Mark 4:30-32 He said, "To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade."

2 Corinthians 5: 7 . . . for we walk by faith, not by sight.

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Years ago, I once heard someone say that common sense is all that is required; and then he added with a little smile, that, unfortunately, common sense is not always that common. We can easily become sidetracked from right reason and lose the way. We can be blinded to the Lord in our lives, missing out on what really matters. That is why the Lord, as Divine Master and Teacher, through His parables makes clear what we must do to partake of His kingdom here and now in preparation for His eternal kingdom in heaven.

The early Christians were glad to know "The Way" set down by the Lord and handed down by the apostles. Bit by bit many would soon see the wisdom of renouncing the world in order to fully live the Christian life. It would require a change in priorities so as to see things in a Christ-like way. We see this change of mind in a charming but profound way in the parable of the mustard seed. We should take the Lord's simple but eloquent message to heart.

Like the little mustard seed our obscure lives matter to God. The choices we make or do not make add up. We are important to Him. Thus, it makes a difference if we live upstanding and holy lives day by day. The kingdom of God is in our midst. Each must do his part to further that kingdom come what may. The Lord will take care of completing the good work that we have begun. Let us water the mustard seed with devoted prayer in faith, hope, and love. Let us pray for the light to see that in the end all is grace.

Next Saturday, June 19 at 10am in the cathedral, Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone will ordain two new priests for the Archdiocese: Deacon Nick Case and Deacon Cameron Polette. I have known these men for many years and they are ready and willing to serve as faithful priests. Please pray that men from our parish will step up to accept the Lord's call to priesthood. Keep all our priests in your prayers.

Yours in our Lord and our Lady,
Fr. Mark G. Mazza, Pastor

Thank You from St. Vincent DePaul

The members of the IHM Conference of the Society of St Vincent DePaul wish to thank our fellow parishioners for their generosity in the collection on May 29th. Your contribution of $1,557, greatly replenished our finances, which had been significantly decreased by aid supplied due to the pandemic. Thanks to your generosity, we will be able to continue helping our neighbors in need with food, clothing and shelter. The food aid includes both direct support to families in our community and our monthly 4th Sunday Lunch at Fair Oaks in support of "Sandwiches on Sunday". The clothing and shelter support includes both direct support to families in our community and support of the SVDP San Mateo County Homeless centers. We keep you in our prayers. Please keep us in yours. The next collection for St. Vincent de Paul Society is on

SCHOOL NEWS

Immaculate Heart of Mary School Preschool – 8th Grade Commitment to Excellence Dedication to Faith

Mission Statement

Immaculate Heart of Mary School fosters a nurturing Catholic school community where children receive a strong spiritual and academic foundation based on Gospel values.

Philosophy Statement

We, the community of Immaculate Heart of Mary School, believe in the four-fold purpose of Catholic education: to teach Catholic doctrine and to proclaim Gospel values, to build a community, to worship, and to foster service. We value the uniqueness of each child and strive to develop the total person spiritually, morally, intellectually, culturally, socially, physically, and psychologically. Recognizing that parents are the primary educators of their children with teachers as facilitators of the children's learning, we stress the partnership of family, school, and parish in building the faith community of Immaculate Heart of Mary.
