“Suppose one of you has a friend to whom he goes at midnight and says, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves of bread,’ and he says in reply from within, ‘Do not bother me.’ I tell you, if he does not get up to give the visitor the loaves because of their friendship, he will get up to give him whatever he needs because of his persistence.” - Lk 11:5b, 7a, 8

Buy Your Western Slope Elberta Peaches! (2025 - 11th Annual)

Boulder's Knights of Columbus Council #1183 will be selling Western Slope Elberta Peaches again this year!

TO ORDER:

We are selling peaches after Mass on the following weekends: August 2-3 and August 9-10

DELIVERY:

The peaches will be delivered to you after the Mass you attend on August 16 or August 17. You can pick them up after mass at your home church! We are FULL SERVICE!

You have 2 choices (prices went up again this year):

A full box ($45):

A 20lb box containing approximately 40 delicious peaches

A half box ($25):

We split the box in to 2 equal halves.

Consider buying a box for a friend, the Homeless Shelter, or the Harvest of Hope pantry!

All the profit we generate from the sale of these peaches goes to support our parishes, the Sacred Heart School, and selected local community charities. And although our peaches are not organic, they don't contain any preservatives.

We accept cash, check, or credit cards, and you pay when you order. This is because we pay the orchard upon delivery.

Finally - if you'd like to find out more about the Knights of Columbus and what we do, and consider joining Council #1183, just ask us when you're ordering your peaches. We need Good Catholic Men to join our council, help our parishes, our school, and our community.

Thank you, and call or text Bob Gills at (720) 838-8944 with any questions.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC BENEATH THE SURFACE By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman
Whatever is interrupting communication between your heart and the One who crafted it, it can be overcome. There is no door thick enough, no night dark enough, no sleep strong enough. Ask and You Shall Receive It's easy to look at today's Gospel reading and come away with a view of God as disinterested and irritated, reluctant to give us what we need unless we bang down his door, hound him to the furthest reaches of heaven, wrench him from his reverie and force him to answer just so we'll finally go away. Well, that's not what Jesus means by the parable of the friend at midnight — but it's also not surprising that we would think that it is. The whole point of this Gospel is that communication between God and man has been broken. It's not as easy as it once was, as it should be, as it could be. In this parable, there exists many barriers between the supplicant and his friend. The time of day is not ideal. The door is locked. Their dispositions are opposite — one is in the middle of a REM cycle and the other is deeply agitated. They appear to be two people who are not primed to communicate well. Everything is working against them. The same could well be said of God and the human race. Here we are in a fallen world, surrounded by sin and pain and sickness and death to the extent that it infiltrates not just our bodies but our souls, our minds, our attitudes. We are the friend caught unprepared in the dead of night. We don't always know how to talk to God (That door is thick! Will he hear us if we knock?). We don't always know if we should (It's all my fault that I ran out of loaves, after all). We don't even know if we want to (It's nighttime! He might be angry!). Everything is working against us. It doesn't matter, Jesus tells us. Whatever is interrupting communication between your heart and the One who crafted it, the One who desires its full and irrevocable attention, it can be overcome. There is no door thick enough, no night dark enough, no sleep strong enough. So knock. @LPI
