The Baptism of the Lord

Presider:

Trusting in God, let us bring our prayers and petitions to him today:

Lector:

Our response is: Lord, hear our prayer.

For all the baptized, may the Holy Spirit empower us in continuing to witness to God's love in the world, let us pray to the Lord.

We pray to the Lord.

That, like John the Baptist, all those called by the Lord to serve his church will accept his invitation.

We pray to the Lord.

For all in positions of leadership or authority, may God give them strength in their efforts to protect the dignity and sanctity of life, let us pray to the Lord.

We pray to the Lord.

For all who are blind or live in darkness, may Christ be their light, let us pray to the Lord.

We pray to the Lord.

As the Apostles did for the early Church, may we strive to be disciples of Christ and stewards of the Lord by supporting the ministries and services made possible by the Diocesan Services Appeal: "In the one, we are one"

We pray to the Lord.

That the Christian Community, made one by our common baptism, may always welcome the unborn, the stranger, and all who are vulnerable.

We pray to the Lord.

For all who have died, may they rejoice in the eternal light of Christ in heaven

We pray to the Lord.
