WOMEN'S RETREAT:

It's coming soon! Our annual women's retreat will be held one day only this year on Saturday, September 30 in the Parish Activity Center. Our Retreat Director will be Sharon Reed. Sharon has been involved with spirituality ministry – retreats for youth and adults, retreats for busy people, days and evenings of reflection – for over 30 years. She completed the SHALEM Program of Formation for Spiritual Direction and has served as a spiritual director ever since. She has also served as a counselor, dean of students, and Vice President for student development at Ohio Dominican University until she retired in July 2021. She has been a Dominican Associate since 2015 and is currently a member of St. Elizabeth Parish in the Columbus Northland area. The theme is "LIVING ON THE THRESHOLD" – How might we begin to recognize the "thresholds" of our lives (and in our days), so that we might take our time and listen inwardly to God's voice until we know it is time to cross that threshold? Might we also learn to recognize and appreciate the present moment before moving to the next one? Join other women as we gather to pray, reflect, discuss, and renew our spirits in the amazing graces that God provides. Come listen, learn, laugh, and love the invitations that await you! There will be talks, small and large group discussion, and quiet prayer. The day will begin at 8:30 a.m. with continental breakfast and conclude as a group at the 4:30 p.m. parish Mass. Cost for the day is $15.00 and will include breakfast, boxed lunch and materials. Payment can be made by check or cash the day of the retreat. Reservations are required. Please sign up on the parish website by Friday, September 22. For questions, please call Leah Kelly at the rectory at 614-866-2859.

Saints Andrew Kim Taegon, Paul Chong Hasang, and Companions

Saint Andrew Kim Taegon (August 21, 1821-September 16, 1846);

Saint Paul Chong Hasang and Companions (d. between 1839-1867)

Saints Andrew Kim Taegon, Paul Chong Hasang, and Companions' Stories: He first native Korean priest, Andrew Kim Taegon was the son of Christian converts. Following his baptism at the age of 15, Andrew traveled 1,300 miles to the seminary in Macao, China. After six years, he managed to return to his country through Manchuria. That same year he crossed the Yellow Sea to Shanghai and was ordained a priest. Back home again, he was assigned to arrange for more missionaries to enter by a water route that would elude the border patrol. He was arrested, tortured, and finally beheaded at the Han River near Seoul, the capital. Andrew's father Ignatius Kim, was martyred during the persecution of 1839, and was beatified in 1925. Paul Chong Hasang, a lay apostle and married man, also died in 1839 at age 45. Among the other martyrs in 1839 was Columba Kim, an unmarried woman of 26. She was put in prison, pierced with hot tools and seared with burning coals. She and her sister Agnes were disrobed and kept for two days in a cell with condemned criminals but were not molested. After Columba complained about the indignity, no more women were subjected to it. The two were beheaded. Peter Ryou, a boy of 13, had his flesh so badly torn that he could pull off pieces and throw them at the judges. He was killed by strangulation. Protase Chong, a 41-year-old nobleman, apostatized under torture and was freed. Later he came back, confessed his faith and was tortured to death. Christianity came to Korea during the Japanese invasion in 1592 when some Koreans were baptized, probably by Christian Japanese soldiers. Evangelization was difficult because Korea refused all contact with the outside world except for taking taxes to Beijing annually. On one of these occasions, around 1777, Christian literature obtained from Jesuits in China led educated Korean Christians to study. A home Church began. When a Chinese priest managed to enter secretly a dozen years later, he found 4,000 Catholics, none of whom had ever seen a priest. Seven years later there were 10,000 Catholics. Religious freedom came to Korea in 1883.

Besides Andrew and Paul, Pope John Paul II canonized 98 Koreans and three French missionaries who had been martyred between 1839 and 1867, when he visited Korea in 1984. Among them were bishops and priests, but for the most part they were lay persons: 47 women and 45 men.

Reflection: We marvel at the fact that the Korean Church was strictly a lay Church for a dozen years after its birth. How did the people survive without the Eucharist? It is no belittling of this and other sacraments to realize that there must be a living faith before there can be a truly beneficial celebration of the Eucharist. The sacraments are signs of God's initiative and response to faith already present. The sacraments increase grace and faith, but only if there is something ready to be increased.
