THE APPEAL 2025 - Your Gift Makes a Lasting Impact

Thank you to all who have already given so generously to this year's Diocesan Appeal! If you haven't had the chance yet, it's not too late to join us in making a difference. Together, our support touches countless lives through ministries and services that bring hope, healing, and faith to those in need.

Our parish goal is $166,773.26 – and when we work together as one parish family, we can reach it! Even better, every dollar we raise over our goal comes directly back to St. Pius X. This year, those funds will help us enhance our church by installing comfortable padded kneelers, improving the worship experience for everyone.

Please prayerfully consider how you can be part of this important mission. Every gift matters and brings us closer to our goal. Thank you for your kindness, your prayers, and your unwavering support of our parish and the broader Church.

St. Pius X Goal: $166,773.26

Pledged: $88,160.00

Paid to date: $71,445.84

Paid Amount Remaining to Goal: $95,327.42

Pledged Amount Remaining to Goal: $78,613.26

If St. Pius X does not meet the goal set for us by the diocese, the difference yet to be owed will be an additional expense assessed to our church.

"I, for one, am grateful to be your bishop and want to express my gratitude to each and every one of you for supporting the diocese in our mission of building the Kingdom of God and proclaiming the Good News of Salvation."

Bishop Earl K. Fernandes

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

The church carpet replacement project has been approved by Fr. Patrick and the Diocese. Beginning November 3, the church will be closed for renovations. During this time, all adoration days, confessions and Masses will be celebrated in the Parish Center at their regular times. The project is expected to take approximately four weeks, and we hopefully look forward to returning to the church for Mass the first week of December.

*Please Remember Our E-Giving Has Transitioned to ParishSOFT Giving

Dear Parish Family,

We are pleased to share an important update regarding our parish e-giving program. Our previous online giving provider, Faith Direct, has recently been acquired by ParishSOFT Giving.

This change will help better serve our parish and parishioners. ParishSOFT Giving offers a secure, user-friendly platform and provides even more flexibility and convenience for you to manage your contributions and personal account information.

ParishSOFT allows you to:

- Easily update payment methods or giving amounts
- View your donation history at any time
- Set up recurring gifts or make one-time donations
- Support multiple parish funds within one account

The donation withdrawal schedule you originally selected, whether weekly, biweekly, or monthly – will continue exactly as you set it. ParishSOFT will process your contributions based on your chosen schedule, not just once a month.

If you were previously enrolled in Faith Direct, your information has been safely transferred to ParishSOFT. You may notice some visual updates when logging in, but your existing gifts will continue without interruption. We are deeply grateful for your continued generosity and commitment to our parish mission. Your faithful stewardship helps us sustain the many ministries, programs, and services that bring Christ's love to our community.

If you have any questions or need assistance logging in or setting up your ParishSOFT account, please contact Parish Office or Donor Support at donorsupport@parishsoft.com and or 866-507-8757 with any questions. Thank you for your continued support!

PASTOR PLATFORM

WE PRAY FOR THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

The month of November is dedicated to praying for the dead. The Catholic Church's tradition of praying for the dead is linked to the church's teaching on purgatory. The catechism of the Catholic Church describes purgatory as: "All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death, they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven. The Church gives the name purgatory to this final purification of the elect, which is entirely different from the punishment of the damned" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1030-1031). Catholic teaching states that praying for the dead, is a holy and loving practice that helps purified souls in purgatory reach heaven. Purgatory is a process of purification before heaven.

Purgatory is best thought of as a "purifying fire" (CCC 1031) where souls go to become pure enough to then enter the perfect and untainted splendor that is heaven. In many ways, it is an extension of God's grace even into the finality of death. As the souls in purgatory undergo this purification, the prayers of the faithful can help to expedite the process and deliver them from their sins. This is the chief reason why Catholics pray for the dead. It is an act of charity and mercy, not only for our loved ones who have died but for all those departed souls who have no one else to pray for them.

It's important to note that this tradition finds its basis in sacred Scripture, as it further explains in the catechism: "This teaching is also based on the practice of prayer for the dead, already mentioned in sacred Scripture: 'Therefore, Judas Maccabeus made atonement for the dead, that they might be delivered from their sin.' From the beginning, the Church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God" (CCC 1032).

In addition to praying for the souls in purgatory, that they might be purified to enter the presence of God, we also ask those who have died to intercede for us. Again, this is not an attempt to communicate with dead spirits; rather, as St. Paul alludes to in Hebrews 12, this "cloud of witnesses" spurs us on in our own race here on earth through their prayers to the Father. Just as we do with the saints, asking for intercessory prayer is also a beautiful way to remember and remain connected to those we have lost.

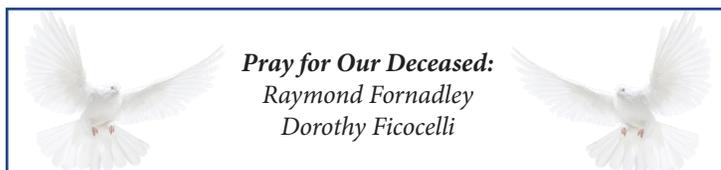

All of this finds its culmination in the holy sacrifice of the Mass, where heaven and earth collide. We offer Masses for the dead because it is in the Eucharist that our sacrifice is united to that of Christ and all those who have died. We also remember the dead in a special way during the Mass because each time a Mass is celebrated, the merits of the sacrifice of Christ's Cross are applied to those souls who have gone before us.

So, we are reminded by the Church that even after death, we remain in communion with the souls of those who professed Christ as Lord during their time on earth. For Christ binds all Christians together. The prayers we make to Him and for the deceased transcend time and space. Therefore, we can be confident that our prayers for the dead are not without merit, nor do they fall upon deaf ears. The Lord hears them and grants His everlasting grace to those who have died.

Our church teaches that praying for the dead, primarily by offering Masses, works of charity, and personal suffering, is a holy and loving practice that helps purified souls in purgatory reach heaven. The Church teaches also that most souls who die in God's grace but are not yet perfectly holy undergo a process of purification in purgatory before entering heaven. Prayers help these souls, as "nothing unclean will enter heaven." These prayers are offered with the hope that the deceased are on their journey to heaven, even if their spiritual perfection isn't fully certain. Praying for the dead fosters unity with them and allows for a continued loving connection, even after death. Prayers and sacrifices, especially the Mass, unite our offerings to Christ's sacrifice, applying its purifying merits to the souls in purgatory. Even if a soul is not in purgatory, any prayers offered for the dead are never wasted; God can apply the merit of such prayers to another soul in need. May souls of all the faithful departed rest in eternal peace. Amen

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

Month 6:

I am developing quite beautifully now. At 1 1/2 to 2 pounds and 12 inches long, I am twice as big as I was last month. I am sitting up most of the time to accommodate the final movement of all my internal organs. From 26 weeks, babies exhibit a whole range of typical baby behavior and moods, including scratching, smiling, crying, hiccupping, and sucking. Babies born prematurely at this time have a very good chance of surviving. Don't forget to pray for my mother and me. "The values of Christianity are unalterably opposed to the modern secular culture of choice."

If you are not donating to the Food Pantry, Coats for Kids (new or gently used and laundered), Adopt-A-Child School Supplies, JOIN or Military Outreach (when requested), PLEASE DO NOT leave your random bags of clothing or housewares in these bins for us to move; take them to the back of the parking lot for SVDP. Thank you.

Nov 3, 10, 17, 24, 2025

If you haven't been to Mass in a while or stopped practicing our Catholic faith but are feeling a tug in your heart to come back, please know, God wants you back. We want you back!

Feeling a bit apprehensive about coming back to church because it's been a while and you may need a refresh? Join the Inviting Catholics Home Ministry for four informative and informal sessions held every Monday in November, 6:30-8 PM in Wellnitz Hall (light refreshments served.) By December, our hope is that you will feel confident, ready and excited to "Come Home for Christmas!" Please let us know you plan to attend by calling the parish office at

614-876-1272 or email Janet Walsh at jlwalsh1@gmail.com

THE NAME OF JESUS
My beloved one, At every moment – with every step, speak with reverence and gratitude the holy name of Jesus. Let his name find a home in your heart – in every cell of your body – in your vision – in your hearing. His name alone – spokem reverently within your being, brings an abundance of grace wherever you got ot whomver you find in your vicinity. His name summons His merciful love and His merciful presence for the benefit and grace of each person anywhere near physically or only in your thought.
