Pastor's Message~ Mensaje del Párroco

EYES WIDE OPEN

In today's Gospel, Cleopas and another disciple--perhaps a friend, or even his wife--were joined on the way to Emmaus by a stranger who asked about their conversation. Listening intently to their story of Jesus' death and resurrection, he explained it in the context of the Jewish scriptures. The two were too blinded by grief to realize who the stranger was. In Emmaus they persuaded him stay for dinner. When Jesus broke the bread and gave thanks "their eyes were opened" and they recognized their guest (Luke 24:31). They were awakened to the whole new reality of God's grace falling on them at the dinner table or hurrying down the road. God's grace falls on us, smack dab in the ordinary moments, in the checkout line, at a sick relative's bedside, during phone calls and driving the car to pick up the kids. The Emmaus story says that God is alive, right now. Wake up and see! Copyright (c) 2010, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

CON LOS OJOS BIEN ABIERTOS

En el Evangelio de hoy Cleofás y otro discípulo, tal vez un amigo o aún la esposa, se dirigían hacia Emaús cuando un extraño se les une en el camino y les pregunta de qué hablan. Se puso a escuchar atentamente la historia de la muerte y resurrección de Jesús que los dos contaban y se las explicó en el contexto de las escrituras judías. Los dos discípulos estaban demasiado cegados por el dolor para darse cuenta de quién era el extraño que caminaba con ellos. Al llegar a Emaús le pidieron que se quedara a comer. Cuando Jesús partió el pan y dio gracias "se les abrieron los ojos" y reconocieron a su invitado (Lucas 24:31). Despertaron a una nueva realidad por la gracia de Dios que se derramaba en ellos mientras estaban sentados a la mesa o aun cuando se apuraban por el camino. La gracia de Dios llega a nosotros en el mismo medio de los momentos ordinarios, en la línea de espera para pagar, junto a la cama de un familiar enfermo, durante llamadas telefónicas o mientras manejamos para ir a recoger a los niños. La historia de Emaús dice que Dios está vivo, ahora mismo, en este momento. ¡Despierta y ve! Copyright (c) 2010, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

Reflections ~ Reflexiones

GOSPEL LUKE 24: 13-25

As two downhearted disciples journey to Emmaus, a stranger joins them. To him they pour out all their crushed hopes about Jesus who has been crucified and whom they miss so much. After listening carefully to their story, the stranger tells them that they are slow to "believe all that the prophets have announced." He then explains the Scripture to them. The disciples are delighted with the stranger's teaching. But they do not realize that the stranger is Jesus until he takes bread, blesses it, breaks it, and gives it to them. At Mass the priest does this very same thing today. At Mass we too meet Jesus along the road of our lives, and Jesus gives himself to us through these very actions.

1.) Our friends can either lead us to walk with Jesus or to walk away from him. How do you support and help your friends in walking with Jesus? How do they support and help you? How do you show that you, too, recognize Jesus in the breaking of the bread at the celebration of the Eucharist?

GOSPEL LUKE 24:13-25

Cuando dos discípulos, cabizbajos, caminaban por Emaús, un extranjero se les acercó. Le contaron todo su desaliento por la crucifixión de Jesús a quien extrañaban mucho. Después de escucharles cuidadosamente, el extraño les dijo que no creían "todo lo que los profetas habían anunciado". Les explicó la Escritura. Los discípulos estaban encantados con las enseñanzas del extranjero. No se dieron cuenta de que este extranjero era Jesús hasta que él tomó el pan, lo bendijo y lo partió y se los*dio*. En la misa el sacerdote hace lo mismo. En la misa también nos encontramos con Jesús en el camino de nuestras vidas y Jesús se da a sí mismo.

1.) Nuestros amigos pueden dirigirnos o desviarnos en nuestro camino hacia Jesús. ¿Cómo ayudas a tus amigos a caminar con Jesús? ¿Cómo te ayudan ellos? ¿Cómo muestras que también reconoces a Jesús en la fracción del pan y la celebración de la Eucaristía?

For Your Information:

Thank you!!!

Dear Parishioners,
My Heartfelt thanks and gratitude to the following parishioners who have so far responded to our Archdiocesan Annual Appeal. As of now, we have received $37,000.00 of our assigned goal, which is $112,112. If you have not received a brochure, please pick one up in the Church or the Parish office. Due to Holy Week there has been no recent report for the Archdiocese. Thank you for your generosity!! May God bless you and your families.

You have made known to me
the paths of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence. — Acts 2:28

Treasures from our Tradition:

Some monks and nuns trace their community origins back a thousand years or so, before it became customary to reserve the Blessed Sacrament in tabernacles. In their rules of life, which evolved from the lifestyle and prayer of their predecessors, the core experience of Christ's presence is at the altar itself, and in the symbol of assembly for prayer. To this day, when the monks or nuns file into their church in procession, they march two by two, and then bow profoundly to the altar before turning and bowing in reverence toward the brother or sister at their side. It is probably more difficult, in practice, to revere the presence of Christ in a person who irks you by taking the car keys, shirking a work duty, or burning the toast!

We can trace in these religious orders' enduring customs the ancient appreciation for the altar as the center of the church building, and of the community of the faithful as the Body of Christ. Usually, a monastery today will reserve the Blessed Sacrament in some quiet corner of the monastic church, in a fairly small space, more suitable for private prayer than for the gathering of the whole community. In a cloister, the architecture may allow the public limited access to this space. Liturgical law tells us, in both monasteries and parish churches, that there is no need for more than a few hosts in the place of reservation, just enough for viaticum, the "food for the journey" that is the final sacramental celebration for a dying Christian. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Calling All Youth Ages 12 to 17:

Join our parish youth group, which is open to students in grades 7 thru 12. The group will meet two Fridays each month from 6:30 to 8:30pm for fun and fellowship. The first meeting will be held on Friday, May 5. Youth will have a chance to meet others who share or are seeking faith, can learn more about how to live out our faith in today's world and can spend time with their peers. For more information visit the table outside in front of the church where youth can sign up and/or get more information and meet our youth ministry committee. You can also email CotEyouthgroup@gmail.com

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe:.

El 3 de mayo en el sur de Ilocos, Filipinas, se celebra la fiesta del Cristo milagroso o Apo Lacay como lo llaman los filipinos. Esta imagen fue encontrada dentro de una caja que flotaba en el mar, junto con la Virgen Milagrosa. Fueron unos pescadores quienes hicieron el hallazgo. Los pescadores eran de los pueblos de Badoc y Sinait y decidieron llevarse el Cristo a Badoc, pero no lograron moverlo. Una vez que decidieron llevarse al Cristo a Sinait, la imagen se hizo muy ligera de peso, por lo cual se piensa que Cristo deseaba estar en Sinait.

Este Cristo negro recuerda a los Cristos milagrosos de Latinoamérica, como el Santo Cristo de Esquipulas (Guatemala), los Cristos de Tila, Chalma y Otaltitlán (México), el Señor de los Milagros (Perú) y otros. Probablemente se trata de una evangelización española ya que en 1595, el rey Felipe II mandó varios Cristos negros a los cristianos indígenas de América. En todo caso, estos Cristos han resultado milagrosos gracias a la fe del pueblo, porque como dice Jesús: nuestra fe es la que nos salva (Marcos 5:34; 10:46-52).—Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Exposición del Santísimo:

Habrá Exposición del Santísimo el viernes, 5 de mayo desde las 8:30am hasta las 5:00 pm en la Sacristía de los Acólitos al lado derecho del altar mayor.
