Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"I know that Elisha is a holy man of God.
Since he visits us often, let us arrange a little room on the roof
and furnish it for him with a bed, table, chair, and lamp,
so that when he comes to us he can stay there."
(2 Kgs 4:9-10)

Psalm:

For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord. (Ps 89)

Second Reading:

Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus
were baptized into his death?
We were indeed buried with him through baptism
into death,
so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead
by the glory of the Father,
we too might live in newness of life. (Rom 6:3-4)

Gospel:

"Whoever receives you receives me,
and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me." (Mt 10:40)

Introducing Our New Parochial Vicar, Fr. John Abulag

I was born John Ronaldo Gabutan Abulag on March 31, in Talisayan Misamis, Oriental, Philippines (My Mom's place). After a month I was baptized at the Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. I grew up in Gingoog City, my Dad's place. At home they call me John-John. I am named John after my great grandpa and Ronaldo after the famous movie actor way back then, Ronaldo Valdez. I have a sweet tooth. I love the colors Blue, Red, Green and Black. I love listening to music and I sing a little. I like to watch horror movies. I have 5 brothers and 1 sister. But I do have 1 adopted sister (niece of my dad) and 1 adopted brother (nephew of Mom). I am already an orphan. My Mom died on the first day of my final exams in Theology. My Dad passed away a day before I was ordained to the priesthood. I went to public school from kindergarten, Elementary and High School. I went to Catholic School during College.

I finished my Bachelor of Science in Commerce major in Management. After college I worked as a curator in a painting gallery. I also taught Christian Living 1 & 2, and Philosophy of Man in the High School Department of St. James College of Quezon City. I finished my AB Philosophy at Our Lady of the Angels Franciscan Seminary. As for my Theology I finished it at the University of Santo Tomas- Recoletos School of Theology in Manila, Philippines. I met the Dominican Missionaries for Deaf Apostolate in the year 2011. I became a perpetually professed brother before going to the Diocese of Joliet. I became a Deacon on December 5, 2020 and was ordained to the Priesthood on May 22, 2021. It was also a good year for me (though my Dad passed that day) because my country, the Philippines, in the year 2021 celebrated 500 years of Christianity. Also that day May 22nd was the feast day of my home city (Philippines) in honor of Saint Rita of Cascia. That is why I consider her as my ordination saint. I also have several favorite saints such as St. Philomena, St. John Maria Vianney, Saint Therese of the Child Jesus, Saint Maximilian Maria Kolbe, Saint Mother Teresa of Calcutta, Saint John Paul II, Saint Padre Pio of Pietrelcina, Saint Catherine of Siena and Saint Dominic de Guzman.

I have been a die hard member of the Legion of Mary since High School. Presently, I am the Spiritual Director of the Legion of Mary in the Joliet area. I am also the Chaplain of the Deaf Community in the Diocese of Joliet. Since I came to Joliet I have never returned to the Philippines. Hopefully next year I will be able to go home to see my brothers and sisters and their families, God willing. Now, I am excited to be transferred to St. Joseph. See you all around!!!

Fr. John

In Gratitude for Those Who Shepherd Our Community's Worship

The Year of Parish Revival for the three-year National Eucharistic Revival began on June 11 and will continue through July 17, 2024. This second phase is intended to “foster Eucharistic devotion at the parish level, strengthening our liturgical life through faithful celebration of the Mass, Eucharistic Adoration, missions, resources, preaching, and organic movements of the Holy Spirit” (from the revival web site).

God has graced Saint Joseph Church with so many people who work tirelessly, and who have worked tirelessly even before these years of revival, to strengthen our liturgical life through that faithful celebration of the Mass. These parishioners generously give their time, talent, and treasure in liturgy, music, and art and environment. As the Director of Liturgy and Music, I invite you to offer a prayer of thanksgiving for these parishioners who not only prepare our worship throughout the year, but who even more diligently pay close attention for the sacred days of Advent, Christmas, Lent, Holy Week, The Sacred Triduum, and Easter. A close look at this past Lent, Holy Week, and Easter brings to mind so many aspects of liturgical prayer:

Palm Sunday's procession,

Holy Thursday's Reception of the Sacred Oils, Washing of the Feet, and Eucharistic Procession,

Good Friday's Reading of the Passion and Adoration of the Holy Cross,

The Easter Vigil's Blessing of the Fire and Paschal Candle, the Proclamation of the Exsultet and our salvation history, the Blessing of Water, the celebrations of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist,

Easter Sunday's celebration of the Resurrection through the rites of Renewal of Baptismal Promises and Holy Communion,

Pentecost's celebration of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

In addition to our parish priests, deacons, Worship Commission, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, servers, sacristans, lectors, ushers, members of our music ministry comprised of cantors, choir, talented instrumentalists, and handbell choir, I ask you to give God thanks in particular for the members of our Art and Environment committee, coordinated by Rita Tandaric. Under Rita's guidance, so much care and attention enhances our worship space and devotional areas, without taking away from the primary symbols of the Altar (Table of the Eucharist) and the Ambo (Table of the Word). God feeds us each Sunday with his Word and his Son's Body and Blood.

The Art and Environment team's holy efforts grace our church space, and honor the liturgy and our sacramental celebrations.

May the ministry of liturgy, music, and visual arts continue to clothe our parish's celebration of the Eucharist in a mantle of prayer.

Bob Valle
Director of Liturgy and Music

LIGHT OF LIFE—SURVIVING DIVORCE

Welcome to all who are divorced or currently filing for divorce. As you know, there are many difficulties and emotions throughout a divorce and a “mourning” period during the process and afterward.

There is hope and healing for Catholics. Please consider joining! This program was created by a variety of experts for Ascension Press which includes a workbook, videos and sources for additional help.

The aim of this group is to share experiences, feelings and insights in a confidential setting. Growth and healing come from our realization that God and His Church love us unconditionally. Through discipleship, prayer and mainly God’s Divine Mercy, we can find peace, recovery, healing and a faith-filled future. Christ is our Light of Life and guide to survival now and in the future.
