“Accepting Jesus' Call”

In today's gospel we saw Jesus starting his public ministry in Galilee, considered as a land of pagans, of people held in contempt by the other Jews. At the end of his gospel Matthew will say it was from a mountain in Galilee that Jesus will send his disciples to the whole world. The light that shone out of the mountains of Galilee is thus destined to illuminate people all over the world. So, the call of Peter, Andrew, James and John was of a great response to Jesus' call to discipleship. For them it was a risk and a plunge into the unknown and insecure world. But they trusted in the Caller. They opened their hearts to him and he recognized their sincerity and goodness. Following Jesus and being led by his Spirit bring us the opportunity to experience the Kingdom of God which Jesus came to establish in the hearts of those who welcome him. "There are two words used a great deal by Jesus in the Gospels. One is 'Come' and the other is 'Go'. It is no use of coming unless you go and it is no use of going unless you come". As Christians we responded the call of Jesus Christ, and we will go all over the world to do Jesus' mission, calling people to repentance and bringing them the message of God's love and forgiveness.
