ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT: Jesus promised "Behold I am with you always, even to the end of the world." Jesus fulfills this promise in the Exposition of the Holy Eucharist. Eucharistic Adoration is the most powerful means that we have to transform our lives and the life of our parish. Adoration provides an opportunity to spend time in the presence of the very Son of God. The more you experience the silence of this Mystery, the more you realize how blessed you are to spend time with Him, and receive the Greatness of God into your life. We invite you to spend time with the Blessed Sacrament each week. Adoration begins Wednesday morning at 7:30 a.m. and continues until 7:00 p.m. Eucharistic Adoration from Noon to 1:00 p.m. Confession is available during that hour. If you are interested in becoming a participant, please contact Cyndi Williams at 614-390-4718 or Jeanne Swisher at 614-314-2428 for further details.

NOVENA FOR LIFE: Beginning January 14 through January 22, the Knights of Columbus will be sponsoring a Novena For Life. In a culture that view the unborn as an inconvenience, we need prayers now more than ever. God did not create life to be disposed of like garbage. Please join us in this time of prayer. There will be prayer cards in the narthex to be prayed during the nine days. The Novena ends on January 22, which is the anniversary of Roe v. Wade in 1973. For more information, contact Tom Vollmer at 614-626-2476 or thomasvollmer@hotmail.com.

SAINT OF THE DAY FOR DECEMBER 26

Saint Stephen (d. c. 36)

Saint Stephen's Story

"As the number of disciples continued to grow, the Greek-speaking Christians complained about the Hebrew-speaking Christians, saying that their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution. So the Twelve called together the community of the disciples and said, 'It is not right for us to neglect the word of God to serve at table. Brothers, select from among you seven reputable men, filled with the Spirit and wisdom, whom we shall appoint to this task, whereas we shall devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word.' The proposal was acceptable to the whole community, so they chose Stephen, a man filled with faith and the Holy Spirit..." (Acts 6:1-5).

Acts of the Apostles says that Stephen was a man filled with grace and power, who worked great wonders among the people. Certain Jews, members of the Synagogue of Roman Freedmen, debated with Stephen, but proved no match for the wisdom and spirit with which he spoke. They persuaded others to make the charge of blasphemy against him. He was seized and carried before the Sanhedrin.

In his speech, Stephen recalled God's guidance through Israel's history, as well as Israel's idolatry and disobedience. He then claimed that his persecutors were showing this same spirit. "...you always oppose the holy Spirit; you are just like your ancestors" (Acts 7:51b). Stephen's speech brought anger from the crowd. "But he, filled with the holy Spirit, looked up intently to heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus standing at the right hand of God, and he said, 'Behold, I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God.' ...They threw him out of the city, and began to stone him. ...As they were stoning Stephen, he called out, 'Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.' ...'Lord, do not hold this sin against them'" (Acts 7:55-56, 58a, 59, 60b).

Stephen died as Jesus did: falsely accused, brought to unjust condemnation because he spoke the truth fearlessly. He died with his eyes trustfully fixed on God, and with a prayer of forgiveness on his lips. A "happy" death is one that finds us in the same spirit, whether our dying is as quiet as Joseph's or as violent as Stephen's: dying with courage, total trust and forgiving love.
