

St. Joseph Catholic Church

From Fr. Christopher AnkleyA reading from the works of St Bonaventure*With you is the source of life

You who have been redeemed, consider who it is who hangs on the cross for you, whose death gives life to the dead, whose passing is mourned by heaven and earth, while even the hard stones are split. Consider how great he is; consider what he is.

In order that the Church might be formed from the side of Christ as he slept on the cross, in order that the word of scripture might be fulfilled – ‘They shall look on him whom they have pierced’ – God’s providence decreed that one of the soldiers should open his sacred side with a spear, so that blood with water might flow out to pay the price of our salvation. This blood, which flowed from its source in the secret recesses of his heart, gave the sacraments of the Church power to confer the life of grace, and for those who already live in Christ was a draught of living water welling up to eternal life.

Arise, then, bride of Christ, be like the dove that nests in the rock-face at the mouth of a cavern, and there, like a sparrow which finds its home, do not cease to keep vigil; there, like a turtle-dove, hide the fledglings of your chaste love; place your lips there to draw water from the wells of your Saviour. For this is the spring flowing from the middle of paradise; it divides and becomes four rivers, then spreads through all devout hearts, and waters the whole world and makes it fruitful.

O soul devoted to God, whoever you may be, run to this source of life and light with eager longing. And with the power of your inmost heart cry out to him: ‘O indescribable beauty of God most high! O pure radiance of everlasting light! O life that gives life to all life! O light that illuminates every light, and preserves in its undying splendor the myriad flames that have shone before the throne of your godhead from the dawn of time!

‘O water eternal and inaccessible, clear and sweet, flowing from the spring that is hidden from the eyes of all mortal men; the spring whose depths cannot be plumbed, whose height cannot be measured, whose shores cannot be charted, whose purity cannot be muddled.’

From this source flows the river which makes glad the city of God, so that with glad shouts and songs of thanksgiving we sing to you our hymns of praise, and by experience prove that with you is the fountain of life; and in your light we shall see light.

From the St. Joseph Parish Vocations Ministry

World Priest Day is World Day of Prayer for the Sanctification of Priests, a day set aside to pray for priests, established by Pope John Paul II in 2002 and held on the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, this year June 18. We would like to say the following prayer for our priests: Sacred Heart of Jesus, protect our priests Fr Ankley, Fr Jacob and Fr Pius in the midst of their work at our parish. Comfort them in their afflictions. Give them health of body, assistance in their temporal needs, and your blessing on all that they do. Amen. Also, please pray a rosary for our priests on June 18.

Planning a Funeral at St. Joseph If you have a loved one pass away and you're not sure what to do, contact the funeral home. They will help guide you in planning the service, from the rosary, to contacting the church and cemetery. Let them navigate the process during this difficult time. That navigation is part of what the fees you pay cover.

These funeral homes were recently featured as Sponsor of the Week. They help make the weekly bulletin free to our parish by advertising in the bulletin.
