Capital Campaign Feature

The new stained glass window will feature a special image of Joseph as the angel Gabriel came to him in a dream.

"An angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, 'Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins." Matthew 1:20-21

The new window will offer an opportunity to catechize through beautiful events in salvation history.

Our Phase II Capital Campaign has officially begun and we are asking parishioners to pray for our campaign and consider making a gift via the envelopes in the pews or online on our website.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

We are excited to announce that our 2023-2024 religious education registration is officially open and you can register online.

If you have any questions please contact our sacramental coordinator, Mitzi Macias in the office at (772) 461-2233.

Beat the Heat!

We want our families to beat the summer heat and grab a Sunday seat at their local parish or a church they visit on vacation.

Spread your faith this summer by attending weekend mass and taking a photo with a priest. If you share it with communications@stanastasiachurch.org, students at St. Anastasia School will earn a free dress day on August 25th.

Fellowship on the Lawn

We were so happy to visit with our families at the Friends & Family Fellowship on the Lawn. Thank you to those families that hosted this fun event, especially the Guettler, Blanton and Hamilton families.

Prayer for Protection from Storms

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance for you are our only Refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Mary, Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, pray for us.

Are you called?

Is the Lord asking you to share your faith through educating our youth?
St. Anastasia is seeking volunteers to support our youth faith formation classes for this upcoming fall and spring.

If you have any questions please contact our Director of Discipleship and Evangelization, Robert Delfin in the office at (772) 461-2233.

Bereavement Ministry Spotlight

The mission of the Bereavement Ministry is to provide support, planning, and education to Saint Anastasia Catholic Church families as they review their end of life arrangements.

The Core Ministers are trained to respond to grieving families appropriately and assist Priests with the immediate care to families when a family calls the church to inform us of a member's passing.

Planning the Funeral Liturgy

Readings

Family members are encouraged to look over a set of readings (provided by the funeral director, priest or deacon) to make suitable choices for the funeral liturgy. Family members or friends may be chosen to read the selections at the Wake Service and/or Funeral Mass. The reader chosen should be a Catholic familiar with the liturgy (Through Death to Life, Ave Maria Press in an excellent guide for priests and funeral directors.

Music

Family members should speak with the priest, deacon and/or music director at the parish to discuss appropriate music for the funeral mass.

The Funeral Mass is a sacred moment to honor, remember and pray for the deceased. Secular music during the liturgy is not appropriate.

At other gatherings of family and friends (e.g. following the Wake Service, Reception following the Rite of Committal), secular music may be played to remember the deceased.

Eulogies

In keeping with the sacred nature of the Funeral Liturgy and the secular nature of the stories shared during a eulogy, it is not recommended that eulogies take place during the mass.

Eulogies are recommended at the Wake Service, the Rite of Committal and Reception following the Rite.

Praying for the Deceased

Memorial Masses

Given the transient nature of modern society, it is often difficult to assemble all of the family and friends of the deceased in a timely manner. The custom has arisen by which a private and simple burial precedes a formal gathering of family and friends at a Memorial Mass to remember the deceased. If a Memorial Mass is celebrated, the same care and diligence in the selection of readings and music should be practiced to maintain the sacredness of the Mass. Please discuss the restrictions of the Church's Liturgical Calendar with the priest before planning a Memorial Mass.

Mass Intentions

Our Catholic tradition offers the opportunity to have multiple Masses offered for the soul of the deceased loved one. Please contact the parish office to have Mass offered for your beloved deceased.

From Holy Scripture.

"...for if he were not expecting the fallen to rise again, it would have been superfluous and foolish to pray for the dead. But if he did this with a view to the splendid reward that awaits those who had gone to rest in godliness, it was a holy and pious thought. Thus, he made atonement for the dead that they might be absolved from their sins"

(2 Macc. 12:44-46)

The Mass, the memorial of Christ's death and resurrection, is the principal and most appropriate celebration of the Christian funeral

Grieving with Great Hope

The Grieving with Great Hope program provides grief support to families in a small group setting.

St. Anastasia parishioner, Rita Gilchrist, spearheads the program that provides affirmation to the grieving process.

The program has supported 22 families and is provided at the beginning of the year before Lent.

For more information or to register for the next program, contact Rita at ritagilchrist@sbcglobal.net.

The Kids' Bulletin

God our Father, in your wisdom and love you made all things. Bless these men. that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen. ~ Book of Blessings

Eucharistic Miracle of

AUGSBURG

GERMANY, 1194

The Eucharistic miracle of Augsburg, is known locally as Wunderbarlichen Gutes - "The Miraculous Good". It is described in numerous books and historical documents that can be consulted in the civic state library of Augsburg. A stolen Host was transformed into bleeding Flesh. In the course of the centuries, several analyses were completed of the Holy Particle that have always confirmed that human Flesh and Blood are present. Today the Convent of the Heileg Kreuz (Holy Cross) is taken care of by the Dominican Fathers.

Eucharistic Miracle of

MACERATA

ITALY, 1356

On April 25, 1356, at Macerata, a priest whose name is not known was celebrating Mass in the chapel of the Church of St. Catherine, owned by the Benedictine monks. During the breaking of the Eucharistic Bread before Holy Communion, the priest began to doubt the Real Presence of Jesus in the consecrated Host. Precisely at the moment in which he broke the Host, to his great surprise, he saw flow from the Host an abundance of Blood which stained part of the corporal, and the chalice placed on the altar.

Prayer for Fathers

God our Father,

In your wisdom and love you have created us and called us your own.

Bless our fathers, that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. In moments of joy, rejoice with them. In times of struggle, give them your courage and perseverance.

Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor and appreciate them always with a spirit of profound respect. May the example and prayer of St. Joseph inspire them to live their vocation with courage.

Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for Father Edwin's safe return from vacation

Heavenly Father, we ask you to bless Father Edwin as he travels back from his vacation in India.

May his travels be safe and he is kept in your care.

We pray that his vacation has provided him the rest he was seeking while allowing him to spend time with family and friends.

As he returns to us at St. Anastasia, may we experience the joy of his presence and witness his love for you, our Lord and Savior.

We thank you for the gift of Father Edwin and we ask you to continue to bless him in his vocation. Amen.
