Buy Your Western Slope Elberta Peaches! (2023 - 9th Annual)

Knights of Columbus Council #1183 will be selling Western Slope Elberta Peaches again this year! We are selling peaches after mass on the following weekends:

July 29-30, August 5-6, and August 12-13

The peaches will be delivered to you after the mass you attend on August 26 or August 27. You can pick them up after mass at your home church! We are FULL SERVICE!

You have 2 choices (prices went up 5% this year):

A full box ($42): A 20lb box containing approximately 40 delicious peaches or a half box ($21): We split the box in to 2 equal halves.

Consider buying a box for a friend, the Homeless Shelter, or the Harvest of Hope pantry!

All the profit we generate from the sale of these peaches goes to support our parishes, the Sacred Heart School, and selected local community charities. And although our peaches are not organic, they don't contain any preservatives.

We accept cash, check, or credit cards, and you pay when you order. This is because we pay the orchard upon delivery.

Finally - if you'd like to find out more about the Knights of Columbus and what we do, and consider joining Council #1183, just ask us when you're ordering your peaches.

We need Good Catholic Men to join our council, help our parishes our school, and our community.

Thank you, and call or text Bob Gills at (720) 838-8944 with any questions.

Why do priests wear a Roman collar?

The practice of priests wearing the Roman collar developed in the mid-nineteenth century as an alternative to wearing the cassock which in some places was seen as impractical or which was even outlawed by anti-Catholic legislation. Since its introduction, it has taken different forms, and if you visit different countries today, you will see variation in what priests wear.

The Code of Canon Law simply observes that priests wear "suitable ecclesiastical garb" according to the judgments of the national bishops conferences and local custom (no. 284). The US Bishops have instructed that outside of liturgical functions, a "black suit and Roman collar are the usual formal attire for priests. The use of the cassock is at the discretion of the cleric." Priests who are members of religious communities are to follow the rules of their institute regarding the habit or other approved clothing.

In the end, whether a priest wears the Roman collar, a religious habit, or, as is the case in many European countries, a suit and tie (to distinguish them from Protestant clergy who wear a collar) the goal of their clerical clothing is to serve as a sign of their commitment to guide and to serve, and to also allow them to be truly public figures because they are ordained for the service of all.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Do What Needs to Be Done

A friend recently confided in me that although he prayed frequently each day and was involved heavily in his parish, he did not sense much fruit coming from it all and was left feeling unsatisfied. I assured him he was not alone. I told him of a deceased pastor of mine who had spoken frequently about being in this type of situation. Even as a priest, he knew all too well of how we can feel like we are simply going through the motions. It is precisely at those times that continuing to pray and practicing good stewardship is most important, because it would be easier to simply take a break and risk never coming back. He liked to say, "Do the drill," meaning just do what needs to be done.

We are all called to be mature disciples who answer the call of Jesus Christ regardless of the cost. We cannot choose when and where the call will come. We cannot schedule our stewardship in a way that is always most convenient for us. Even when the fruits of our faithful efforts seem hidden from us, we hold to the promise that we are never called to give of ourselves for nothing. God is working through us and in us. No matter how dry the land may seem, seeds are being planted to yield a harvest greater than we can ever realize. Stay strong and do the drill!
