And people brought to him a deaf man who had a speech impediment and begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him off by himself away from the crowd. He put his finger into the man's ears and, spitting, touched his tongue; then he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, "Ephphatha!"—that is, "Be opened!" - Mk 7:32-34

BIBLE STUDIES

Treasures of the Tradition: Two reading groups are available this Fall, sponsored by the Religious Education program at Holy Comforter Church in Charlottesville:

Chaucer ~ The Canterbury Tales. A romp through some of the Middle Ages' most beautiful and unforgettable stories, including rowdy tales and teachings of deep religious seriousness. Weekly from mid-September.

Stoicism For Real: Learn from the sources about a philosophy that has been one of the most important dialogue-partners for Christianity from the beginning (seemingly drawing the attention of St. Paul in particular) until now. Bi-weekly from mid-September.

Participants may come as often or as seldom as they like, and everyone's first meeting is a free trial. Meetings scheduled by participant needs. Go to <https://thetreasures.org> or email <bugbee@thetreasures.org> if you are interested. Classes start soon!

Interested in learning about St. Benedict and his Holy Rule? The Oblates of St. Benedict meet monthly from September to May in Bedford, Bristow, and Richmond.

All inquirers are welcome (married or single) to come and learn how to live in our modern day grounded in the sixth century Rule of St. Benedict. Benedictine Oblates (lay people) live in the shared community life with a Benedictine Monastery near them.

To learn more, please contact Nancy Eck at: nancyeck124@gmail.com
