

Women of WEA Meeting minutes

October 7,2025

Yes, we have a new name, The Women of WEA. Formerly the Altar Society. We voted at the meeting and the majority of members present chose the new name. Pat opened the meeting with the Memo rare'

Reports:

Ministry of Care-Julie reported that we will be doing a Senior/Retiree Luncheon on October 30,2025 and will be serving various soups and dessert. On December 10 we will be making baskets of cookies and goodies for the home bound in our parish.

Funeral Luncheon-Gina has bought two new coffee makers, one for coffee and one for hot water to be used for Women of WEA events.

Social-Kathy read a thank you note from Bob Rooney. Are next social dinner will be at Sunset Grille on October 22,2025 at 5:30. In November We will enjoy lunch at the Greenwood Tea Room on November 12 at 11:30.

Treasury Report-Pat Loftus thanked all supporters of the Bake Sale It was a great success. Tracy could not be present Pat read the report.

For the month of September there were $2,303.00 Deposits and disbursements of $1,301.81. There were two funerals and a gift for Sr. Pat. The bake sale represents $1417.00 in the deposit column. The Ministry of Care Balance is $10,538.98. The balance for the Quilters is $5,069.86 and the Balance for the Funeral Luncheons is $7.452.23. and in the General Fund there is $6,069.68 ending in an overall balance of $29,130.75.

New Business:

Elizabeth Peuser has gracefully accepted to be the chair for the Giving Tree. Pat Loftus has the tickets for our Christmas outing to the Smokey Mountain Christmas Concert. If you ordered a ticket thru Pat, you will owe her $45.00 Please pay Pat soon.

The Women of the Month is Michelle Beets. She is an awesome baker who supports us with cakes, pies and cinnamon rolls. Michelle was very generous for the bake sale. She has supported the Easter Vigil reception with wonderful cakes and cupcakes. We so appreciate all of your help.

Next meeting of the Women of WEA will

November 4, 2025 6:00 Social 6:30 meeting

Sincerely,

Diane Daschke, Secretary