

that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done
and in what I have failed to do,
(Striking the breast three times)
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

V. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

R. Amen.

KYRIE Missa pro editionae tertia

GLORIA Missa pro editionae tertia

THE FIRST READING Acts 9:26-31

When Saul arrived in Jerusalem he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. Then Barnabas took charge of him and brought him to the apostles, and he reported to them how he had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken out boldly in the name of Jesus. He moved about freely with them in Jerusalem, and spoke out boldly in the name of the Lord. He also spoke and debated with the Hellenists, but they tried to kill him. And when the brothers learned of this, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him on his way to Tarsus. The church throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria was at peace. It was being built up and walked in the fear of the Lord, and with the consolation of the Holy Spirit it grew in numbers.

V. The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM

R. I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

I will fulfill my vows before those who fear the LORD.

*The lowly shall eat their fill;
they who seek the LORD shall praise him:
"May your hearts live forever!"*

*All the ends of the earth
shall remember and turn to the LORD;
all the families of the nations
shall bow down before him.*

*To him alone shall bow down
all who sleep in the earth;
before him shall bend
all who go down into the dust.*

*And to him my soul shall live;
my descendants shall serve him.*

*Let the coming generation be told of the LORD that they may proclaim to a people yet to be born
the justice he has shown.*

R. I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

THE SECOND READING 1 John 3:18-24

Children, let us love not in word or speech but in deed and truth. Now this is how we shall know that we belong to the truth and reassure our hearts before him in whatever our hearts condemn, for God is greater than our hearts and knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence in God and receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And his commandment is this: we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another just as he commanded us. Those who keep his commandments remain in him, and he in them, and the way we know that he remains in us is from the Spirit he gave us.

V. The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

THE ALLELUIA

THE GOSPEL John 15:1-8

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

V. A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples: "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower. He takes away every branch in me that does not bear fruit, and every one that does he prunes so that it bears more fruit. You are already pruned because of the word that I spoke to you. Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing. Anyone who does not remain in me will be thrown out like a branch and wither; people will gather them and throw them into a fire and they will be burned. If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask for whatever you want and it will be done for you. By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.”

V. The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

From the Pastor's Breviary

From a sermon by Saint Maximus of Turin, bishop

Christ is the day

Christ is risen! He has burst open the gates of hell and let the dead go free; he has renewed the earth through the members of his Church now born again in baptism, and has made it blossom afresh with men brought back to life. His Holy Spirit has unlocked the doors of heaven, which stand wide open to receive those who rise up from the earth. Because of Christ's resurrection the thief ascends to paradise, the bodies of the blessed enter the holy city, and the dead are restored to the company of the living. There is an upward movement in the whole of creation, each element raising itself to something higher. We see hell restoring its victims to the upper regions, earth sending its buried dead to heaven, and heaven presenting the new arrivals to the Lord. In one and the same movement, our Savior's passion raises men from the depths, lifts them up from the earth, and sets them in the heights.

Christ is risen. His rising brings life to the dead, forgiveness to sinners, and glory to the saints. And so David the prophet summons all creation to join in celebrating the Easter festival: Rejoice and be glad, he cries, on this day which the Lord has made.

The light of Christ is an endless day that knows no night. Christ is this day, says the Apostle; such is the meaning of his words: Night is almost over; day is at hand. He tells us that night is almost over, not that it is about to fall. By this we are meant to understand that the coming of Christ's light puts Satan's darkness to flight, leaving no place for any shadow of sin. His everlasting radiance dispels the dark clouds of the past and checks the hidden growth of vice. The Son is that day to whom the day, which is the Father, communicates the mystery of his divinity. He is the day who says through the mouth of Solomon: I have caused an un failing light to rise in heaven. And as in heaven no night can follow day, so no sin can overshadow the justice of Christ. The celestial day is perpetually bright and shining with brilliant light; clouds can never darken its skies. In the same way, the light of Christ is eternally glowing with luminous radiance and can never be extinguished by the darkness of sin. This is why John the evangelist says: The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has never been able to overpower it.

And so, my brothers, each of us ought surely to rejoice on this holy day. Let no one, conscious of his sinfulness, withdraw from our common celebration, nor let anyone be kept away from our public prayer by the burden of his guilt. Sinner he may indeed be, but he must not despair of pardon on this day which is so highly privileged; for if a thief could receive the grace of paradise, how could a Christian be refused forgiveness?

Formation: Year of Truth

The final virtue of the cardinal, or moral, virtues is temperance. In short, temperance is that virtue that governs the concupiscible passions. These passions are those that are easy to come by, and as such, easy to over indulge in; love, desire, joy, hatred, aversion or sadness. Again, when we speak of the passions it is important to note that they are the immediate inclination towards a thing BEFORE we have an opportunity to add our intellectual power into them. Think of the passions as the immediate reaction to some sensory input or event.

To temper something means to limit it. A person with a bad temper has little to no limit on their hatred, for instance. Temperance, like all of the other moral virtues, and indeed, all virtues in general must be informed firstly by the intellect guided by prudence.

Next week I will offer a brief overview of man and his condition before taking a break from offering these brief bulletin articles.

Stewardship Update

On Good Friday, the collection taken up to support the work of the Franciscans working in the Holy Land resulted in $3,447 being sent to help. Many Christians there rely heavily on the help that comes to them from this worldwide collection. On behalf of the Franciscans who care for the Holy Places as well for the "Living Stones," the Christians living there, thank you for your generosity!

At the local level, the self-denial collection of $1,333 is being shared equally by the Franciscan Brothers of Peace and Sharing & Caring Hands to provide hope to the vulnerable, the hungry and the homeless – THANK YOU!

SAINT CHARLES CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Dear St. Charles Parishioners, Our 2nd graders received First Communion in a beautiful Mass last Sunday at noon. It is always a special time of year to see our 2nd graders dressed in their best receiving this Blessed Sacrament for the first time. There was much excitement Thursday morning when they attended their weekly Mass and were able to receive Communion at a community Mass.

Looking ahead, Bishop Cozzens will be paying a visit to St. Charles on May 4th. We are excited to welcome Bishop Cozzens to our school to pray with our students and celebrate Mass. The visit will begin with a visit to each of our K-3 classrooms for some time to connect with our students, pray and receive a blessing. After that, Bishop Cozzens will celebrate Mass with our 4th-8th grade students in our church. We are looking forward to this occasion and feel blessed to have another opportunity to connect with one of our local bishops.

The month of May is almost here and we look forward to honoring our Blessed Mother! Please keep our school in your prayers and thank you for your continued support and interest in what is going on at St. Charles Borromeo Catholic School.

God bless you,

Transition Towels May 8-16

A home is more than walls and a roof: a home is a bed to sleep in, utensils to eat with, a dresser to hold your things...a home is comfort. Many families and individuals in the metro area do not live with these luxuries. Bridging, a nonprofit organization serving the Twin Cities, aims to change that. Through the effective reuse of donated items, Bridging improves lives by providing quality furniture and household items to those transitioning out of homelessness and poverty. Driven by volunteers and donations of furniture and household items from the community, Bridging has furnished over 75,000 homes since 1987.

St. Charles Borromeo is hosting a Transition Towels drive for Bridging on May 8 - 16!

Watch for the collection bins in the Atrium.

We are collecting:

- Beach towels
- Hand towels

- Dish cloths

Towels must be new or gently used (clean and free of rips, stains, odors or pet hair). Join us and donate lots of towels so we can help furnish homes with hope!
