Being a mission-oriented Church that forms disciples of Jesus

SUNDAY, JANUARY 31, 2021 — 4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear friends in Christ,

This 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time marks the end of the first month of the new year, 2021. Yet, this time is hardly ordinary. We are still immersed in a global pandemic, a lockdown for all who live in Ontario. Although we are separated from one another by masks and social distancing and many confined to their homes, we need to hear the comforting words of today's second reading from St. Paul, "Brothers and sisters, I want you to be free from anxieties" (1 Corinthians 7:32). These days continue to be anxious times, as all of our communities struggle to deal with many challenges and crises. Each of us is trying to move forward in a changed world that is grief-stricken and tear-stained from the loss of loved ones, yet bright with promise but not without dangers, especially for those who experience insecurities caused by limited resources.

I was recently informed of a young mother with three children, one of our own, a member of our Family of Parishes, who has limited resources. As a result of the pandemic, she was forced out of her home more than three weeks ago with no place to shelter her children. Her situation was brought to my attention. Since our office staff is now working from home and our churches are closed due to the recent lockdown, we decided, after some brief consultation with a few parish leaders, to offer her a temporary home at the rectory in Mount Carmel. This young mother has been in contact with Housing and Social Services, but they were unable to assist her at this time. I called two realtors from our Family of Parishes and they confirmed that there is little or no housing available at this time. Nevertheless, this young mother has been told that she is at the top of the list for housing when something becomes available.

In today's readings, we hear about a prophet to be raised up, a plea not to have hardened hearts when we hear the voice of the Holy One speaking in our midst and a new teaching with authority. These readings invite us to rethink our understanding of the prophet.

The prophet is often seen as the one who exposes realities that many people, especially leaders, would like not to see or face. The prophet exposes injustices. Therefore, we must ask ourselves, "How do we make sense of the role of the prophet in the midst of this global pandemic we are still experiencing? Will we be able to respond and work for justice, which is central to the mission of the prophet?"

COVID-19, the most severe global crisis since the 1918 influenza pandemic, has plunged the world into a state of emergency with respect to health, humanitarian and development needs. This state of emergency compounds already existing inequities. Advanced economies have experienced higher rates of mortality among marginalized groups. In developing countries, vulnerable populations have suffered loss and pain.

Health care systems have struggled to cope. Incomplete social protection systems have allowed people to sink back or further into poverty. Hardest hit by COVID-19 are the millions who are poor, ethnic minorities, the handicapped, the elderly and the homeless.

The prophet has worked through COVID-19 because this horrific virus has exposed the inadequacies of two trusted global systems, the health care system and the economic system, both of which supported the wealthy and abandoned the neediest and poorest among us. COVID-19 has exposed the pandemic of global poverty.

Therefore, as a world community, will we allow our hearts to be pierced by the suffering of those on the margins? And if our hearts are not hardened, then what will be our response, and what will be our new works of justice? Will it be the work of dismantling systems and structures of oppression, or will we soon carry on with life as usual, happy not to wear a mask or social distance?

The work of the prophet is seeking justice. Will we look for only biblical prophets or will we come to grips with our own baptismal anointing, that which calls us to be priest, prophet and king? As prophets, will we recognize ourselves as being raised up for the work of global justice?

In the meantime, we are grateful to carry out this work of justice and to share our resources with this young mother and her children. If you wish to offer any assistance or have further questions please call me at 519 236-4191-x-222 or contact Fran Roelands at 519-870-6519, a member of our Parish Pastoral Council or contact Margaret Sutherland at 519-319-3696. Let's continue our work of being a mission-oriented church that forms disciples of Jesus!

Parents who wish to register their children for First Reconciliation can find a registration form on our website or may receive it from their child's school. Simply fill out the registration form and email it to Lisa Maselli at lmase@dol.ca or myself, Fr. Tony at tony@dol.ca. We will contact parents when we receive these registration forms and inform you when our online classes for parents will begin. These online classes will be led by members of our Pastoral Team and supported by parish lay leaders who will be ready to assist and walk with you, the parents.

We are still praying for parishioners who will answer God's call to become lay leaders. These leaders will assist parents and support their efforts in raising their children in the Catholic faith as they promised at their child's baptism. We will provide training for all our lay leaders. Please contact me, tony@dol.ca or Lisa Maselli, lmase@dol.ca if you are willing to respond to this request.

We are in need of a new recording secretary for our Parish Pastoral Council. Please consider this invitation to help us lead our Family of Parishes. With six parishes working together, it will take a team effort to build the church; this Family of Parishes, to be a beacon of hope and to serve the community; especially the poor among us.

Please check out our website for a new look this weekend and for the latest information on our Family of Parishes.

Finally, please consider phoning our parishioners who are either elderly and/or are isolated during this lockdown. They may require groceries or just a friendly reminder that they are not forgotten. This type of outreach, along with praying for others, is just another great way to respond and live our baptismal call!

Fr. Tony
Pastor of the Lake Huron Catholic Family of Parishes

Help Stop Bill C-7 (Medical Assistance in Dying)

The federal government has been given an extension to Feb. 26 to pass amendments to the Criminal Code that will make Medical Assistance in Dying (“MAID” or euthanasia) more accessible, putting the disabled and elderly at risk of having their lives terminated, possibly without their full consent. Please read the CCCB’s response and contact your MP. More information and contact options are available at this link.

Helping our Brothers and Sisters!

A member of our parish family is in need of permanent housing; a single mom with three young children. She has exhausted all efforts to find accommodation through the usual agencies and is in desperate need of our help. If anyone knows of an apartment or small house which might suit this family's needs, please call the Parish Office or email Fr. Tony at tlaforet@dol.ca.

Remember Matthew 25 : 40. "The King will reply, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.'
