Sign's of Jesus

Last Sunday we heard how Jesus fed a great crowd in a miraculous way and how the people wanted to make him a king. Today's gospel is something of a surprise in that we hear how the crowd challenged him to give them a sign in order for them to believe in him. They believed in him enough to want him for their king, but now they seem to take a different attitude toward Jesus. It doesn't seem to make sense. Jesus wanted the people to take him on his terms while the people were willing to take Jesus on their terms but not on his.

Explanation: The people approached Jesus on a material, worldly level. Jesus said, "you are looking for me not because you saw signs but because you ate the loves." It wasn't just a free fish dinner they were seeking; they wanted a king to free them from the power of Rome and to establish their independence. Jesus was trying to lift their thinking from worldly, material level to a more spiritual level. He told them he fed them as sign that he wanted to feed them with bread that comes from heaven, from God himself, bread that would nourish them for eternal life. But Jesus said they didn't see the meaning of the sign that he had worked. There was much more to the sign that a free meal. There was much more to the sign than the possibility that he could be the long awaited king who would restore independence to their nation. We can't be too hard on them for not recognizing the profound meaning of this sign—how could they have figured it out by themselves. They need Jesus to explain to them the meaning behind what he had done. That's exactly what Jesus planned to do as he continued teaching them.

RCIA Classes

Sign-up is Underway ... What is RCIA?

RCIA, which stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a process first used by the early Church that continues today, allowing prospective new members to explore our Catholic Faith. This process begins with a period of inquiry and introduction. The inquiry period is followed by formation and preparation for the sacraments. Reception into our community then occurs at the Easter Vigil. Who is it for? This formation process is for those who wish to find out more about the Catholic Church with the possibility of being received into the faith. If you are interested in becoming a part of the group this fall, or just want more information, please phone @ 503-362-6159 Classes are Wednesdays @ 6:30 pm at Immaculate Conception, Stayton. Catholics who want to learn more about your faith are also welcome!!!

Fr. Dick Update:

A number of you have asked about my heath and it has been difficult to give a positive answer. Yes, I have recovered from my prostate cancer surgery but in the process of that trauma they performed two tests to be assured that there wasn't cancer in other places. One of the things that they found was an aneurism (3.7cm) on my lower aorta. After the surgery I was sent to a cardiac doctor and at first he was just going to monitor that new found issue but then looked at my different pressures in my arms and then listening tom y heart found a murmur and had another test done where a larger aneurism (6.2) that is very near my heart was found and a new test has not yet determined if it is the root of the aorta or not. But the aortic valve is damaged and needs to be replaced. Therefore I will be having another surgery on August 28th and will be again out of circulation for at least 8 weeks for my chest to heal and will not be able to drive. It could be longer. Presently I'm noticing some breathing issues and that is causing my blood pressure to soar freighting me even more. Of course the doctor asked me to sign something reminding me of the 10 things that could go wrong including death. But you know it pencils out to be only a 3 percent risk factor. (Does that figure in the risk of the drugs or not???) semi-joke.

Life certainly is fragile and this year I have been waiting around a considerable amount contemplating that reality. I am conscious that if I were living in most others countries this surgery would not be possible and I would just live until the aneurism would shred and my life would be over. As it is I'm hoping to eventually return to you a newer and better version of myself and then hopefully RE-GIFTING to you what the loving Lord is generously offering me.
Thanks for being God's people.
Fr. Dick
