Buy Your Western Slope Elberta Peaches! (2025 - 11th Annual)

Boulder's Knights of Columbus Council #1183 will be selling Western Slope Elberta Peaches again this year!

TO ORDER:

We are selling peaches after Mass on the following weekends: August 2-3 and August 9-10

DELIVERY:

The peaches will be delivered to you after the Mass you attend on August 16 or August 17. You can pick them up after mass at your home church! We are FULL SERVICE!

You have 2 choices (prices went up again this year):

A full box ($45):

A 20lb box containing approximately 40 delicious peaches

A half box ($25):

We split the box in to 2 equal halves.

Consider buying a box for a friend, the Homeless Shelter, or the Harvest of Hope pantry!

All the profit we generate from the sale of these peaches goes to support our parishes, the Sacred Heart School, and selected local community charities. And although our peaches are not organic, they don't contain any preservatives.

We accept cash, check, or credit cards, and you pay when you order. This is because we pay the orchard upon delivery.

Finally - if you'd like to find out more about the Knights of Columbus and what we do, and consider joining Council #1183, just ask us when you're ordering your peaches. We need Good Catholic Men to join our council, help our parishes, our school, and our community.

Thank you, and call or text Bob Gills at (720) 838-8944 with any questions.

Holy Hour, Explained

A holy hour is the practice of spending one hour's time in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, praying and meditating on the agony of Jesus Christ. More broadly, a holy hour can also refer to any 60 minutes set aside in prayer and reflection, whether in church or elsewhere.

The holy hour devotion dates to the late 17th century, when St. Margaret Mary Alacoque received visions of Jesus Christ. In these visions, the Lord requested that St. Margaret Mary spend one hour every Thursday evening lying prostrate and meditating upon his agony in the Garden of Gethsemane. This practice calls back to the Gospel of Matthew, which tells of Jesus' desire for the disciples to "remain here and keep watch with me" (Matthew 26:38) as he awaited his passion.

Holy hours can be made privately or in community, and the USCCB has created a variety of different holy hour formats that can be found at usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/prayers-and-devotions/eucharistic-devotion.

Cemetery - Summer Mowing and Maintenance

We understand how important it is for families to place flowers, vases, and other memorial items on graves as a sign of love and remembrance. However, due to ongoing summer mowing and grounds maintenance, we kindly ask for your understanding as the maintenance staff will need to remove these items during this time to ensure the safety and efficiency of our maintenance efforts.

Please note that we are not responsible for any damage to or loss of items left on graves.

Thank you for your cooperation and care for our shared sacred spaces.

Due to water constraints, the grass is being kept longer so it doesn't dry out.

Carry Your Cross

Question:

As Catholics, we talk a lot about "redemptive suffering" and "carrying your cross." What does that mean practically in daily life?

Answer:

When Jesus spoke these words, they would have sounded quite intense to his hearers. "Pick up your cross daily and follow me." At the time, Jesus hadn't yet been crucified. A cross was a Roman torture instrument. "Pick up the thing that tortures you the most," Jesus seemed to say. Unfortunately, most of us have no real shortage of these in our life. To take up the cross isn't to seek out new sufferings in our life. It's to accept the life we have.

Of course, unjust or unhealthy circumstances should be rectified when possible. But there are always circumstances that remain out of our immediate control. It could be pain management, the defiance of our teenage child, or an unhealthy work environment ... but you need the paycheck to pay the bills. In difficult circumstances, it can be easier to blame, complain, or daydream our way out of it. None of these are real solutions, since none of them accept the reality of the situation at hand. Those options only add to our suffering, since they damage relationships, fixate on the problem, or set up unrealistic expectations.

Instead, Jesus invites us to take up our cross — to look at the uncomfortable situation square in the eyes, take a deep breath, and do our best to be present to God's grace in the moment. To love those in our path. To take things one step at a time. ©LPi
