SUNDAY, JULY 30, 2023—17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
YEAR A—TWO WEEK BULLETIN

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Amazing! It's almost the end of July already but it has been a busy summer in our Family of Parishes. St. Peter Parish in St. Joseph celebrated their 150th Anniversary and Our Lady of Mount Carmel celebrated their Parish Potluck Picnic a week later. Thank you to everyone who organized these wonderful events. Please check our website and Facebook page for all the great photos of these two events and look for more parish picnic events coming soon.

For two days, this past week, I experienced the joy of reading bible stories to the young children at Vacation Bible School held at the Kingsfield-Zurich Mennonite Church. They had more than 70 children registered for five days filled with song, dance and sharing stories about their faith in God. Even our children are learning to evangelize!

Plans are now underway to host the next Alpha in Goderich. The Alpha Team is looking for volunteers to assist with the next Alpha, which is scheduled to begin on Thursday, September 14th. Please contact Rachael McDonald at -877-450-6414 ext. 200, if you wish to assist us with this great opportunity to bring Jesus to others!

Last week we promoted the use of our subscription to Formed. We have access to over 4,000 titles of books, audio talks, movies, documentaries and studies. It's easy to create your own account. See the promotional material at the entrance of the church and grab a business card with all the instructions on how to sign up. It's available on almost any electronic device and the best thing is it's free! Please, give it a try!

Bishop Fabbro has encouraged us to re-introduce the option of receiving from the Cup during Mass. Therefore, we will implement this option in September, but we may need a few more Extra-ordinary Ministers of the Eucharist. If you are interested in assisting in this important ministry, please contact Rachael McDonald at 1-877-450-6414 ext. 200, before August 1st. These names will be submitted to Bishop Fabbro for his approval. Once we have received this approval, we will commence training, so you are prepared to serve as a new Extra-ordinary Ministers of the Eucharist. Please prayerfully, consider this invitation to serve God and His holy people.

Finally, please be aware that the office will be closed on Wednesday, July 26th and Thursday, July 27th. The Staff will be on retreat for these two days as we strive to improve our abilities to work as a team and to serve God and our Family of Parishes. Please keep the staff in your prayers during this two-day Staff Retreat!

Lake Huron Family Catechism

Bring the whole family to learn more about their faith at these bi-weekly classes. The Family Foundation Institute has spent many years developing these courses where parents can collaborate as the first educators of their families, working together to teach their children while also getting catechized themselves. These classes are much beloved by many, and have been a wonderful source of connecting Catholic families together and developing firm foundations in their faith. Now the Family Catechism is coming to the Lake Huron Catholic Family of Parishes!

Classes will begin in September and families will meet bi-weekly. If your family is interested in joining or helping out, contact Tammy at t.taylorbendig@outlook.com for more information. The location is to be determined, based on which families are interested.

Confession Heals The Soul

Catholics are encouraged to partake of the sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession) as much as possible, confession is good for the soul. None of us are perfect, and all of us carry burdens that could be lightened through honest reflection and repentance. Other religions include a confessional practice as well, attesting to the universal need: Jews confess "We have sinned" in the Yom Kippur service. Confession is part of the Hindu Prāyaścitta. In Islam, the act of seeking forgiveness from God for sins is called Istighfar. Buddhist monks confess their sins to other monks.

Find a time for Confession that works for you, we are here to help and you'll feel better for it.

Confessions also available by appointment

Celebrate St. Brother André—Happy Birthday!

On Sunday, August 6, 2023 we will be celebrating the birthday of St. André. Please join us after mass at: St. Peter Parish Hall for cake, ice cream and refreshments. Weather permitting, we will be saying the rosary in the rosary garden at 11:00am before mass. Brother André was born on August 9, 1845 and visited this area for the first time in 1917 when he was 72 years old.

St. Peter Church, Goderich Prayerline

If you want to strengthen your prayer-life, consider joining our Prayerline. It takes just a few minutes daily.

Each month a prayer list will be e-mailed to you. To be eligible for prayers, the person must request them or give their permission to be added (first and last name). If you've added someone, please provide updates when prayers are no longer needed. For those with chronic conditions, once their health is stable they can be removed and added again if needed. Updates will be e-mailed periodically (if you wish to receive them).

All names on the prayer list are to remain confidential. Those who aren't comfortable having their names listed will be prayed for as part of our monthly General Intentions. Please consider this; the more prayers, the stronger our prayers and our faith community will be. Contact the Prayerline at st.p.prayerline@gmail.com

Vocation Myth Busters for Parents

Common Myths about Priesthood: A Guide for Parents. Year after year, in surveys of newly ordained priests, over half report that their families opposed the idea of priesthood when they first expressed interest. Undoubtedly, parents want the best for their children. So, what about priesthood does not fit parents' vision of "the good life"? Let's look at five common myths about the seminary and priesthood. (The next myth buster will be posted in the next bulletin)

MYTH #1 "HE'LL BE SO LONELY." This is an easy myth to dispel. Priests are surrounded by people! After all, their job is to bring Jesus to people and people to Jesus. They are continually working with parish staff, youth, and a myriad of people who come to them for spiritual advice. Seminaries today are very deliberate in teaching men how to form good, healthy relationships with people in their parishes and the priests of their dioceses. Sure, there can be lonely moments—but the same is true in any vocation, marriage included. Most priests have healthy friendships with brother priests, lay people, and family that keep them grounded and connected.

THE IDEAL PARENT The ideal Catholic parent understands a simple truth: that God desires your child's happiness even more than you do! If your son experiences a genuine call from the Lord to pursue the priesthood, trust in God's love for your son! From the earliest years, make it clear to your children that God has a plan for them. Read them Bible stories of Jesus calling his disciples. Engage in open conversations about your children's hopes and dreams. Make sure that they understand the various vocations to marriage, priesthood, and religious life. Above all, teach them how to pray and serve others. If your child does express an interest in priesthood, be supportive. Fr. Brett Brannen, in the book To Save a Thousand Souls, described the ideal parent as one who is at peace with God's will.

Horizons of Hope

Our Canadian Bishops Response to Medical Assistance In Dying. MAID. We are in a critical time now, as the government has set laws around dying. There is increasing pressure from the Health System in pushing people to consider assisted suicide. We must consider the issues around dying. In this series we will consider palliative care from different angles: ethical, medical, emotional, and spiritual. We will also consider what we as a faith community can do to help ourselves and others to walk in their dying; embracing them in our love and the love of God.

Our sessions will be hosted at: Immaculate Heart of Mary, Grand Bend. They will be held on: Tuesdays, July 25, and Aug 1, 8, 15. We begin each night at: 6:30pm until 8:30pm.
