Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Shrove Tuesday comes from an old English word meaning “to confess,” since it was customary to go to confession before the beginning of Lent. It was also customary to use up meats, fats, and dairy products before entering the Lenten period of fasting; this led to the day’s nicknames: Mardi Gras (French for Fat Tuesday) or Pancake Tuesday. Here are some ideas for celebrating Shrove Tuesday:

1. Go to Confession before Ash Wednesday or any time during Lent. We are celebrating All Day Confessions on Wednesday, March 29th. Watch this bulletin for times and locations?

2. Eat lots of good, sweet fatty food in preparation for your Lenten fast! Ever heard of Dust Cake? It’s like a dirt cake! Or if you’re really ambitious, try making Polish paczkis, a sort of donut that is traditionally made on Shrove Tuesday in Poland.

3. Pancakes are a central feature of many Shrove Tuesday celebrations. Pancakes were an easy and quick way to use up dairy goods before the beginning of Lent. Did you know that the ingredients: eggs represent creation; flour, human work; salt, wholesomeness; and milk for purity. Besides eating pancakes, you can hold pancake races with your kids. This continues to be a popular tradition throughout Europe, where the participants race while holding a skillet and simultaneously flipping a pancake.

4. Have a Mardi Gras celebration! Mardi Gras and Carnival celebrations are hugely popular around the world. Even if you don’t live in a community that sponsors a family-friendly Mardi Gras celebration, you can hold your own little celebration at home: ring bells (echoing the tradition of ringing church bells on Shrove Tuesday), have a parade, dance or dress up in masks and costumes; you can purchase these at your local dollar store, or have kids make their own.

5. Hide the Alleluia! In recognition of the fact that the Church doesn’t sing or say the word alleluia until the Easter Vigil, many families hold an informal “burying the alleluia” ritual on Shrove Tuesday. Some paint a wooden alleluia that they hide every year. Or you can just bury or hide a printed alleluia.

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent, and although it is not one of the Church's holy days of obligation, it might as well be, given its popularity. Here are some ways to observe the day with your kids:

1. Get ashes (obviously). Attend your parish's Ash Wednesday service with your kids, preferably in the morning so that they can wear them throughout the day as a public witness to their faith (unless doing so makes them uncomfortable).

If you have time, preview the Scriptures for the day with your kids, and give them a heads up on what will happen during the imposition of the ashes. The minister will say one of two things while imposing the ashes: You are dust and unto dust you shall return.....or..... Turn away from sin and be faithful to the Gospel. Anyone, even non-Christians, can receive ashes.

2. Ash Wednesday is a day for fasting and abstinence from meat. Young kids are exempt, but you can still keep meals and snacks simple to help them get into the spirit of the season.....no sweets, no special snacks, and plain food for meals. Teach them the practice of offering up their sacrifice for a prayerful purpose, such as the thousands of children who die from malnutrition every day

3. If you kept your palm branches from last year's Palm Sunday service, Ash Wednesday is a traditional day to burn and bury them.

4. Get your purple on. If you keep a prayer corner, now is the time to change things up. Put a purple cloth on your prayer table, set out appropriate symbols of the season, and put out Lenten prayer resources. Get your kids to help with the decorating, and it will become a way to teach them about the meaning of Lent.

As we begin this season of Lent, let us pray that the ashen crosses on our foreheads may remind us of our need for Jesus, our healer and the hope and joy of growing in holiness to serve as Christ's missionary disciples.

Development and Peace

Caritas Canada is beginning a new campaign cycle this year. Encouraged by our Orientation Assembly and inspired by the October 2021 address of Pope Francis to the world meeting of popular movements, we have chosen the theme Create Hope to guide our actions over the next five years.

For the first year, we have chosen to create hope by working to Stand for the Land in solidarity with our sisters and brothers in the Global South who are defending their homelands by protecting their land and water, the environment and human life.

This Lent, let's stand for the land

This year, Development and Peace — Caritas Canada's Create Hope: Stand for the land campaign calls you to support our sisters and brothers in the Global South in defending their land and territory. Do this by:

1. Donating online at devp.org/give or during the Solidarity Sunday collection on March 26, the fifth Sunday of Lent. Your generosity helps support over 86 projects in 40 countries around the world!
2. Learning more by reading the Mini-magazine and other resources available at devp.org/lent/resources.
3. Meet our solidarity visitors and participate in the campaign launch webinar on February 25 at 1:30 p.m. ET.

Development and Peace: a movement of solidarity

Established in 1967, Development and Peace — Caritas Canada is the official international solidarity organization of the Catholic Church in Canada.

We partner with organizations in the Global South that promote alternatives to unjust social, political and economic structures and support women in their quest for equality and justice.

With the help of our 11,000+ volunteer members, we inform Canadians about the root causes of impoverishment and mobilize them to act for change. Our Lenten campaign, Stand for the Land focuses on people's defence of their territories in Colombia and Honduras.

To learn more about our movement and to join us, visit devp.org.

This Lent, we invite you to Create Hope by bringing Jesus's message of love to life using our Solidarity Calendar. Day by day, you can act, reflect and raise funds to support Development and Peace ~ Caritas Canada's partners in the Global South who are building a world of justice. Download your solidarity calendar at devp.org/lentcalendar, print it, colour it to your liking and put it up in your home.
