A note from Father George

Dear brothers and sisters.

There are some things that I want to share with you.

As you noted, this Monday, November 1st, the Catholic Church is celebrating the Solemnity of All Saints. This is one of the Holy Days of obligation of the Catholic Church. Let us remember that the Church has 6 Holy Days of obligation: January 1: The Feast of Mary, the Mother of God; 40 days after Easter Sunday: Ascension Thursday; August 15: Assumption of Mary into heaven; November 1: All Saints' Day; December 8: The Feast of the Immaculate Conception; and December 25: Christmas, the Nativity of Our Lord. Hence, N.E.T. Catholic will have 3 Eucharists (one in each parish) to celebrate this solemnity: St. Anthony's Church at 9:00 a.m., Holy Cross at 12:00 p.m., and All Saints (Solemn Mass) at 7:00 p.m. I hope that all of us can participate in this celebration.

I will be away from November 6th to 12th. During that time, I will be in St. Mary's Seminary and University, working on "New Pastor's Program." I want to prepare myself to be a better priest for each one of you, especially in my position as the Parochial Administrator of N.E.T. Catholic. Therefore, Fr. Kevin Hanlon, M.M. will be covering me, celebrating the Eucharists and the Sacrament of Reconciliation. "Fr. Kevin Hanlon was ordained for Maryknoll in 1989, and was assigned to Japan, where he has spent a total of seventeen years in both Hokkaido and Kyoto Dioceses. Along the way, he earned a Doctorate in Mission Theology from the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome, and afterwards taught at Notre Dame Women's College in Kyoto (Sacred Scripture). Fr. Hanlon returned to the U.S. in 2005 to serve as a mission educator and promoter, and was an advisor to the USCCB Committee for World Missions for two years. Fr. Hanlon has written a number of journal articles on mission, and authored the book Popular Catholicism in Japan: Their Own Voices, Their Spiritual Writers, and Their Devotional Art (Tokyo: Enderle, 2004). He is presently the U.S. Region Superior of the Maryknoll Fathers and Brothers, and lives at their headquarters in Ossining, NY" (Taking from <https://iacm-catholic.org/treasurer/>). Please, give a warm welcome to Fr. Hanlon, and let us help him in everything we can.

On November 14th, N.E.T. Catholic will celebrate the Mass of Remembrance for our beloved ones who are now resting in the Peace of Christ. At the entrance of the 3 churches, you can write the names of those you want to pray for in our Book of Remembrance. Besides, on a separate piece of paper, which is next to the Book of Remembrance, you can find a sheet of paper for those people who died from November 2, 2020 to today. The names of those who have died within the last year will be read aloud during the Mass of Remembrance. Also, you can scan the following QR code to do the same. Let us pray for our beloved brothers and sisters who are now resting in the Presence of the Lord.

God Bless you, and may the Blessed Virgin Mary be with you always.

Fr. George

Parish News And Events

Blue cupboard announcement: Holy Cross Blue Cupboard Update

Thank you to everyone who has helped to keep our blue cupboard filled during the past few months. We have been adding items to the cupboard 2 to 3 times each week and have noticed recently that the food is going quickly. Below are some items that are currently running low in stock. Please consider contributing a few items by placing them in the red tub in the narthex of church. Items needed: cereal, instant oatmeal, canned fruit, pasta, fruit breakfast bars (like Nutri-grain), granola bars, pop tarts, tuna, macaroni and cheese mix. Just a reminder that we cannot accept glass jars due to the breakage risk.

Please take note of Upcoming Masses:

November 1st is a Holy Day of obligation the Masses are as Scheduled:

9:00 am Mass @ Saint Anthony for the People of our Parishes

12:00 pm Mass @ Holy Cross for the People of our Parishes

7:00 pm Mass @ All Saints For the People of our Parishes

November 14th Mass of Remembrance at all 3 Parishes

Who Are We:

We are the North East Tompkins Roman Catholic Parishes, for short N.E.T. Catholic. This name reflects the Mission the Lord has given us to proclaim the Gospel in North East Tompkins (N.E.T.), shows that we do that as a network (NET) of sister parishes that in Christian solidarity give testimony of unity in diversity, and that we do this as Roman Catholics (Catholic).

We are a network of three sister parishes: All Saints in Lansing, Holy Cross in Dryden/Freeville and Saint Anthony in Groton, we strive to build unity in diversity and to offer warm hospitality to all. We believe in and preach a God of mercy and do our best to be agents of mercy wherever we go.

Please join the Pope in praying for the following intention during the month of October 2021:

Missionary Disciples

We pray that every baptized person may be engaged in evangelization, available to the mission, by being witnesses of a life that has the flavor of the Gospel.
