The Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Presider:

We glorify our heavenly Father, who enlightens the hearts and minds of his faithful children. Let us ask that he may hear the prayers we now present with confidence:

Lector:

Our response is: Lord hear our prayer.

For the Church: that her members will win many souls for Christ by proclaiming the saving truths of the Gospel,
We pray to the Lord.

That all government leaders and legislators be guided by wisdom and prudence, and for an end to all violent conflict in the world,
We Pray to the Lord.

For all who have strayed from the faith and live under the burden of sin: that they will turn to the Lord Jesus and experience his transforming love,
We pray to the Lord.

That the world may clearly see the love we have for the poor, the sick, the oppressed, and the unborn,
We pray to the Lord.

That the light of Christ would become more evident in the world through an increase in vocations to the priesthood and to consecrated life,
We pray to the Lord.

For the grace this week to respond generously to the needs of others, especially the sick and the suffering in our community,
We pray to the Lord.

Presider:

Loving Father, we humbly present these prayers to you and ask that they may be answered according to your holy will. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
