Reflections ~ Reflexiones:

GOSPEL: LUKE 10: 1-12, 17-20 OR LUKE 10; 1-9

If Jesus sounds like he means business in this reading, he does! What matters most to him in the whole world is to make people understand that the reign of God is at hand. This is why he sends his disciples out in every direction. The harvest (people who have not heard the good news of the gospel) is ready right now. Jesus instructs the disciples to go quickly and travel light. They are to spread his peace, cure the sick, and proclaim the reign of God.

1.) Imagine for a moment that Jesus sent you and a partner into your town or city to proclaim God's kingdom. How would you do it? What would you do first? Is there a way you could do this very thing in reality? Why or why not?

EVANGELIO: LUCAS 10: 1-12, 17-20 O LUCAS 10: 1-9

Nos puede parecer que lo que dice Jesús en esta lectura es algo muy serio. Y lo es. Lo que más le interesa en el mundo es que la gente entienda que el reino de Dios está cerca. Es por eso que envía a sus discípulos por todo el mundo. La siembra (la gente que no ha escuchado la buena nueva del evangelio) está lista ahora mismo. Jesús manda a los discípulos a ir rápido a la velocidad de la luz. Ellos tienen que llevar su paz, su sanación y proclamar el reino de Dios.

1.) Imagina por un momento que Jesús te envía con un compañero a una ciudad o pueblo a proclamar su reino. ¿Qué harías? ¿Qué harías primero? ¿Hay alguna forma en que podrías hacer esto realmente? ¿Por qué sí o por qué no?

Pastor's Message ~ Mensaje del Párroco:

RICHES TO RAGS

The life of Saint Katharine Drexel (1858–1955) is a “riches to rags” story—the opposite of the American dream. Katharine was the daughter of a wealthy banker. Her father believed their great fortune meant that God had great expectations for its use. Katharine was influenced to devote her life and wealth to the poor. She founded the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament to serve Native and African Americans with education, material assistance, and the Gospel. With her twenty million-dollar fortune she founded sixty schools and established Xavier University for African-Americans. Katharine and her sisters ministered tirelessly. Like the seventy disciples in today's Gospel, they were despised by some for their work, called vicious names, and spat upon. Katharine embraced poverty because of her love for Jesus Christ, gratitude for his sacrifice on the cross, and desire to be united with him forever. Blessed Sacrament Sisters serve today, bringing the message of today's Gospel: “The kingdom of God is at hand for you” (Luke 10:9). Copyright

DE MILLONARIA A MENDIGA

La vida de santa Catalina Drexel (1858–1955) es de millonaria a mendiga—lo opuesto al llamado sueño americano. Catalina fue la hija de un adinerado banquero. Su padre estaba convencido de que su gran fortuna era para usarla según la disposición de Dios. Esto influyó en Catalina para dedicar su vida y su fortuna a los pobres. Fundó la congregación de las Hermanas del Santísimo Sacramento para servir a los amerindios de Estados Unidos y a los afro-americanos con la educación, la asistencia material y el evangelio. Con veinte millones de su propio dinero fundó sesenta escuelas y la Universidad Javeriana para los afro-americanos. Catalina y sus hermanas se entregaron incansablemente a su ministerio. Igual que los setenta y dos discípulos del evangelio de hoy, algunos las despreciaron por las obras que hacían, les decían improperios y las escupían. Catalina abrazó la pobreza por su gran amor y gratitud a Jesucristo por su sacrificio en la cruz, y además por el deseo que tenía de estar unida a él para siempre. Las Hermanas del Santísimo Sacramento ofrecen sus servicios mientras llevan el mensaje del evangelio de hoy: “Está llegando a ustedes el reino de Dios” (Lucas 10:9).

Treasures From Our Tradition:

Some say tomato—and some say to-mato—you know the old song. What do you say when you arrive at church and see a font prepared, a baby in the wings, the paschal candle burning? Well, maybe you will say that "we're having a baptism today," or maybe you say "we are having a christening." The proper term is baptism, since that is the name of the sacrament. But the persistent use of "christening" in our culture, probably due to the influence of the Episcopal Church, is interesting.

Baptism, an ancient word, is from the Greek meaning to dip or to dunk. Christening is an Old English word that describes perfectly well that more than getting splashed with water, the person being baptized is being "Christ-ed." No matter what you call it, there's always water involved, and then an anointing with chrism—fragrant olive oil consecrated as a sign of Christ's presence—poured upon the brow as we say, "As Christ was anointed Priest, Prophet, and King, so may you live always as a member of his body, sharing everlasting life."

So, in being Christ-ed, you are conformed to his image, your life is expected to be a retelling of his life in miniature and you—even though you may be squirming or sleeping—are commissioned to be a priest, a prophet, a king. This means that you are called to be one who worships, you are called to speak the truth, you are called to shape the world and exercise right judgment. That is the deepest treasure of our tradition, and every time you gather to celebrate a baptism, you renew your vows precisely so that you can be more "Christ-ed." No matter what vocabulary you assign to the liturgy, the key is transformation of the human person in the community of the Body of Christ.

PEACE:

The greeting of peace at Mass adds substance to a message of today's readings: peace is relational. When we greet in peace the person near us at Mass, we share the touch of a handshake or embrace, sincere eye contact, and friendly words. The scriptures speak of a similar peace. The first reading from Isaiah describes the peace of the holy city, Jerusalem, a place of prosperity and comfort where the "LORD's power shall be known to his servants" (Isaiah 66:14c).

The Christian understanding of peace changes slightly. Paul writes of the "peace and mercy" on all who are created anew. Jesus describes a feeling of peace that will rest on those who accept his disciples and their message.

Peace is both an absence of strife and a personal blessing. May we always and sincerely bring peace to our own lives as we share it with others.

Peter's Pence:

Thank you for your generous support of the essential work of the Holy Father and his charitable acts through the Peter's Pence Collection. Our contributions will be with those of our brothers and sisters around the world to help Pope Benedict reach out to those in need. Your generosity will help to cast Christ's peace upon the world.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary:

Last Sunday, Jesus rebuked James and John for wanting to "call down fire from heaven" (Luke 9:54-55) on an unwelcoming town. As he sends forth disciples today, Jesus again forbids retaliation against non-receptive listeners (10:10-11), showing us how to be Jesus' "missionaries of mercy" this Jubilee Year of Mercy. Like the first disciples, we are sent not to proclaim ourselves but Jesus. As Jesus sent them in pairs, so are we also to work together in the community of the Church. We often describe the Church as Isaiah describes Jerusalem in today's first reading, our comforting, nurturing Mother (Isaiah 66:13). So, going forth gently, like lambs among wolves (Luke 10:3), we share comforting peace, nurturing food and drink (Luke's image for Eucharist), and Jesus' healing promise of unfailing, unconditional mercy (10:5, 7, 9). Thus Jesus bids us proclaim the kingdom of God by showing what God's kingdom looks like in action. "Go, preach the Gospel," Pope Francis' saintly namesake of Assisi is said to have instructed his first friars, "and when necessary, use words!"

Noticias de Epifanía

Tradiciones De Nuestra Fe:

En muchos santuarios de Latinoamérica y Europa se pueden encontrar diversas ofrendas que han dejado los fieles a través de los siglos. Entre estas ofrendas es de particular relieve el exvoto. Exvoto (una frase en latín que se traduce "del voto") es el regalo que se le presenta al santo o a la santa en reconocimiento del favor recibido. Esto también se llama "manda".

Los exvotos o mandas toman varias formas desde pequeñas medallas en forma de la parte del cuerpo que fue sanado hasta pinturas del milagro concedido. El exvoto más antiguo en América es de una pintura mandada a hacer por Hernán Cortés en honor de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe de Extremadura (España). Esta imagen reconocía el hecho de ser salvado del piquete de un alacrán mientras estaba en México. Lamentablemente esta pintura se extravió en el siglo XIX.

En realidad el santo o la santa no necesita el exvoto pero los creyentes sí. Estas mandas nos recuerdan el poder de la intercesión divina en la vida humana. También nos invitan al agradecimiento de los favores que Dios nos hace.

La Paz:

El saludo de la paz en la Misa fundamenta un mensaje de las lecturas de hoy: la paz es relacional. Cuando le damos la paz a la persona que está cerca de nosotros en la Misa, compartimos el roce de un apretón de manos o un abrazo, el contacto visual sincero y palabras amistosas.

Las Escrituras hablan de una paz similar. La primera lectura de Isaías describe la paz como la ciudad sagrada, Jerusalén, un lugar de prosperidad y de consuelo donde "Los siervos del Señor conocerán su poder".

El entendimiento cristiano de la paz cambia ligeramente. San Pablo escribe sobre "la paz y la misericordia" para todos los que son nuevas criaturas. Jesús describe un sentimiento de paz que se posará sobre los que aceptan a sus discípulos y a su mensaje.

La paz es tanto la ausencia de conflictos como una bendición personal. Que siempre y sinceramente traigamos paz a nuestras propias vidas mientras la compartimos con los demás.
