Being a mission-oriented Church that forms disciples of Jesus

SUNDAY, JANUARY 17, 2021 — 2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear friends in Christ,

In John's Gospel, Jesus asked, "What are you looking for?" He follows it with an invitation to "come and see," in response to the disciples' question about where he is staying. Of course, Jesus knew what they were seeking; is it not what we all seek — peace, hope, salvation? Jesus calls them, and indeed us as well, to accept his invitation!

Jesus' invitations present an opportunity for us to contemplate what we are looking for and to take stock of our current situation. Do you know what it is you seek in this world? Are you open to truly be a disciple of Jesus Christ? Can you leave behind your expectations, trusting the goodness of Jesus' invitation, and follow God's perfect will for your life?

Without waiting for the disciples to respond, knowing their hearts and that the Kingdom of Heaven holds everything they seek, Jesus invites them to come and see. Some of Jesus' disciples came and stayed with him because they had heard him preach. Moved by the promise, hope, mercy, and life he offered, they directly accepted the invitation from him. However, like Peter, others came to follow Jesus after someone else extended an invitation to "come and see" themselves.

Peter's brother Andrew's willingness to evangelize brought Peter to become a disciple of the Lord. Andrew's love for Peter moved him to share the truth and joy he had found. How blessed to have someone care enough to step out in faith and share the life found only in Jesus — no matter how uncomfortable they may feel or how their testimony may be received.

Those who believe inspire others to believe. The power and beauty of evangelization is expressed when an invitation leads to a personal encounter with Christ and the choice to remain and abide with him. We may recognize our journey within these many roads to discipleship; which of these paths is yours? Will we pay forward what we have received? Do we have the courage and strength to follow Jesus' example and invite others to come and see? When we, like Andrew, tell others about finding the Messiah, we become part of the hope of discipleship. We become instruments for others to encounter the truth and grace found only in Jesus Christ.

This week, parishioners who participated in the Fall Alpha session were reunited and shared their Alpha experience. During this time, we were reminded of the need to create a Culture of Invitation in our Family of Parishes. Come and see, Jesus says, as he invites each of us to grow deeper in our relationship with Him through this experience of Alpha. If someone invites you to Alpha, please accept the invitation to grow in relationship with Jesus.

Also this week, our Intercessory Prayer Team met online as we pray for lay leaders who will hear the invitation to assist in sacramental prep., RCIA, members of a Senior Leadership Team and ministers of hospitality. With six parishes working together, it will take a team effort to build the church; this Family of Parishes, to be a beacon of hope and to serve the community; especially the poor among us.

Our Transition Team will soon be transformed into the Parish Pastoral Council as we meet with Bishop Dabrowski and the diocesan team. We wish to thank Eugene Glavin (OLMC), Christa Ducharme (St. Boniface), Donna Overholt (Precious Blood) and our recording secretary, Laurie O'Meara who have recently resigned from the Transition Team. Your leadership and dedication to this transition process is greatly appreciated. As we move forward, we need a new recording secretary. Please consider this invitation to help us lead our Family of Parishes by serving a recording secretary for the Parish Pastoral Council. (Contact Fr. Tony at: tlaforet@dol.ca)

Despite the lockdown, we will offer an online Baptism Prep. course next Wednesday, January 20. Please contact, Lisa Maselli at imaselli@dol.ca if you wish to join us. And please join us daily (12 noon & 8:30 a.m. on Sunday) for our live-streamed Celebration of the Eucharist. The sacrament of Reconciliation will be offered by appointment only during this lockdown.

As well, our Pastoral Team will begin planning for our sacramental preparations for the new year, but we truly need the assistance of lay leaders to make all of this possible. Therefore, we are asking you to please reflect upon the gifts God has given you and consider answering God's call by becoming a lay leader who will assist us in forming disciples of Jesus. We will provide training for all our lay leaders. Please contact me, tlaforet@dol.ca or Lisa Maselli, imaselli@dol.ca if you are willing to respond to this request.

In the meantime, parents with children in Grade Two should look for information on our website in the coming weeks regarding the sacrament of Reconciliation.

Finally, please consider phoning our parishioners who are either elderly and/or are isolated during this lockdown. They may be in need of groceries or just a friendly reminder that they are not forgotten. This type of outreach, along with praying for others, is just another great way to respond and live our baptismal call!
