From Father Timothy Skoch, Parochial Vicar:

Thirty-First Sunday in O.T—Today's Responsorial Psalm is one of my personal favorites. The Psalmist states: "O Lord, my heart is not proud, my eyes are not raised too high; I am not busy with great things, nor with things too marvelous for me. But I have calmed and quieted my soul, like a weaned child on its mother's lap; like a child that is quieted is my soul." Throughout my young life, I have been encouraged to memorize some psalms and with this being a short one, I have equipped it in my spiritual tool belt.

It's important to me because it encapsulates part of Jesus' Gospel message: "truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven." So, in gratitude I can be at rest for all the blessings in my life, those both seen and unseen. My heart and soul can be content and instead of grasping for anything, I can with peaceful confidence "do the will of my heavenly Father." What is the will of God? "For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him should have eternal life." We must then have faith in Jesus.

This is exactly the point which is addressed in today's Gospel. Jesus is calling out religious leaders who are unfaithful to their calling. This calling is to take on the yoke of Christ, for He says, "my yoke is easy and my burden is light." Religious practices ought to be freeing, while making us children of God.

Finally, "those who are called Father, Teacher or Doctor, must not love those expressions of honor or let them cause us to forget that our fundamental relationship to other Christians is that of fellow disciple, brother, or sister." (Mitch and Sri) Priests then "will share in the mission of the Father and the Son through their commission to teach the gospel (28:19-20), but theirs will be a derivative participation in something divine." (Mitch and Sri)

Eucharistic Amazement:

"Worship and Veneration"

Reflection #22

Do we worship saints? Isn't that idolatry? If we worshipped saints, that would indeed be idolatry! Worship is for God alone. We venerate or honor the saints. They are our spiritual role models. Just as we would ask other Christians to pray for a special intention, we ask the saints to pray for us. You may have a treasured picture or belonging of a deceased loved one but you don't worship it. Worship is reserved for the Lord. Once consecrated, Jesus is really, truly present in Holy Communion so it's proper we adore God in the Eucharist. Before consecration, hosts are kept in a drawer!

Desde Padre Timothy Skoch:

El Salmo de hoy, personalmente es uno de mis favoritos. El salmista afirma: “Señor, mi corazón no es soberbio, ni mis ojos altivos; No ando tras las grandezas, Ni en cosas demasiado difíciles para mí; Sino que he calmado y acallado mi alma; Como un niño destetado en el regazo de su madre, Como un niño destetado está mi alma dentro de mí”. A lo largo de mi vida, me animaron a memorizar algunos salmos y, como este es breve, lo he equipado en mi cinturón de herramientas espirituales.

Es importante para mí porque resume parte del mensaje del Evangelio de Jesús: “En verdad os digo que, si no os volvéis y os hacéis como niños, no entraréis en el reino de los cielos”. Entonces, en gratitud puedo descansar por todas las bendiciones de mi vida, tanto las que se ven como las que no se ven. Mi corazón y mi alma pueden estar contentos y en lugar de aferrarse a cualquier cosa, puedo con pacífica confianza “hacer la voluntad de mi Padre celestial”. ¿Cuál es la voluntad de Dios? “Porque esta es la voluntad de mi Padre: que todo el que ve al Hijo y cree en Él, tenga vida eterna”. Entonces debemos tener fe en Jesús.

Este es exactamente el punto que se aborda en el Evangelio de hoy. Jesús está llamando a los líderes religiosos que son infieles a su llamado. Este llamado es a tomar el yugo de Cristo, porque Él dice: “mi yugo es fácil y mi carga ligera”. Las prácticas religiosas deben ser liberadoras y al mismo tiempo hacernos hijos de Dios.

Finalmente, “quienes se llaman Padre, Maestro o Doctor, no deben amar esas expresiones de honor ni permitir que nos hagan olvidar que nuestra relación fundamental con los demás cristianos es la de discípulo, hermano o hermana”. (Mitch y Sri) Los sacerdotes entonces “compartirán la misión del Padre y del Hijo a través de su comisión de enseñar el evangelio (28:19-20), pero la suya será una participación derivada en algo divino”. (Mitch y Sri)
