LIVING THE PASCHAL MYSTERY

Today, as we celebrate the Most Holy Trinity, we reflect on the character of God as expressed in our foundational understanding of the Trinity and the relationship between the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. God's very nature is relational, and as we are created in the image and likeness of God, we are invited into this relationship of love that is constantly poured out and shared between members of the Trinity. The essential component of being in relationship with our triune God is to allow that relationship to impact all that we say and do. To be disciples of the Lord is to live according to Jesus' values and lifestyle and to model for others what relationship with God entails. Our mission is to do for others what Jesus has done for us, in both his words and his deeds. When we respond to this love and share this love with others, we actively participate in the mystery of the Trinity. As we make the Sign of the Cross today, let us consciously reflect on the significance of that simple yet profound statement that we belong to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit and are called to live in communion with them.

EUCCHARISTIC PROCESSION

San José Parish, Austin

Join Bishop Vásquez on the Saturday before the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi), to kick off the diocesan Eucharistic Revival. The day begins with 8:30 a.m. Mass at San José Parish in Austin followed by a one-mile procession at 9:40 a.m. to St. Edward's University's Main Building where Bishop Vásquez will lead us in Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament (Adoration) at 10 a.m. To park at St. Edwards, register your vehicle for free at doal.in/stedspark. For more information on this event and the Eucharistic Revival, visit austindiocese.org/eucharistic-revival.

THE ATHANASIAN CREED

One of the symbols of Faith within the Church is a short and clear explanation of the doctrines of the Trinity and Incarnation - known as a creed. We're familiar with the Nicene Creed and the Apostles Creed as they are recited within liturgies and prayers we regularly encounter. The Athanasian Creed, while not said in the liturgies we celebrate, provides a wonderful explanation of the Trinity and provides an apt reflection for the solemnity we celebrate this week. Here's a brief excerpt:

So the Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Ghost is God. And yet they are not Three Gods, but One God. So likewise the Father is Lord, the Son Lord, and the Holy Ghost Lord. And yet not Three Lords but One Lord. For, like as we are compelled by the Christian verity to acknowledge every Person by Himself to be God and Lord, so are we forbidden by the Catholic Religion to say, there be Three Gods or Three Lords. The Father is made of none, neither created, nor begotten. The Son is of the Father alone; not made, nor created, but begotten. The Holy Ghost is of the Father, and of the Son neither made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding.

So there is One Father, not Three Fathers; one Son, not Three Sons; One Holy Ghost, not Three Holy Ghosts. And in this Trinity none is afore or after Other, None is greater or less than Another, but the whole Three Persons are Co-eternal together, and Co-equal. So that in all things, as is aforesaid, the Unity in Trinity, and the Trinity in Unity, is to be worshipped. He therefore that will be saved, must thus think of the Trinity.

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

In today's Gospel, Jesus talks about life with his Father and the Spirit. He tells his disciples that what belongs to the Father belongs to him, and that the Spirit will take from what is his and give it to them. Jesus helps us understand that the relationship between Father, Son and Spirit is one of perfect sharing and loving generosity. This shared life is the foundation for what we now understand as part of living life in the Trinity. The abundant generosity of those who are good stewards of the gifts entrusted to them give us a glimpse into the love of the Triune God. Does the extent of our generosity give others a glimpse of God's life within us?

Social Outreach

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

The mystery of the Trinity invites us to understand that God though one, is relational in being. God is love and love creates relationship. By baptism, we are brought into relationship with God and each other so we can embody God's dynamic love to the whole world. How are we being called to bring God's healing love to our corner of the world this week?

GREEN SPOT

Tip of the Week: Plan meals based on what you already have in your fridge, freezer or pantry. Use websites or apps (shelfcooking.com, Magic Fridge, Allrecipes, etc.) to find recipes based on ingredients you have on hand. You will save time, money and waste less food. STEPHEN MINISTRY
“WHEN WE NEED GOD’S LOVE MOST”

When do we need God’s love most? Of course we need that love every second of our lives, but there are times when God’s love is especially precious to us. Times when:

- we lose a loved one or go through a divorce;
- life becomes so confusing we do not know where to turn; or
- life just becomes meaningless and depression sets in.

At times like these, it is very important to have someone who cares. Our parish has trained lay people, Stephen Ministers, who offer a ministry of Christian caring. For more information, please call Eileen at (512) 507-9563. All calls are confidential.

CANCER SHARE
 Emmaus Parish, Lakeway, Pastoral Center Arch A/B Room

There is a special solidarity with others facing a cancer illness. The hope inspired by this ministry is an attitude about life and living in God’s loving care. Hope, rooted in our trust in God’s love for us, gives us strength and confidence. It comforts us with the knowledge that we are loved by God through Christ. So, we need not grieve nor despair. Illness need not break us. We are courageous and confident in God’s enduring love for us. Cancer patients, survivors, caregivers and family members are invited to attend. For more information, please contact Lee Malkowski at ljm8459@gmail.com.

ETHICS & INTEGRITY IN MINISTRY (EIM)

Keeping current with EIM training is required for all who serve in ministry at STM. We are a no tolerance parish.

What is Ethics & Integrity in Ministry (EIM)? EIM is a diocesan training and screening process focused on helping our community prevent and respond to abuse. It includes required workshops and background checks for all who work or volunteer in ministry as well as policies for reporting abuse.

Why is EIM required for all who serve in ministry at St. Thomas More? We have a shared commitment to ensuring our parish is a safe place for everyone, especially children and vulnerable adults. The more people who are aware of abuse warning signs, the more effective we can be in keeping our communities safe (parish, neighborhood, family, schools). With this in mind, our parish community is committed to following the Diocese of Austin's Ethics and Integrity in Ministry (EIM) policies.

Visit stmaustin.org/eim to get started or log in to eappsdb.com/austin to check your EIM Compliance certification expiration.

EIM Policies require all clergy, religious, seminarians, employees and adult volunteers serving in any EIM compliance-required ministry to submit an EIM Application for Ministry (one-time only at austindiocese.org/application) prior to service. New applicants must attend an in-person EIM Workshop within 60 days of application submission and all applicants must update/renew compliance at least once every three years at austindiocese.org/eim-compliance-status. NOTE: starting February 1st, new applicants must attend an in-person EIM Workshop within 30 days of application submission.

If you are a new applicant who has submitted an EIM application and need to attend an in-person EIM workshop, please contact our EIM site administrator for workshop information: Danielle White at dwhite@stmaustin.org or (512) 258-1161.

Online Training Now Available

The diocese has opened the EIM online training again which will remain open until January 2, 2023! This option is available only to volunteers who have previously attended an EIM workshop in person and are due for a refresher. Visit austindiocese.org/onlineeimtraining for instructions on completing EIM online training.
