There will be a Women's Retreat from October 2nd - 4th at St. Alfonso's Retreat House in Long Branch, New Jersey

Theme: Choosing to Live in Peace

Jesus said "Peace is my gift to you." However, we don't always experience that gift because of what goes on outside us and within. This retreat will invite us to come back to our center in God and be drawn into the peace of Jesus, so that we might be peacemakers in our world.

Cost: $240 includes all meals (Dinner Friday thru Breakfast Sunday)

Transportation can be made at an additional cost. For more information & to register call Marybeth Downer at (914) 393-7584

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS
IN SERVICE TO ONE. IN SERVICE TO ALL.

In honor of the upcoming beatification of its founder, Fr. Michael McGivney, for a limited time the Knights of Columbus is offering Catholic men in New York State one year of FREE online membership. By selecting the "Join" menu at www.kofc.org and entering NYKOFC in the promo code, busy Catholic family men and professionals can instantly be part of the largest Catholic fraternal benefit society for FREE. No credit card will be required. Catholic men aged 18 and up are encouraged to take advantage of this no-risk opportunity.

Online members have the option of transitioning to traditional, council-based membership with a local council. For more information contact Bob Maffucci at 917-319-5525 robert.maffucci@kofc.org

“Seek the Lord while he may be found, call him while he is near. Let the scoundrel forsake his way and the wicked his thoughts, let him turn to the Lord for mercy, to our God who is generous in forgiving... What if I wish to give the last the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous?”

Last week, the scriptures focused on forgiveness and the sin of anger. Today another capital sin, envy, provides food for thought. How often the expression ‘I don’t get mad, I just get even’ is spoken.

Does envy, jealousy sneak into my heart? As I see the good fortune of someone, do I consider why him and not me? Do I celebrate the blessing someone else receives, or do I enjoy the good one experiences, seeing it as a gift of God, a God who is generous in forgiving?

God’s word each week is directed to me, for my own spiritual well being. The God of the scripture today speaks to my heart.

by Rev. William J. Reilly

First Reading: Isaiah 55:6-9

Isaiah expresses an urgent plea that all should seek the Lord and turn to him for mercy.

Second Reading: Philippians 1:20c-24, 27a

In a strongly personal message from Paul while in prison, he says that he wishes “to be freed from this life and to be with Christ,” but he realizes that he still has much important work to do.

Gospel: Matthew 20:1-16a

Jesus tells the parable of the owner of an estate who hires workmen for his vineyard. When, at the end of the day, he pays a full day’s wage to those who worked only one hour, those who worked all day complained bitterly. But the owner says, “I am free to do as I please, am I not?” Jesus reminds us through this parable that “the last shall be first and the first shall be last.”

3rd annual Coast to Coast Rosary Rally

October 11, 2020 at 4pm

Oakland Beach in Rye

Rosary Coast to Coast is inspired by the Rosary on the Border in Poland and the Rosary on the Coast in Ireland and the UK. In 2019 there were hundreds of Rosary Rallies across the U.S. and over 50 participating countries!

We are inviting Catholics across the country to pray together to call upon God through the powerful intercession of Our Lady of the Rosary to heal our country and return it to Holiness. For further information call Theresa; 914 844 4995 or Gerald 914 837 7008
