Priesthood Sunday

Priesthood Sunday is a day set aside to thank priests and to honor & affirm the priesthood in the United States. It is a day to reflect upon & appreciate that the role of the priesthood is essential to our life as Catholics.

We need to appreciate and pray for all Priests, not just this time of year, but all year long.

We are so blessed that you, Father P.J., are at St. James!!

Catholic 101: RCIA & Faith Class for all Adults

Come join us each Tuesday at 7:00 pm in the Church classroom for some theological talk and discussion. This class is meant for any and every adult in the parish. We will attempt to unveil the basics of our faith, and hopefully, our discussion will lead to some deep dives into the mysteries of God's love for us. If you are a long time Catholic, seeking to become Catholic, married to a Catholic, are in search of some faith, or just want to know what we crazy Catholics are all about, come join us Tuesdays @ 7:00 pm. Hope to see you!

THANK YOU

Thank you to everyone who donated money, beef, desserts or your time for our Monterey Dinners. The dinner was successful as over $2,600.00 was deposited. Cash donations are always accepted to offset the cost of supplies. Ground beef & desserts are welcome, too! Call the church office for details.
