From the Desk of Father John Jicha

Dear Parishioners,

This past weekend, our gospel passage has various sayings of Christ, actually spoken on different occasions. Matthew, in his systematic manner, has gathered these sayings into one continuous collection, that scripture scholars call the Sermon on the Mount. Matthew's presentation of Jesus' sayings in this organized way makes it easier for his readers, who were Jewish converts, to grasp the new order of salvation as inaugurated by Christ.

Matthew's presentation of the Sermon on the Mount is essentially a three part instruction by Jesus on the Way of Life in the kingdom of heaven. Today's reading is part one and deals with the Law. Part two deals with worship and religious practice and contains the Lord's Prayer. Part three deals with trusting God and deeds of loving service to our neighbor.

As Jewish Christians who had always been faithful to strict adherence to the Law, as interpreted by the Pharisees, Matthew's community begins to understand this new interpretation of the law that Jesus puts forth. Matthew affirms that God has always been at work in history through "the Law and the prophets" and that God's work goes beyond the Law, to be embodied by Jesus the Messiah. The written scriptures and their interpretation in tradition are surpassed by Jesus whose life and teaching are the definitive revelation of the will of God.

When Matthew speaks of "the Law and the prophets" he means the whole scripture. When the Messiah brings the fullness of the kingdom, none of scripture will be done away with; instead it will be fulfilled. Matthew describes Jesus in this way: he does not overturn the Law of Moses, nor does he set his followers free from the Law. Rather, Jesus requires his followers to go beyond the Law by doing more than the Law requires.

The Law condemned murder; Jesus condemns anger. Avoiding murder therefore is not enough; the true Christian must remove any inclination to murder by building up true, brotherly love for all people in his heart. We must not only not physically injure our neighbor or injure his character, but we must be ever ready to help him and prevent injury to him, whenever and wherever we can. We must not only not commit adultery, but must also develop a Christian respect and esteem for purity, the virtue which will preserve us not only from adultery but even from thoughts of adultery, or any other abuse of our sexual gifts given us by God for his sublime purpose. Thus, true and loyal service of God therefore begins in the heart and flows from our experience of Jesus, the Messiah who came among us.

Desde el Escritorio del Padre Juan Antonio

El evangelio de este domingo VI nos viene estupendamente. Frente al "todo vale" que, en cierta manera nos propaga el mundo, Jesús nos dice el "pero yo os digo".

Frente al aborto (porque el ser humano es dueño de su propio cuerpo), el Señor nos recuerda que -el 5º mandamiento- sigue tan vigente como lo conoció y escuchó Moisés: "¡No matarás! "Y que, la vida, viene de Dios y, sólo Dios, puede disponer de ella.

Frente al olvido o la marginación de los más mayores (cuando la sociedad afirma que ya han cumplido), el Señor nos trae a la memoria el 4º punto de lo revelado por Dios en el Monte Sinaí "honrarás y respetarás a tus padres".

Frente a la opulencia (en contraste escandaloso con los países más pobres), en este día de Manos Unidas que lucha por el desarrollo de los pueblos más desfavorecidos y hambrientos, el Señor nos lleva al segundo mandamiento: "amarás al prójimo como a ti mismo".

Frente al intento de absolutizar leyes y normas que siendo indignas se exigen a todas las personas sin derecho a objeción de conciencia (como recientemente reclamaba el Papa Benedicto XVI), Jesús nos recuerda que, sólo Dios, es digno de ser adorado y de ser tenido como suprema ley a favor del hombre.

La Palabra de Dios, sus leyes, no son ningún adorno para la humanidad. Es la constatación de un hecho real: muchos de los que creemos en el Señor no tenemos orientada suficientemente, y con fortaleza cimentada, nuestra vida en el Reino de Jesús. Dios, y es así, no es ningún adorno: si su Ley fuera cumplida muchos dramas del mundo serían superados.

Jesús no quiere esclavos de su Reino. Hay un dicho que dice algo así "la letra con sangre entra". La ley del Señor, desde el momento en que está sustentada en el amor, requiere discípulos libres (no obligados), con luz propia (no con imitaciones), con sal y picante (no derretidos o vencidos). A nadie se nos obliga a creer y, por lo tanto, cumplir la voluntad de Dios, esperar en El y en sus promesas nos lleva a la siguiente conclusión: vivir según Dios es un gran regalo. Un privilegio que el Señor nos recuerda en el evangelio que acabamos de escuchar.

With the advent of the chemical abortion pill which must be taken in months 1-2, this technology provides very high definition images that may increase the bonding between mother and unborn baby thereby increasing the probability that life will be chosen over abortion.
