Welcome to Our Visitors

Thank you for sharing in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with us today. Please introduce yourself after Mass.

If you are a Catholic, we at Holy Nativity receive Holy Communion kneeling and by intinction (both species on the tongue).

If you are not a Catholic, during Communion we invite you either to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest, or fingers across your lips, and receive a blessing from the Priest or Deacon, or remain in your pew and reflect on the presence of Christ.

JMJ

Have you ever wondered about when the end of time will come.

There were some who highlighted to our Lord the beauty of the Temple. They wanted our Lord to be as impressed with its apparent permanence as they were. His answer was startling to His hearers. Rather than laud the beauty and apparent permanence of the Temple Herod had built, our Lord warned the day would come that it would be destroyed "...there shall not be left here one stone upon another..." Such a thought would be unthinkable to them as they still had a regional notion of religion, and our Lord's prophecy of the Temple being destroyed would be the end of their faith system.

They understandably want to know when this will happen, who wouldn't, forewarned is forearmed. Our Lord's answer probably was not initially comforting, wars, rumors of wars, famine, pestilence, and earthquakes are all lurking at the door. Yet, the end is not yet, the words of comfort are coming. He assures us that we will not be abandoned by God in all this, but instead if we entrust our defense to Him, He will give us the words to speak.

What lessons do we learn from this passage? That we must not be so tied to the things of this world as to the Kingdom of Heaven. We must be prepared for hardships, sufferings, and persecution, but God will not abandon us. We must remember to never panic, but instead to know that when chaos is all around us, and the world is seemingly coming to an end God is in charge. Whenever you feel as though the world is upside down, know that God is not surprised, but has foreseen it all from the beginning, we have nothing to fear.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil, may God rebuke him we humbly pray, and do thou O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into Hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world, seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
