Funeral Ministry Team and Choir
Comforting Those Who Mourn
Orientation Gathering
Tuesday, July 25, 9:00 a.m.

When members of a faith community die, the presence of parishioners at the Funeral Mass serve as a visible and aural sign of support, compassion, and comfort. This presence brings to life Christ's words from the Sermon on the Mount: "Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted" (Matthew 5: 4).

The parish Funeral Ministry Team and Choir is comprised of parishioners willing to accompany the grieving by attending the Funeral Mass, and supporting the families' and friends' participation in the prayers, responses, postures and singing of the Mass. You don't have to consider yourself a "singer" in order join this group, just be a generous heart with some time! You are an assembly member who supports by praying with the grieving. Members of this team may also serve as sacristans helping to set up for the liturgy; as extraordinary ministers of holy Communion; as lectors when the family has no one able to read; and as greeters to welcome guests to our parish. The team sits as a group so that we can be that tangible presence of Christ's compassion through the presence of his people.

Though retired persons make up the majority of this team, these young at heart would benefit from and welcome the young in body to share in this holy work! If you are a stay-at-home mom or dad, or you normally work afternoons or evenings, consider joining this ministry. The parish schedules most funerals around 10:00 a.m., and we contact the team members through email, text, or phone tree - whichever is most convenient for the individual. Members arrive about a half hour before each funeral and attend when it fits their schedule!

Join Bob Valle on Tuesday, July 25 from 9:00 a.m. until 10:30 a.m. for an "orientation gathering" to learn about the various aspects of this holy endeavor, what the Church teaches about ministry to the bereaved, and to share in some coffee and pastries. Register on the parish website or use the QR code to go to the website, contact Bob (bvalle@sjpdg.org or 630-964-0216, ext. 1209). If you are unable to attend but still want to take part in this ministry, still contact Bob.

Please consider becoming one who comforts those who mourn by joining the Funeral Ministry Team and Choir!

The World Youth Day Pilgrims from our Parish Youth Ministry along with the St. Scholastica Parish Youth Ministry and our Spiritual Director, Fr. Matthew Nathan will be leaving in one week for an amazing trip to Paris, Lourdes, Avila, Fatima and ultimately to Lisbon, Portugal. In Lisbon we will experience adoration with our Holy Father at an overnight Vigil. The following morning, Pope Francis will celebrate Sunday Mass outdoors with an expected one million Catholic pilgrims...including us!

We have been incredibly blessed by your generosity through your donations and your response to all our fundraisers over the last couple of years. This parish is AMAZING!

We would be honored to bring your prayer intentions to all the holy places we will go. We will offer up all of these prayers at daily Mass and at the Vigil Mass at the end of our trip. Please stop in the narthex and write your prayer intentions down for us. We will bring every one of them with us each day! God hears our prayers - especially of our young people - and He will answer all of us in His perfect timing, knowing what is best for each of us. Jesus, We Trust in You!
