Reflections ~ Reflexiones

Gospel: Luke 3:15-16, 21-22

We all want to be recognized for who we really are. Today's Gospel reading describes that memorable day when Jesus had the joy of being recognized by John the Baptist and approved by God as "God's beloved Son." Although Jesus did not need to be baptized (since he was without sin), he wanted to identify himself as closely as possible with God's people.
Take a few minutes today to be thankful for your baptism. Ask Jesus to help you recognize yourself more deeply as a beloved daughter or son of God.

1.) How often do you recognize times when you have experienced God's favor and love?
2.) What can help you become more conscious every day of God acting in your life?
3.) What can you do to help others become more aware of God's love?

Evangelio: Lucas 3: 15-16, 21-22

Queremos ser reconocidos por lo que realmente somos. La lectura del evangelio de hoy describe ese día memorable, cuando Jesús tuvo el placer de ser reconocido por Juan el Bautista y considerado por Dios como "mi Hijo amado". Aunque Jesús no necesitaba ser bautizado (nació sin pecado), quería identificarse y acercarse lo más posible al pueblo de Dios.
Tómese unos minutos hoy para estar agradecido por su bautismo. Pídale a Jesús que lo ayude a reconocerse más profundamente como una hija o hijo amado de Dios.

1.) ¿Con qué frecuencia dedicas tiempo para establecer contacto con el favor y el amor de Dios?
2.) ¿Qué puede ayudarte a ser más consciente del desempeño de Dios en tu vida todos los días?
3.) ¿Qué puedes hacer para ayudar a otros a estar más conscientes del amor de Dios?

Pastor's Message~ Mensaje del Párroco

APOSTLES OF THE GOOD NEWS

The baptism of Jesus may seem odd to us. John called the people to repent and be baptized and then urged them to go and live good lives. The Savior of the world needs baptism? Yet, as John foretold, the power of the Spirit pours upon Jesus. He is the Beloved Son, or as Saint Paul says, the one "who gave himself for us, to deliver us from all lawlessness and to cleanse for himself a people as his own, eager to do what is good" (Titus 2:14). Before his ascension, Jesus appeared to his disciples or followers. John, he said, had baptized with water, but they "in a few days . . . will be baptized with the Holy Spirit" (Acts 1:5). At Pentecost the power of the Spirit fills them. They become apostles--the ones sent forth with the Good News--healing, forgiving, binding up wounds, teaching, and preaching. We are disciples as we learn more about Christ, but also apostles. Saint Teresa of Ávila said:
Christ has no body now but yours,
no hands, no feet on earth but yours, yours are the eyes with which he looks compassion on this world, yours are the feet with which he walks to do good, yours are the hands with which he blesses all the world. Copyright (c) 2009, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

APÓSTOLES DELA BUENA NUEVA

El bautismo de Jesús pudiera parecernos raro. Juan le pidió a la gente que se arrepintiera y se bautizara, y la urgió a vivir una vida sana. El Salvador del mundo, ¿necesita el bautismo? No obstante, tal como lo predijo Juan, el poder del Espíritu desciende sobre Jesús. Él es el Hijo Amado o, como dice san Pablo, el que "se entregó por nosotros para redimirnos de todo pecado y purificarnos, a fin de convertirnos en pueblo suyo, fervorosamente entregado a practicar el bien" (Tito 2:14). Antes de su ascensión, Jesús se le apareció a sus discípulos y les dijo que Juan había bautizado con agua, pero que ellos "dentro de pocos días...serán bautizados con el Espíritu Santo" (Hechos 1:5). En Pentecostés ellos quedan llenos del Espíritu y se convierten en "apóstoles"--los enviados con la Buena Nueva--a sanar, perdonar, curar heridas, enseñar y predicar. Nosotros somos discípulos a medida que aprendemos más acerca de Cristo, pero también somos apóstoles. Como dijo santa Teresa de Ávila:
Cristo no tiene otro cuerpo en la tierra que el tuyo,
no tiene otras manos que las tuyas,
no tiene otros pies que los tuyos.
Tuyos son los ojos a través de los cuales la compasión de Cristo mira a este mundo; tuyos son los pies que pasan haciendo el bien; tuyas son las manos con las cuales ahora Él nos bendice. Copyright (c) 2009, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Merry Christmas! Share that cheerful greeting with some folks today. They may wonder if you have had any Elvis sightings lately, attended Star Trekkie conventions, or were Cleopatra in a previous lifetime. Despite the skeptics, today is solidly within the Christmas season. In fact, in some strands of the Christian tradition it represents the clearest manifestation of the mystery of the Incarnation. On Christmas Day, for example, the Gospel reading is the Prologue of John's Gospel, which reveals the glory of Christ shining through our humanity precisely in his baptism.
At any rate, this is an ancient feast, celebrated first in Egypt sixteen centuries ago. More than most other ancient people, the Egyptians understood the life giving properties of water. On this day, they drew water from the Nile, so central in the history of their people, and reserved it in honor. Many other places copied the custom, so that St. John Chrysostom wrote of people in Antioch gathering at midnight to collect flowing water into vessels they brought from home since "today there is a blessing on the water." At home for dinner tonight, decorate the table with beautiful bowls of water and white candles, toast one another with goblets of sparkling water, and light a Christmas candle in the window one last time.

CALLED TO SERVE

For many weeks now, we have been celebrating the appearance of the divine presence in human form. As a child, he came to Mary and Joseph, was seen by the shepherds, and then by some wandering magi from the East. Today we celebrate another showing, later in time, to a group gathered at the Jordan River. John hesitated to baptize Jesus, whom he recognized as "one mightier than I." But he did as Jesus asked, and the "Holy Spirit descended" and heaven's voice spoke to Jesus, "You are my beloved Son." Jesus was beginning his public life of teaching and service. Soon he would start calling others to join him.
Peter was one of the first to be called by Jesus. In today's second reading, he announces the heart of the message, "peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all." Peter was called, and you and I are called to spread that message and to serve God's word. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

La costumbre del bautismo infantil debe ser mucho más que un acto social o una tradición cultural, donde el ropón y los regalos son más importantes que la doctrina cristiana, y los padrinos se escogen no por su buen ejemplo sino por su cuenta bancaria.
Según los Hechos de los Apóstoles, familias enteras se bautizaban cuando el padre de familia decidía hacerse cristiano. Esta práctica de bautizar, no solo al nuevo creyente sino también a su mujer y a sus hijos, poco a poco, quedó solo en bautizar los niños del original creyente. El mundo en aquel tiempo estaba basado sobre la familia así como muchas culturas latinas de hoy.
El bautizo infantil nació en la Iglesia primitiva y al pasar de los siglos llegó a transformarse en un rito religioso muy importante en la catequesis del nuevo cristiano. El niño viste de ropita blanca que recuerda la presencia de Cristo en su alma, se le regala una vela que lo invita a brillar con la luz de Cristo y se le da una madrina o un padrino que le enseñará a vivir en Cristo.

LLAMADOS A SERVIR

Por muchas semanas hemos celebrado la aparición de la presencia divina en su forma humana. Cuando era niño, Jesús vivió con María y José, al nacer lo visitaron unos pastores y luego algunos errantes magos de Oriente. Hoy celebramos otra situación, ocurrida un tiempo después, a un grupo reunido en el río Jordán.
Juan vaciló cuando le tocó bautizar a Jesús, a quien reconocía como "uno más poderoso que yo". Pero hizo como Jesús se lo pidió, "descendió el Espíritu Santo" y una voz celestial habló a Jesús: "Tú eres mi hijo, el predilecto". Jesús estaba empezando su vida pública de enseñanza y de servicio. Pronto comenzaría a llamar a otros a seguirlo.
Pedro fue el primero que Jesús llamó. En la segunda lectura de hoy anuncia el centro del mensaje: "la paz que traería Jesucristo, el Señor de todos". Pedro fue llamado, y tú y yo somos llamados a llevar el mensaje y cumplir la palabra de Dios. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
