Reflections ~ Reflexiones

Gospel Matthew 25: 31-46

Today, on the feast of Christ the King, we read that a ruler or leader should be like a shepherd. The leader is to care for all the people and protect them. And a wise and loving ruler knows that what is important for the people is equally important for their leader. In today's gospel, the ruler is also a judge. At the last judgment, Christ is pictured as the king who judges the nations. How does he judge? On the basis of care and concern for the needy. Did you notice in the gospel that all the people were surprised at the king's answer to their questions? How lucky we are to have Jesus tell us what they did not seem to know, that when we do for others, we do to him, and that we will be judged on our works of mercy and justice. Take a moment to think about these works that the gospel mentions. Ask Christ to reign and rule in your heart and in the whole world.

1.) In this reading, what criteria does the ruler/judge use to separate the good and evil ones? List the actions, called Works of Mercy, that are rewarded in this story. List the actions that are not rewarded. Those who were brought into the kingdom and those who were excluded asked the same question. What was the question? What was the answer? What truth is being suggested? What does the king say at the end of both judgments? Who are "the least" referred to in this story?

Evangelio Mateo 25: 31-46

Hoy es la fiesta de Cristo Rey y leemos que un líder, un gobernante, debe ser como un pastor. El líder debe proteger a toda su gente. Un gobernante sabio y compasivo sabe que lo que es importante para el pueblo debe ser importante para él. En el evangelio de hoy, el gobernante es también un juez. En el juicio final, Cristo es mostrado como un rey que juzga a todas las naciones. ¿Cómo él juzga? Basado en la preocupación por los necesitados. ¿Te diste cuenta, en el evangelio, que todos se sorprendieron de las respuestas del rey a sus preguntas? Somos agradecidos de tener a Jesús que nos dice lo que parece que ellos no saben, que lo que hacemos por otros lo hacemos por él y que seremos juzgados por nuestras obras de misericordia y justicia. Toma un segundo para pensar en las obras mencionadas en el evangelio. Pide a Cristo reinar y gobernar en tu corazón y en todo el mundo.

1.) En esta lectura, ¿qué criterio el rey/juez usó para separar a los buenos de los malos? Haz una lista de las acciones, llamadas obras de misericordia, que son recompensadas en la historia. Haz una lista de las acciones que no son recompensadas. Los que son llevados al reino y los que son excluidos hicieron la misma pregunta. ¿Cuál fue esta pregunta? ¿Cuál fue la respuesta? ¿Qué verdad es sugerida? ¿Qué dijo el juez al final del juicio a ambos grupos? ¿Quiénes son los "más pequeños" a quienes se refiere la historia?

Pastor's Message ~ Mensaje del Párroco

A KING LIKE NO OTHER

We have not elected God as president. There are no referendums on God's will, and no chance of recall votes. God as King seems strange in our democratic, individualistic society. Jesus experienced oppressive rulers--think of Herod and Pontius Pilate--but he connected his kingly status to humble service, and instructed his followers to be servants. He humbled himself, became human, suffered, and died for us. The Lord of glory hung on a cross of shame to free us from the bondage of sin and death. He is Lord, King, and Judge, but his justice is intended to lead to our repentance and ultimate salvation. We believe "he will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end." The scriptures say that God delays Christ's return so we all have time to repent. Christ our King offers us true freedom as the beloved children of God. Copyright (c) 2010, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

Living Stewardship Now:

A Prayer to Christ the King from the liturgy: Almighty and merciful God, you break the power of evil and make all things new in your Son Jesus Christ, the King of the universe. May all in heaven and earth acclaim your glory and never cease to praise you. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen. (The Roman Missal, Opening Prayer for Our Lord Jesus Christ the King) . Copyright (c) 2010, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

UN REY INIGUALABLE

No hemos elegido a Dios como presidente. No existen referendos en la voluntad de Dios ni hay la posibilidad de anular votos. Dios, como Rey, le parece ajeno a nuestra sociedad democrática e individualista. Jesús experimentó la opresión de gobernantes tales como Herodes y Poncio Pilato, pero vinculó su estatus de rey con el servicio humilde e instruyó a sus discípulos a ser servidores. Él se humilló, se hizo humano, sufrió y murió por nosotros. El Señor de la gloria colgaba de una cruz ignominiosa para librarnos del pecado y de la muerte. Él es Señor, Rey y Juez, pero el propósito de su justicia es llevarnos al arrepentimiento y a la salvación eterna. Nosotros creemos que él "de nuevo vendrá con gloria para juzgar a vivos y a muertos, y su reino no tendrá fin". Las Escrituras nos dicen que Dios dilata la segunda venida de Cristo para darnos tiempo a arrepentirnos. Cristo nuestro Rey nos ofrece la verdadera libertad como hijos e hijas de Dios. Living Stewardship Now:

Una oración a Cristo Rey tomada de la liturgia de esta fiesta: Dios todopoderoso y eterno, que quisiste fundar todas las cosas en tu Hijo muy amado, Rey del universo, haz que toda creatura, liberada de la esclavitud, sirva a tu majestad y te alabe eternamente. Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo. (Misal Romano, Oración Colecta para Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Rey del Universo). Copyright (c) 2010, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

Treasure From Our Tradition:

Today we have a modern feast, less than a century old, and placed at the very end of the liturgical cycle of Sundays only in 1969. In 1925, the world was in a sorry state from the vantage point of Pope Pius XI. The winds of war had swept the map of Europe raw, and ancient Christian dynasties had fallen in Russia and Spain. Although the Great War had ended, wars were breaking out everywhere. Fascism was already in control in Italy, and Nazism was on the horizon for Germany. The disorder making its claim on the human race was, the pope felt, an insult to the Divine Order. Pius XI designated the last Sunday in October as a day of universal recognition of the kingship of Christ. Creating this feast was an act of bravery by the pope, who was standing up against idolatry of the state and the dehumanizing forces of the modern world, things that are not hard to detect in today's world as well. In 1969 it seemed fitting to move the feast to a place of honor at the end of the year, a way of summing up the whole movement of the liturgical year toward the perfection of the Kingdom of God. In recent decades, many Protestant churches have adopted this day from the new Roman calendar, so it is shared now with the Church of England, the Episcopal, Presbyterian, and Lutheran churches, and others. —Rev. Christ, King of All

On this, the final Sunday of the liturgical year, we celebrate the solemnity of Christ the King. By concluding the year with this feast we are proclaiming our faith that Jesus Christ is the one and only king over all seasons, all peoples, and all of creation.

At the end of time as we know it, Christ's work of restoring all things to unity and harmony with their Creator God will be completed. This Sunday, when we claim Christ as both our Shepherd and our King, we recognize our own calling to participate in Christ's saving work by caring for those whom Jesus calls "the least ones" (Matthew 25:45). Tradiciones De Nuestra Fe:

México tiene la reputación de ser un país muy católico. Sin embargo, en 1917 México recibió una nueva constitución en la cual se estableció una política de intolerancia religiosa, especialmente en contra de la Iglesia católica romana. Con el paso de los años, se emitieron muchas leyes anticlericales mismas que fueron puestas en vigor hasta el punto que el gobierno federal decretó la suspensión de culto. Esto generó un levantamiento por parte de muchos mexicanos y mexicanas con el único fin de defender su religión y su derecho a celebrarla.

En marzo de 1925, estos mexicanos católicos movidos por el deseo de justicia, fundaron la Liga Nacional para la Defensa de la Libertad Religiosa. Ese mismo mes, el Papa Pío XI proclamó la Fiesta de Cristo Rey, celebrada el último domingo del año litúrgico. Esta fiesta se incluyó al calendario litúrgico para recordar a los cristianos —que no importa en qué país o bajo que gobierno nos encontremos— pertenecemos a un solo poder, a un solo Señor, ¡un solo Rey! Inspirados por el grito "¡Viva Cristo Rey!", miles de mexicanos dieron testimonio público de su fe y murieron con esta confesión de fe, justo antes de recibir el martirio, demostrando así que Jesús es verdaderamente el único Rey de sus vidas. —Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glez, OFM, Copyright © J. Cristo, Rey De Todos

En este, el último domingo del año litúrgico, celebramos la solemnidad de Cristo Rey. Al concluir el año con esta fiesta proclamamos nuestra fe en que Jesucristo es el solo y único rey sobre todos los tiempos, todos los pueblos y toda la Creación. Al final del tiempo que conocemos, quedará completa la obra de Cristo de restaurar todas las cosas en unidad y armonía con Dios su Creador. Este domingo, cuando proclamamos que Cristo es nuestro Pastor y nuestro Rey, reconocemos nuestro llamado a participar en la obra salvadora de Cristo al cuidar de quienes Cristo llama "aquellos más insignificantes" (Mateo 25:45).
