Everyday Stewardship-Recoginze God in Your Ordinary Moments

Everlasting Easter

The Easter season is almost over. This season is always a tougher one for us Catholics. We get Advent and Lent: preparation. We are on board with Christmas, mainly because we like to keep up our decorations until someone tells us the exact day we must take them down. But Easter as a season is a bit more difficult to observe. The rest of the world has moved on. There are no Easter eggs left in store windows and all those religious movies on television have given way to reruns or season-ending episodes. It just feels like Easter anywhere ... except in the Church.

The truth is that it should feel like Easter all year-round in the Church. Every Sunday, we celebrate a mini-Easter. Our Lord is ALIVE! He is risen and alive, and we need to celebrate. We also need to be about the work of the Lord. We are an Easter people who bear witness to his resurrection through our stewardship. If he had never risen, then we would be called to nothing by no one. But he lives! As this Easter season is drawing to a close, it is prudent to reflect on what his death and resurrection mean for each of us. How has it changed us? How does it motivate us? It doesn't look like Easter in most corners of the world, so it is up to us to bring a little Easter to every place we go and to everyone we meet.

Colorado March for Life

Join us next April for the Colorado March for Life, in partnership for the national March for Life, the world's largest annual pro-life event. When Roe fell, March for Life began working with local partners to offer state capital events across the country. In April 2024, we'll debut the Colorado March for Life.

Because of this partnership, the June 2023
Celebrate Life Rally has been cancelled for June 24, 2023. Keep an eye out for more details about the 2024 Colorado March for Life.

Jesus promises, just before he ascends into heaven, to send the Holy Spirit. The Spirit animates us in our following Christ more closely, to know and understand what we believe, and to have the courage to proclaim what we believe. What a magnificent gift. These "special graces are given to enable [us] to spread and defend the faith by word and deed as a true witness to Christ" (Didache Bible; CCC 900). The Catholic Church is missionary. Jesus did not intend for only the Apostles to go and make disciples. We, through our baptism, are likewise commissioned to profess the faith. We must allow the plentitude of graces and blessings we receive to provide us the courage and wisdom to encourage many other souls to encounter Jesus and pursue a path to holiness and heaven.

Our goal is not only to reach the gates of heaven — the very ones Jesus opened through his love and sacrifice, but more importantly, through our own love and sacrifice, answering his call to witness to all the ends of the earth is to bring as many others with us as possible.—Allison Gingras (LPI)

May I be open every day to courageously share
how encountering the Risen Lord changes our life as beloved disciples.
May I take advantage of opportunities that occur within the normal course of my day to share the Good News.

Our parish Mission Appeal for the Dominican Missionary Sisters of Phu Cuong Diocese in Vietnam will be held June 3-4. Donations will support the construction of the Mother House of their congregation. This House will provide a place to gather and train the young sisters to prepare for the mission of evangelization in the Diocese and everywhere they are sent.

Donations by check should be made payable to the parish. Thank you for your generosity!

WELCOME VISITORS! We invite you to become a member of St. Martin de Porres Catholic Parish. Registration forms are available at all Church entrances. Please return registration forms to the parish office or drop in the offertory basket. Thank you for joining our family of faith!
