LIVING THE PASCHAL MYSTERY

Today’s Gospel is taken from Luke’s Sermon on the Plain, the counterpart of which is Matthew’s Sermon on the Mount. These two sermons are similar in some respects, but Luke’s version gives less attention to Jewish law and practice and has a greater focus on social justice and being merciful as God is merciful. Like Matthew, Luke puts forth a list of those who are blessed: the poor, the hungry, those who weep and mourn, and those who are judged and hated on account of the Son of Man. Unlike Matthew, however, Luke then lists a series of woes, or warnings, to those who are rich and well fed, those who laugh and are praised. For both groups, the context is the coming reign of God, when God’s power is fully manifested against the forces of evil in the world. In addition, it is worth noting that these two groups are associated with true and false prophets. True prophets trust in God and speak God’s truth regardless of the consequences. False prophets deceive themselves and others about their calling and about the words they speak. This Gospel should give us pause to reflect on where we stand. Do we take up our calling to be true prophets or do we close ourselves to the Word of God and, in effect, become false prophets?

CELEBRATING THE SACRAMENTS

“The purpose of the sacraments is to sanctify men, to build up the Body of Christ and, finally, to give worship to God.”

- CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH 1123 -

Please join us in a prayer of thanksgiving for the following sacraments celebrated in January:

Baptisms

James Stanley Wiggin

RECENTLY DECEASED

All the sacraments, and principally those of Christian initiation, have as their goal the last Passover of the child of God which, through death, leads him into the life of the Kingdom. Then what he confessed in faith and hope will be fulfilled: “I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come.”

- CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH 1680 -

Please join us in praying for the peaceful repose of the souls of the following parishioners:

- Carol Ryan
- John Nemetz
- George Harley

SPECIAL COLLECTION: CATHOLIC HIGHER EDUCATION

Effective Catholic campus ministry programs will allow our young adult Catholics the opportunity to grow in their faith. Many young men and women are called to the priesthood and religious life through their experiences in a strong Catholic campus ministry program. Thank you so much for your generous support of this weekend's special collection and these worthy programs in our diocese.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

The prophet Jeremiah minces no words in today's first reading: "Thus says the LORD: Cursed is the one who trusts in human beings ... whose heart turns away from the LORD." And the prophet's "beatitude" resembles that of Jesus' teaching in today's Gospel reading when he proclaims: "Blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD, whose hope is the LORD." Good stewards understand that what the world values is not consistent with Gospel values. They realize that God has placed in their midst all the gifts, charisms and resources needed to bring Christ to a world desperately in need of his loving presence. But to exercise good stewardship over God's gifts takes a great deal of trust. How does our stewardship reflect our trust in the Lord? What did we do today to give others hope in Christ Jesus?

ETHICS & INTEGRITY IN MINISTRY (EIM)

Keeping current with EIM training is required for all who serve in ministry at STM. We are a no tolerance parish.

What is Ethics & Integrity in Ministry (EIM)? EIM is a diocesan training and screening process focused on helping our community prevent and respond to abuse. It includes required workshops and background checks for all who work or volunteer in ministry as well as policies for reporting abuse.

Why is EIM required for all who serve in ministry at St. Thomas More? We have a shared commitment to ensuring our parish is a safe place for everyone, especially children and vulnerable adults. The more people who are aware of abuse warning signs, the more effective we can be in keeping our communities safe (parish, neighborhood, family, schools). With this in mind, our parish community is committed to following the Diocese of Austin's Ethics and Integrity in Ministry (EIM) policies.

Follow these three steps to stay current with EIM:

Complete the Application

Attend a Workshop

Renew Your Workshop

(EVERY THREE YEARS)

Visit stmaustin.org/eim to get started or log in to eappsdb.com/austin to check your EIM Compliance certification expiration.

EIM Policies require all clergy, religious, seminarians, employees and adult volunteers serving in any EIM compliance-required ministry to submit an EIM Application for Ministry (one-time only at austindiocese.org/application) prior to service. New applicants must attend an in-person EIM Workshop within 60 days of application submission and all applicants must update/renew compliance at least once every three years at austindiocese.org/eim-compliance-status. NOTE: starting February 1st, new applicants must attend an in-person EIM Workshop within 30 days of application submission.

If you are a new applicant who has submitted an EIM application and need to attend an in-person EIM workshop, please contact our EIM site administrator for workshop information: Danielle White at dwhite@stmaustin.org or (512) 258-1161.
