in what I have done
and in what I have failed to do, (Striking the breast three times)
through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,

THE FIRST READING

Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31

*When one finds a worthy wife, her value is far beyond pearls.
Her husband, entrusting his heart to her,
has an unfailing prize.
She brings him good, and not evil,
all the days of her life.
She obtains wool and flax
and works with loving hands.
She puts her hands to the distaff,
and her fingers ply the spindle.
She reaches out her hands to the poor,
and extends her arms to the needy.
Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting;
the woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.
Give her a reward for her labors,
and let her works praise her at the city gates.*

V. The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM

R. Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

*Blessed are you who fear the LORD,
who walk in his ways!
For you shall eat the fruit of your handiwork;
blessed shall you be, and favored.*

*Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine
in the recesses of your home;
Your children like olive plants around your table.*

Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears the LORD.

*The LORD bless you from Zion:
may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life.*

R. Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

THE SECOND READING

1 Thessalonians 5:1-6

Concerning times and seasons, brothers and sisters, you have no need for anything to be written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night. When people are saying, "Peace and security," then sudden disaster comes upon them, like labor pains upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness, for that day to overtake you like a thief. For all of you are children of the light and children of the day. We are not of the night or of darkness. Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us stay alert and sober.

V. The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

THE ALLELUIA

THE GOSPEL

Matthew 25:14-30

V.

The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

V. A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

R. Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus told his disciples this parable:

"A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them. To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one--to each according to his ability. Then he went away. Immediately the one who received five talents went and traded with them, and made another five. Likewise, the one who received two made another two. But the man who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money.

"After a long time the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them. The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the additional five. He said, 'Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters,

I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received two talents also came forward and said, 'Master, you gave me two talents. See, I have made two more!' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.'

Then the one who had received the one talent came forward and said, 'Master, I knew you were a demanding person, harvesting where you did not plant and gathering where you did not scatter; so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground. Here it is back.'

His master said to him in reply, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I did not plant and gather where I did not scatter? Should you not then have put my money in the bank so that I could have got it back with interest on my return? Now then! Take the talent from him and give it to the one with ten. For to everyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And throw this useless servant into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.'"

V. The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

THE HOMILY

THE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (Here profoundly bowing) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

(Rising)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy,
catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism
for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

R. Lord, hear our prayer.

OFFERTORY

INVITATION

V. Pray, brethren, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.
R. May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

SURSUM CORDA

V. The Lord be with you.
R. And with your spirit.
V. Lift up your hearts.
R. We lift them up to the Lord.
V. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

R. It is right and just.

All glory and honor is yours,
For ever and ever.
R. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

V. At the Savior's command
And formed by divine teaching,
We dare to say:

Our Father, Who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name;
Thy kingdom come;
Thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

V. Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days,
that, by the help of your mercy,
we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

R. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours
now and for ever.

THE PEACE

V. Lord Jesus Christ,
who said to your Apostles:
Peace I leave you, my peace I give you,
look not on our sins,
but on the faith of your Church,
and graciously grant her peace and unity in accordance with your will.
Who live and reign for ever and ever.
R. Amen.
V. The peace of the Lord be with you always.
R. And with your spirit.

THE AGNUS DEI

Lamb of God,
You take away the sins of the world,

Grant us peace.

ECCE AGNUS DEI

V. Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away

and the Holy Spirit.
R. Amen.
V. Go in peace.
R. Thanks be to God.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

Saint Michael Archangel, defend us in battle,
be our protection against the wickedness
and snares of the devil;
may God rebuke him, we humbly pray;
and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host,
by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

GENTLEMEN – THE NEXT CATHOLIC WATCHMEN NIGHT IS THIS WEEK! JOIN MEN FROM THE PARISH ON THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19TH 6:30– 9 PM IN DORAN HALL FOR A WONDERFUL SPEAKER AND THE GREAT FOOD, DRINKS, DISCUSSION, AND PRAYER TIME YOU’VE COME TO EXPECT! NO EXPERIENCE, RESERVATION, OR LONG-TERM COMMITMENT NEEDED. I HOPE TO SEE MANY OF YOU THERE THIS THURSDAY!

From the Pastor's Desk

From a sermon by Saint Augustine, bishop

Sermo 21,1-4:CCL 41, 276-278)

The heart of the just man will rejoice in the Lord

The just man will rejoice in the Lord and put his hope in him; the hearts of all good men will be filled with joy. We must surely have sung these words with our hearts as well as with our voices. Indeed, the tongue of the Christian expresses his deepest feelings when it addresses such words to God. The just man will rejoice, not in the world, but in the Lord. Light has dawned for the just, Scripture says in another place, and joy for the upright of heart. Were you wondering what reason he has for joy? Here you are told: The just man will rejoice in the Lord. Another text runs: Delight in the Lord, and he will give you your heart's desires.

What are we instructed to do then, and what are we enabled to do? To rejoice in the Lord. But who can rejoice in something he does not see? Am I suggesting that we see the Lord then? No, but we have been promised that we shall see him. Now, as long as we are in the body, we walk by faith, for we are absent from the Lord. We walk by faith, and not by sight. When will it be by sight? Beloved, says John, we are now the sons of God; what we shall be has not yet been revealed, but we know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. When this prophecy is fulfilled, then it will be by sight.

That will be the great joy, the supreme joy, joy in all its fullness. Then we shall no longer drink the milk of hope, but we shall feed on the reality itself. Nevertheless, even now, before that vision comes to us, or before we come to that vision, let us rejoice in the Lord; for it is no small reason for rejoicing to have a hope that will some day be fulfilled.

Therefore, since the hope we now have inspires love, the just man rejoices, Scripture says, in the Lord; but because he does not yet see, it immediately goes on to say, and hopes in him.

Yet already we have the first fruits of the Spirit, and have we not also other reasons for rejoicing? For we are drawing near to the one we love, and not only are we drawing near—we even have some slight feeling and taste of the banquet we shall one day eagerly eat and drink.

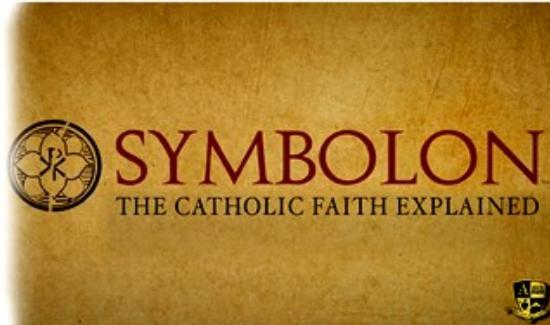

But how can we rejoice in the Lord if he is far from us? Pray God he may not be far. If he is, that is your doing. Love, and he will draw near; love, and he will dwell within you. The Lord is at hand; have no anxiety. Are you puzzled to know how it is that he will be with you if you love? God is love.

“What do you mean by love?” you will ask me. It is that which enables us to be loving. What do we love? A good that words cannot describe, a good that is for ever giving, a good that is the Creator of all good. Delight in him from whom you have received everything that delights you. But in that I do not include sin, for sin is the one thing that you do not receive from him. With that one exception, everything you have comes from him.

SYMBOLON: KNOWING THE FAITH, SESSION 5: PETER AND THE KEYS

This week is the Dedication of the Basilicas of Sts. Peter and Paul. Learn more about Peter's role in the Church and the imagery behind Jesus' famous words to Peter.

Dear St. Charles Parishioners,

As we make our way through November we have begun our annual Thanksgiving food drive to help the Franciscan Brothers of Peace keep their food shelf stocked for the season of giving. Each year our 4th graders overwhelm the Brothers with the weekly van loads of food that our parents bring over from our community. We're so glad to be able to help the The Francisican Brothers feed our brothers and sisters who are hungry in our own community right now.

This week cooled down quite a bit and gave us the chance to use our new air purifiers gifted to us by a generous donor in Chicago. As the season turns we'll have to keep our windows closed more and what a gift to have 50 high grade air purifiers in an older building that can use a boost in the area of ventilation.

We honored our United States Veterans this past week by praying for them each day and dressing in red, white and blue. We're very grateful to our service men and women who are dedicating and risking their lives to protect our country and our freedom.

God bless you,

Danny Kieffer

St. Charles Borromeo Annual Thanksgiving Clothing Drive November 14-21

You may bring your donations any day of the collection week to the church basement, the Youth Room formerly known as Bellarmine Chapel, which will be open before and after all Masses. When the door to the chapel is locked, leave your donation near the door in the hallway of the northeast entry to the church. After completing the drive, the clothing will be delivered to Caring and Sharing Hands in Minneapolis.

Clothing needs to be in good, useable and clean condition with intact buttons and zippers and without holes. Please place the items in plastic bags and tie up the bags, then label the contents with masking tape. Placing similar items in the same bag (e.g. men's shirts in one bag, children's clothes in another) will save us time in sorting.

Questions may be directed to Deacon Stephen Najarian, 612-787-1184.
