Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

In May 2023, for the first time in almost three quarters of a century, a monarch was crowned in England. A few days later a friend of mine scoffed, "What a waste of time and energy! What is the point of a king?"

I'm a proud American who wants neither theocracy nor monarchical restoration. I like our democratic republic. But the coronation of King Charles reminded me of something needed in every person and community: confidence in the future. The king's most basic role is to symbolize the unity of the nation. In England, the parliament members handle many of the practical duties of governance. But the king or queen can do what they cannot: embody in a single person the reality and future of a whole nation. To say, "this is our king" is to say, "we exist as a community, and we have a future." Kingship isn't primarily about the power of one person or family. It's about the enduring identity and unity of the whole.

To say Christ is our King is to say we exist as a people. We are one in him. We are, and we will be as long as he is. And since he will be our risen king forever, together we have a future filled with hope. Even the best countries will finally fall. But Christ and his Church will endure forever. What good news! It's not a waste of time to crown a king. We do it all the time. Let's be sure to crown the right one — the one whose kingdom never ends.

— Father John Muir

RESTORATIVE JUSTICE MONTH

"You see changes in attitudes, values and beliefs which have cultivated criminal activity. You see tremendous satisfaction in both parties. I've seen it. Restorative Justice works."

Catholic Daughter Court #1661 OLP Church October Service

In October, our Court created more than 200 Halloween candy bags to share with families at Poverello House. We pray for all children and families in need and work to bring joy to their lives in our small way.

We thank Father Michael for blessing our Court on National CDA Sunday. Since its inception, Catholic Daughters have consistently and unselfishly used their God given talents and time to work for quality of life, social justice, and compassion.

Thank you to all parishioners, family, and friends who donated to our recent yard sale and who purchased tickets and joined us for our Applebee's Flapjack Breakfast..

We appreciate your support of our CDA Court and are pleased to have met our fundraising goals for both of our annual events. All profits earned benefit our charity distribution in the spring. Please know that you remain in our prayers always.

Am I Being Called to the Priesthood?

To be precise, a man only “knows” he is called when he is ordained! However, there are many positive signs that can point to a vocation, and which can help a man make the decision to enter the seminary and continue along the path towards the priesthood. Read these statements to yourself, take them to prayer, then act on what you know is right. God knows, you may be called to the priesthood!

- A personal relationship with Jesus Christ is important to me.
- People have told me I would make a good priest.
- Going to Mass and Adoration is a very important part of my faith life.
- The thought of becoming a priest keeps coming back over and over again.
- I feel called to give more of myself to others.
- I have a burning desire to help people get closer to Christ and to know the Truth.

If some of these statements reflect how you feel, if your heart is pounding even harder, if you sense a greater desire to find out if God is calling you to live in black and white, get in touch with the Vocations Director or your Pastor. vocations@dioceseoffresno.org

Have no fear, the Lord wants only what is best for you!
