Kissing the Altar at Mass

Question: Why do priests kiss the altar at the start of Mass?

Answer:

Our churches and chapels are filled with symbols. We might think of the more common symbols (like the crucifix, statues, stained-glass windows, vestment color and altar cloths) as well as major symbols (such as the paschal candle and the baptismal font). But there are some things that we can take for granted in our sacred spaces, because unfortunately, they seem to just be part of the building, including three of the main symbols of our liturgy: the ambo (lectern), the chair for the priest celebrant, and the altar.

These three objects are placed in a specially designated area called the sanctuary. They are the places where the Word of God is proclaimed, where the priest prays and presides at the celebration, and where the bread and wine are offered by the priest during the Eucharistic Prayer. Although each of these objects is sacred because of the role they play in our worship, the altar holds a special place. In a document containing the rules and instructions for the Mass — the “General Instruction of the Roman Missal” — we read: “The altar on which the Sacrifice of the Cross is made present under sacramental signs is also the table of the Lord to which the People of God is called together to participate in the Mass, as well as the center of the thanksgiving that is accomplished throughout the Eucharist” (no. 296).

One of the ways that we recognize the importance of the altar is when the priest and deacon kiss the altar at the beginning of Mass. Kissing is an ancient act of devotion. Remember, we also kiss the cross on Good Friday, and the deacon or priest kisses the “Book of the Gospels” after the Gospel is proclaimed. This act of devotion reminds us that the altar is a symbol of Jesus, the “living stone” (see 1 Peter 2:4), the foundation stone of our faith. It is a symbol gesture, but it is a powerful reminder of the One on whom our faith is built and in whose name we gather as the “household of faith” (see Galatians 6:10).

Adoration Hours

We have several hours open which need an Adorer in the Adoration Chapel. Please consider one hour a week to give to the Lord.

Call Shanna Payne @ 316-312-3931 to sign up or with questions.

OPEN HOURS THAT NEED YOU!

Sunday: 2:00 am
Monday: 1:00 am
Friday: 10:00 am, 7:00 pm
Saturday: 12 Midnight, 5:00 pm

Let us pray the Hail Mary for the end of the pandemic.

*Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners,
now and at the hour of our death.*

Amen

The Parish Mission Statement

As disciples of Jesus Christ, St. James the Greater Catholic Community, seeks to grow in holiness through the stewardship way of life.

Stewardship of Treasure:

Due to early submitting of the bulletin for printing, the weekly collection for June 28 will be posted in a later bulletin.

Thank you for your stewardship.

Brown Bags

During the month of July, St. James is responsible for the pantry at the Augusta Community Caring Center. Brown bags with a list of food items that the Caring Center needs are available in the foyer to pick up. We encourage everyone to go shopping for these items and to return the bags to the Church foyer. Cash donations are accepted in the church office.

Holy Water Tank

With the help of Dan Allen, we are now able to have our "Holy Water tank" to fill our own bottles! Dan was able to repair and make the tank good as new. Please help yourself to Holy Water by bringing your own bottle to fill. Thank you Dan!!

Raffle Drawing

Knights of Columbus and Altar Society have several generous donors who are making it possible for us to have a raffle this year. Raffle prizes are several beef bundles and cash prizes.

Raffle tickets are available to pick up in the foyer of the church after all Masses. Tickets and $$'s must be turned into the church office or the collection basket together to be eligible for the drawing. The drawing will be Saturday, August 15 after 5:00 pm Mass.
