ANNUAL SCHOOL APPEAL

Dear friends in Christ,

In the article, “Why Catholic Education Still Matter in 10 Reasons,” Rev. Ronald Nuzzi starts by saying Catholic school students “see the signs of God’s love around them, . . . in their own neighborhoods, communities and the world. In an incarnational view of the world, there is no such thing as a secular subject as all learning helps to develop and bring to full bloom that image of God that is in each person.” In other words, God is not a subject. We learn in Catholic schools how to see the hand of God in all subjects, see Christ’s face in all people, and the Spirit of God permeating all of creation.

Your support of Catholic schools is support for the Catholic parent trying to raise a child in the faith, or the parent who recognizes that faith-based education develops the whole child to be best prepared for life.

I invite you to review this year’s Catholic Schools’ Appeal report available online at www.schools.worcesterdiocese.org and in The Catholic Free Press. Catholic Schools are performing a vital service to the entire Church and we need the support of everyone to carry on our mission. In order to share the “Good News” story of Catholic schools, we rely on those of you who yourselves have received a Catholic education or have witnessed the benefits of a Catholic education in the graduates you have come to know. We owe it to future generations for them to be able to encounter Christ in the classroom. Thank you for prayerfully considering how you can be part of this support for our Catholic schools.

With every prayerful best wish, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Robert J. McManus
 Bishop of Worcester

The second collection this weekend is for your annual offerings to augment the operating budget of our own school. All money collected at our Masses goes directly to OLA School unless noted otherwise on your envelope.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

“My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established...” (Luke 16:25-26) When God created the world He declared that it was good and He gave it to all mankind for us to enjoy. However, over the years we have created a chasm between those who have great gifts and those who do not. In today’s Gospel we see that with our own generosity we must bridge that gap between those who have much and those who have little or we may find ourselves on the wrong side of the chasm in the next life.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED AT MUSTARD SEED

The Mustard Seed Catholic Worker at 93 Piedmont St., Worcester needs volunteers who are available to assist with extending hospitality to our guests, serving snacks and the evening meal 3-7 pm. Please contact us at mustardseedcw.org or call Ann Doyle at 508-450-4134 for more information.

 or

Monroe and the rest of the campaign committee look forward to seeing you there. Please call the rectory to let us know which session you can attend or email Fr. Monroe at cmonroe@ourladyofangels.org. You can also sign up on the sheet posted in the Bell Tower or on the table behind the last pew in the main aisle of the church.
