SHARE THE BURDEN

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). These words of our Savior seem to be in stark contrast to the previous chapter from the same Gospel, when we were told that if we do not take up our crosses, we are not worthy of Christ. Connecting these two messages might help us on our faith journeys. Being a follower of Christ surely means that we must embrace the cross, in its mystery of both suffering and triumph. This is something that we need not do alone, for the burden is often too heavy for us to carry by ourselves. Who, then, do we turn to? We can turn to the Body of Christ—the community of disciples gathered for worship. When we find the burden too heavy, let us remember that we can share that burden with our Christian sisters and brothers, who can help bring us rest.

Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord.
– Psalms 33: 12

Today, July 4th, we celebrate our nation's independence, the 243rd birthday of the United States of America. This is a day for celebration of our many freedoms.

Let us preserve freedom. Let us cherish freedom — freedom of conscience, religious freedom, the freedom of each person, each family, each people.
