Today's Readings—An “epiphany” is an appearance. In today's readings, with their rising stars, splendorous lights and mysteries revealed, the face of the child born on Christmas day appears. Herod, in today's Gospel, asks the chief priests and scribes where the Messiah is to be born. The answer Matthew puts on their lips says much more, combining two strands of Old Testament promise – one revealing the Messiah to be from the line of David (see 2 Samuel 2:5), the other predicting “a ruler of Israel” who will “shepherd his flock” and whose “greatness shall reach to the ends of the earth” (see Micah 5:1-3).

Those promises of Israel's king ruling the nations resound also in today's Psalm. The psalm celebrates David's son, Solomon. His kingdom, we sing, will stretch “to the ends of the earth,” and the world's kings will pay Him homage. That's the scene too in today's First Reading, as nations stream from the East, bearing “gold and frankincense” for Israel's king.

The Magi's pilgrimage in today's Gospel marks the fulfillment of God's promises. The Magi, probably Persian astrologers, are following the star that Balaam predicted would rise along with the ruler's staff over the house of Jacob (see Numbers 24:17). Laden with gold and spices, their journey evokes those made to Solomon by the Queen of Sheba and the “kings of the earth” (see 1 Kings 10:2,25; 2 Chronicles 9:24). Interestingly, the only other places where frankincense and myrrh are mentioned together are in songs about Solomon (see Song of Songs 3:6, 4:6,14).

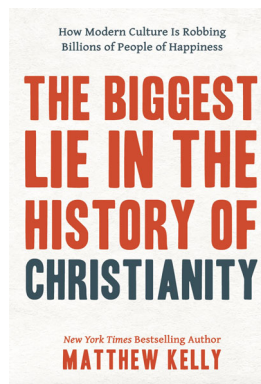

One greater than Solomon is here (see Luke 11:31). He has come to reveal that all peoples are “co-heirs” of the royal family of Israel, as today's Epistle teaches. His manifestation forces us to choose: Will we follow the signs that lead to Him as the wise Magi did? Or will we be like those priests and the scribes who let God's words of promise become dead letters on an ancient page?

Family Preparation for Sundays

Sunday, January 6—The magi visit the Christ Child with great joy. King Herod wants to visit this Child who is a threat to His power, not to honor Him but to destroy Him. People still see Jesus as a threat to “happiness.” Give the Christ Child a great gift—your heart and obedience. That is real joy.

Sunday, January 13—Jesus had no need of baptism as He was without sin. He chose to be baptized to take on our sins and purify the water, make it holy. Baptism is a precious gift. Have your children been baptized? Follow the example of Jesus and seek baptism for those you love most.

Thanks to a generous couple, each family attending Christmas Mass received the newest book from Matthew Kelly, “The Biggest Lie in the History of Christianity.” Copies are available in the vestibule!

Join us Wednesday, January 16 at 7 p.m. in the school library for a discussion of the book!

Grieving Loss of a Child
Monday, January 14 at 7 p.m.

Church of the Ascension, Overland Park

Project Chrysalis is a new Catholic ministry designed to help parents who have lost a child find hope through Sacred Scripture and community. While this ministry is not a bereavement group, our mission is to offer support and hope through scripture in a time of transformation. The next meeting will be held on Monday, January 14, 2019 from 7-8:15 p.m. in the St. Luke's Room at Church of the Ascension, 9500 W. 127th St. in Overland Park. Contact Ken or Patty Billinger, 913-634-4210 or kbillinger@archkck.org for details. You can also find more information on our website at www.hopeinscripture.com or on our Facebook page - @projectchrysaliskc. The group is open to parents who have lost a child or grandparents who have lost a grandchild. Immediate family members are also invited to attend.

Thank you Parishioners!

This Christmas season you have responded generously to the needs of others. The Social Concerns Committee has been able to help 38 families with food and gifts through the annual Christmas tree appeal. Also, you contributed an overwhelming amount of canned goods for the food pantries operated by Catholic Charities. And, finally, Sonshine boxes were prepared by Social Concerns members and presented to our parish homebound residents by Homebound Ministers. Thank you, again, for assisting with these worthwhile efforts to assist those who may have issues greater than ours.

Books in the Church bookracks are available for purchase.

Prices are on the back cover or inside the front cover. Envelopes are provided for your convenience. Please place your payment in the collection or bring to the parish office. This is a service provided to parishioners to help families build their own Catholic home libraries. For more book suggestions, please contact Theresa Smith, 913-299-3370 or tsmith@kc.rr.com.

Our Church and School!

Raise money for St. Patrick Church and School while you shop online! Please follow these steps:

1. Go to <https://smile.amazon.com/ch/48-0680313>, not the regular Amazon website.
2. Make sure you're using this website and not the Amazon mobile app, as there is no option to donate while using the app on your phone.
3. Be certain "St. Patrick Catholic Church and School" is noted as your charity.
4. Make a bookmark for www.smile.amazon.com as only this website records donations. Your regular Amazon sign in should work.

Church Response to Crisis

Transparency and accountability are imperative in the Church's response to the crisis of sexual abuse of minors. In response to current national discussions, our Archdiocese encourages you to visit our website that provides important information, addresses questions and offers an opportunity for parishioners to share concerns and lend their voices by responding to an online survey. Please visit <https://responseincrisis.archkck.org/> to learn how we actively safeguard the innocent and provide care for those affected by abuse. Please join us in praying to our Blessed Mother, Mary, who feels our sorrow and shares our pain.
