LOVE AS GOD LOVES

Our Gospel today continues Jesus' Sermon on the Plain, in which we heard Luke's version of the Beatitudes. This week, Jesus gives us new "commandments," telling us how to live and act in the world as his disciples, rooted in the radical love of God for humanity. It reminds us of his later speech about loving one another as he loves us, in other words with a God-like love, the kind we see in today's psalm about God's mercy. How else could we do as Jesus tells us by loving our enemies, which seems impossible, until we remember that God gave us the example of Jesus, who is like God but also like us? David understands this merciful love when he spares the life of his enemy in the first reading. Finally, Paul tells us that we will become like Jesus if we act as he did, as God does.

Bethlehem Handicrafts has had a difficult journey presenting the work of the one-percent Christians in the Holy Land. Throughout these years, we have always been honored and proud to put forth the beautiful work of those guardians and citizens of the Holy Land. Our skills have been passed down from generation to generation in our beloved Bethlehem, and this art is considered the bread and butter for thousands of Christian families there. Consider putting their handcrafted artwork in your home to bring love and support to them when they need it most.

With absolutely no tourists allowed in the Holy Land since March of 2020, the majority Christian families have not made any income. We have taken it upon ourselves to do whatever it takes to make these unprecedented times seem less painful to our Christian families back home, to give them the courage and belief that, even in the most difficult of times, we will all prevail and pass through this together.
