Priesthood

Question: If someone is interested in becoming a priest, how does he go about it?

Answer: Discerning a vocation can happen in any number of ways. It might come as a surprise to the person called or to family or friends. Sometimes it is a gradual process, and other times it is as quick and bright as lightning. Regardless of how it starts, a vocation to the priesthood or religious life requires a process of discerning, testing, and preparing. The best place to begin would be with lots of prayer, receiving the sacraments, and attending daily Mass whenever possible. Then talk to your pastor or a priest you know and trust. Your diocese may have a vocation director who can provide you with guidance and information. The Serra Club is also a great resource for information and contacts to help you discern if indeed God is calling you.

Remember that many young Catholic men have considered the priesthood. Some are ordained and others realize this is not their calling. However, we are all called to be of service to others as we practice our faith. These are extraordinary times in which we live, and they require an extraordinary witness to faith and to God's presence in the world. Our work, our ministry as Catholics, is to be the body of Christ with and for others. The Church needs priests. If God calls you to ordained service in the church, He will provide the grace, direction, and support you need. Just listen and respond with all your heart, mind, and soul.

Altar Society ROSARY for deceased members of Altar Society

The November 9th Altar Society meeting will start in the church at 7:00 pm (or as soon as PSR is finished in the Church) with a rosary for deceased members. All are welcome to attend. If you have a deceased family member or friend that was a member of Altar Society and you would like her remembered at this rosary, please feel free to text or call Diana @ 316-650-5349 or Donna @ 316-650-5760. We will announce the names at the beginning of the rosary.

Thank you to our Hospitality Members!

A word of thanks to all who help us for each weekend Mass as Hospitality, especially in welcoming people to Mass and assisting with the weekend collection. In a special way we want to thank you for helping with the Diocesan October counts. Each year, the Bishop asks that all 99 parishes in the Diocese send in an official count of how many people attended Holy Mass in each parish. That's why you may have seen our Hospitality members with counters!

Natural Family Planning

Our next introductory class at St. James will be Monday, November 7 @ 7:00 pm in the church classroom (east side of foyer). For more information or to register for a class call Pat Lowrance (775-5663), or the NFP Office (685-5240).

Mowing THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU

Thank you to everyone who helped mow our facility this growing season. The lawn/grounds/cemetery always looks great and we appreciate all the hard, hot and long hours devoted to the green!

Prayer for the Holy Souls in Purgatory

Eternal Father,

I offer you
the most Precious Blood of Your Divine Son,
Jesus Christ,
in union with
the masses said today
throughout the world,
for all the holy souls
in purgatory,
for sinners everywhere,
for sinners in
the universal church,
those in my own home
and within my own family.
Amen.

-St. Gertrude the Great

The Advent Wreath

Soon, Catholics everywhere will begin anticipating Christmas through the season of Advent. A common and beloved aid to this journey is the Advent Wreath.

All that is needed for an advent wreath is four candles, three purple and one pink, arranged in a circle. On each Sunday of advent, a new candle is lit, and prayers are said. As candles are added, the light given by the wreath gradually grows and helps us anticipate the arrival of the child Jesus, the Light of the world. Children in particular have a great love of traditions involving candles as the flame itself is very beautiful and mesmerizing, and so different from how we normally experience light. But it is a beautiful reminder to adults as well, and worthy of our practice.

The Guild of the Holy Family will have Advent wreaths and candles available for sale the weekends of November 19/20 (Christ the King) and the 26/27th (the first Sunday of Advent). We will also have free pamphlets available with prayers for each week of advent. We hope these will help you and your family to prepare your home and hearts for the Baby Jesus!

We also welcome you to join our monthly meeting on Saturday, November 5th, in the church classroom.
