and create a space that will serve and inspire for generations to come.

To make this vision a reality, we encourage everyone to fill out pledge cards now. Our lenders are looking for a strong show of commitment from the parish, and your early pledges are crucial to meeting their requirements. As we consider discussions with outside donors, our ability to demonstrate the Parish Family's commitment to the capital campaign is an integral part of the process and success to raise funds from outside our parish. During our last campaign, we raised an impressive average of $264K per year, and with your continued support, we are confident we can do it again.

Your participation is vital. Please continue your existing commitment to the stewardship fund and start giving to the new capital campaign or consider increasing your existing building fund pledge amount. Together, we can turn our dreams into reality.

Let's build our future home with faith, dedication, and collective effort. Please consider completing the online pledge card today, St. Christopher Capital Campaign Pledge Card Link, so we can show the lenders our unwavering commitment and take the next steps toward our shared goal.
