SAMs Lenten Retreat: Healing and Restoring Your Family Through Prayer:

It's time to stop worrying about your family and learn to pray for healing. Jesus knows you—and your loved ones—need physical, inner, and spiritual healing. Meet Christ the Healer and discover practical ways to pray at the Mom's Retreat, March 5, 11:30am–2:30pm in the St. Andrew's Social Hall. Jesus alone is Healer, but He wants to use you, now, to bring blessing and healing to your hurting family. Become equipped to battle for your family. For more information, please contact Linda Vaught at vtvaughts@aol.com. All women of the parish are welcome. Join us and bring a friend!

"I came that they may have life—and have it abundantly" - John 10:10. Only Jesus has the power to set you free.

How do we know someone loves us? Is it through the sweet words they say to us, the grand promises they make? While these things can be part of the equation, we come to learn that love can only prove itself through deeds. We know someone loves us not when they say they love us, but when they show they love us—by prioritizing us, caring for us, and seeking our good, even when it might mean making a sacrifice.

If this applies to us determining if someone loves us, it can also help us reflect on whether we truly love others. Do the things we say we believe about love, giving generously, and serving others lead to concrete deeds in our lives—the “good fruit” Christ talks about in today's Gospel—or do they tend to not translate into action?

It can be difficult to tell! But the Lord gives us opportunities to put love into action each and every day—in our family, our workplace, and our wider community. As a parish, we actually have one of those opportunities before us today: the chance to contribute to our Annual Diocesan Appeal. This is a concrete opportunity to not only give generously, but also to contribute to the “good fruit” that our diocese is producing today, sharing the love of the Lord with so many who desire to receive it. Ask the Lord to ask how he's inviting you to put your love into action today.

Prayer for Good Friday

I adore Thee, O Holy Cross, which has been adorned with the tender, delicate, and venerable hands and feet of my Savior, Jesus Christ, and immured with the Precious Blood. I adore Thee, my God, nailed to the Cross for me. I adore Thee again, O Holy Cross, for the love of my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

(Revealed to St. Bridget that is said devoutly 3 times on Good Friday that 33 souls would be released from Purgatory, 3 souls on ordinary days.)
