Everyday Stewardship

When I was a teenager, after a homecoming dance one year I took my date for a walk on the Potomac in downtown Alexandria. The moon was out and I was struck by how the light shimmered on the water. I remember focusing to try to see all the details of the dancing rays on the ripples. My date didn't see it and didn't really get it. She thought it was no big deal. It was a great date and a fun night, but for that one moment we saw the world from two completely different vantage points.

Two of the greatest gifts from God to each of us are life and time. Without taking care, we can easily miss the grandeur and beauty of both. Being mindful as an everyday steward means pausing to see the detail in all that exists around us. God's creation is not something created with a broad brush, but instead with the intricacies of a master painter.

God created all things with purpose and a complexity only the divine could fully comprehend. Every single hair on our head has been counted! But when we take a moment to reflect on the beauty that is created by that complexity, we allow ourselves to revel in God's generosity. There is so much to give thanks for in this life. But you and I can't give thanks to God unless we really stop to take notice. When was the last time you stared in awe at the moon?

The way kids think!!

Driving west one evening with my 4 year old, I told her to look at the sunset. I said, "Isn't it beautiful? God paints one every evening and they're never the same." She looks with awe and finally says, "Yea, and He doesn't even have to stay in the lines".

Thank You

Father Sam Pinkerton extends his heart-felt thank you and his gratefulness for the Spiritual Bouquet of prayers we recently sent to him. He appreciates all of the kind words, thoughts and prayers.

Garage Sale News

St. James Altar Society is pleased to report that the 2023 Garage Sale was successful. We need to thank all our volunteers, especially Donna Nickel and Sharon Hoffman who orchestrated the sale from sign up, set up, to take down. The volunteers - youth & everyone else, who signed up, showed up, set up, organized and cleaned up every day of the fun filled week. Most important, thank you to all who came and found treasures they couldn't live without and took them home. Due to the generous parishioners that donated their time, talent, and treasures we were able to raise $6,646.53 and help donate to 4 charities and foundations in our community. We are sure that the Caring Center, Union Rescue Mission/New Leaf Books, Magdalen Church, and the Family Crisis Center benefited from us. Many thanks and blessings to all!!
