Capital Campaign Feature

Did you know that the murals that will be in the church sanctuary will feature the Transfiguration, The Holy Trinity and Pentecost?

The new artwork will offer an opportunity to catechize through beautiful events in salvation history.

Our Phase II Capital Campaign has officially begun and we are asking parishioners to pray for our campaign and consider making a gift via the envelopes in the pews or online on our website.

See our website for details or to learn more information about our Campaign.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

We are excited to announce that our 2023-2024 religious education registration is officially open and you can register online.

If you have any questions please contact our sacramental coordinator, Mitzi Macias in the office at (772) 461-2233.

Beat the Heat!

We want our families to beat the summer heat and grab a Sunday seat at their local parish or a church they visit on vacation.

Spread your faith this summer by attending weekend Mass and taking a photo with a priest. If you share it with communications@stanastasiachurch.org, students at St. Anastasia School will earn a free dress day on August 25th.

Sacramental Outreach Ministry

+MISSION STATEMENT+

To service parishioners who, because of illness, injury, or lack of mobility are unable to attend Mass and desire the Sacraments of the Blessed Sacrament, Reconciliation, and/or Anointing.

+Ministry Overview+

Sacramental Outreach Ministers (SOMs) visit private homes, nursing homes, assisted living and rehabilitation facilities, sharing the Word of God from Mass, carrying the Eucharistic Presence of Christ and facilitating priestly visits upon request.

Prospective communicants must be initially visited and assessed by a priest who offers Anointing and/or Reconciliation. Upon final priestly approval the Sacramental Outreach Minister is assigned to bring the TRUE PRESENCE and joy of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament to the communicants unable to attend Mass. A simple and brief Communion rite is reverently performed by the minister. The schedule of visits is most often weekly, but can be adjusted to meet the individual circumstances of the communicant as well as that of the minister. SOM volunteers can typically perform their ministry in as little as one or more hours per week, depending on the number of communicants assigned. Diocese and parish training and orientation is provided as well as ongoing support. This ministry is the most rewarding and fulfilling way to serve our Lord, our parish community and our church.

FAQs

Who are the Sacramental Outreach Ministers (SOMs)? They are Extraordinary Ministers of the Holy Eucharist. They are parishioners over the age of 18 who are in good standing with the Catholic Church, the Diocese of West Palm Beach and the Parish of St Anastasia.

What are the prerequisites for becoming a SOM? SOM candidates are required to provide documentation proving Catholic baptism, Holy Communion, Confirmation and Catholic Marriage (if married). A background check and fingerprinting is also required.

What do SOMs do? SOMs visit parishioners who, because of a disability, are not able to attend Mass. The SOM performs a brief reverent communion rite during which the Blessed Sacrament is given to the communicant.

Where do the SOMs do their ministry? The SOM will provide his/her service at either a communicant's private residence or in a nursing facility.

When do SOMs perform their ministry? SOMs and communicants will see each other at any mutually agreed to time during the course of a seven-day week. Visits occur directly after the SOM has received the Eucharist from a priest at Mass.

Why are SOMs necessary? Every baptized Catholic is compelled to help save souls. We believe that this is our ultimate goal and we do so reverently with joy and commitment.

How do SOMs perform their solemn and sacred responsibilities? SOMs are provided both diocesan and parish orientation and training.

How much time does it take the SOM to perform this weekly ministry? Typically following a Mass, the SOM should be able to complete his/her duties in as little as one hour. The actual time does, however, also depend on travel, the number of communicants and the level of socialization that one desires to have.

What other responsibilities do SOMs have? Upon a communicant's appeal SOMs are required to request that a priest visit the homebound for the purpose of Anointing and/or Reconciliation. SOMs are also expected to log each visit with the Church Office and to report any

Prayer for Protection from Storms

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance for you are our only Refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Mary, Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, pray for us.

Eucharistic Miracle of RIMINI

ITALY, 1227

This Eucharistic miracle was performed directly by Saint Anthony after he was challenged by a certain Bonovillo to demonstrate the truth of the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. The most ancient biography of Saint Anthony, L'Assidua (The Untiring), carries Bonovillo's exact words: "Father! I tell you before all these people: I will believe in the Eucharist if my mule, after fasting for three days, adores the Host which you offer him rather than eating the fodder which I give him." The mule, despite the fact that it was exhausted by hunger, knelt before the Host and refused its food.

The Body and Blood of Christ

Today we celebrate the feast day of the Body and Blood of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. At the Last Supper, Jesus knew that He was going to leave His friends. So He turned the bread into His Body and the wine into His Blood - even though they still looked like bread and wine - and told the Apostles to do the same.

Jesus gave the Apostles, who were the first priests, the power to change bread and wine into His Body and Blood in the Mass. Now at every Mass Jesus comes to us on the altar, Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity!

Of course we can't see any change happen when the priest consecrates the bread and wine, but we know that God can do things without us understanding them. He loves us so much that He wants to come to us hidden in Holy Communion. Now it is up to us to love Him back with our whole hearts!

Office of
THE BISHOP

June 3, 2023

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Next weekend, June 10/11, the Diocese of Palm Beach will have a special collection for two worthy causes: Black and Indian Missions and the Catholic Home Missions.

The Black and Indian Mission collection, established as the first national collection in 1874, has proven itself to be a successful vehicle for sharing the resources of the Church's members to provide for the needs of our African American, Native American and Alaska Native brothers and sisters. Your support helps ensure the presence of missionaries, places Bibles and catechetical materials in the hands of priests, lay leaders and consecrated men and women, and impacts pastoral work across the country.

The Catholic Home Missions portion of the collection provides home mission dioceses in every region of the United States and its territories with the resources to welcome and minister to their growing multicultural populations. Your support of this appeal makes a difference in Catholic mission communities through initiatives for evangelization, faith formation, human life and dignity, strengthening marriages and families, and priestly and religious vocations.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach

Bereavement Ministry

Spotlight

This mission of the Bereavement Ministry is to provide support, planning, and education to Saint Anastasia Catholic Church families as they review their end of life arrangements.

The Core Ministers are trained to respond to grieving families appropriately and assist Priests with the immediate care to families when a family calls the church to inform us of a member's passing.

Grieving with Great Hope

The Grieving with Great Hope program provides grief support to families in a small group setting.

St. Anastasia parishioner, Rita Gilchrist, spearheads the program that provides affirmation to the grieving process.

The program has supported 22 families and is provided at the beginning of the year before Lent.

For more information or to register for the next program, contact Rita at ritagilchrist@sbcglobal.net.

Frequently Asked Questions

When to call a Priest?

The parish priest of the person who is ill should be informed as soon as serious illness befalls a person – or when serious surgery is scheduled—so that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick can be administered along with the Sacrament of Reconciliation, if possible. Pastoral care for the sick person should be asked for as soon as a person experiences the danger of illness or is chronically ill, particularly if the person is elderly.

What do I do when my loved one has passed away?

Once death occurs, please notify the parish office so that arrangements for funeral services may begin.

What is the difference between a Funeral Mass and a Memorial Mass?

A Funeral Mass has the body of the deceased or the cremated remains of the deceased present and has all the special prayers attributed to that Mass. When the body or the cremated remains are not present it is called a Memorial Mass.

What should I do with my loved ones cremains after the Funeral Mass?

If a Catholic family chooses cremation, the Church requires reverent disposition of the ashes. The Vatican says the ashes must be treated in the same way a body would be. The ashes are to be kept in a sacred place not in one's home, scattered, or divided among family members. They should be laid to rest in a cemetery either in a grave or mausoleum blessed by a priest following the Funeral Mass.
