From the Pastor's Breviary

From a sermon by Saint Maximus of Turin, bishop

Christ is risen! He has burst open the gates of hell and let the dead go free; he has renewed the earth through the members of his Church now born again in baptism, and has made it blossom afresh with men brought back to life. His Holy Spirit has unlocked the doors of heaven, which stand wide open to receive those who rise up from the earth. Because of Christ's resurrection the thief ascends to paradise, the bodies of the blessed enter the holy city, and the dead are restored to the company of the living. There is an upward movement in the whole of creation, each element raising itself to something higher. We see hell restoring its victims to the upper regions, earth sending its buried dead to heaven, and heaven presenting the new arrivals to the Lord. In one and the same movement, our Savior's passion raises men from the depths, lifts them up from the earth, and sets them in the heights.

Christ is risen. His rising brings life to the dead, forgiveness to sinners, and glory to the saints. And so David the prophet summons all creation to join in celebrating the Easter festival: Rejoice and be glad, he cries, on this day which the Lord has made.

The light of Christ is an endless day that knows no night. Christ is this day, says the Apostle; such is the meaning of his words: Night is almost over; day is at hand. He tells us that night is almost over, not that it is about to fall. By this we are meant to understand that the coming of Christ's light puts Satan's darkness to flight, leaving no place for any shadow of sin. His everlasting radiance dispels the dark clouds of the past and checks the hidden growth of vice. The Son is that day to whom the day, which is the Father, communicates the mystery of his divinity. He is the day who says through the mouth of Solomon: I have caused an unfailing light to rise in heaven. And as in heaven no night can follow day, so no sin can overshadow the justice of Christ. The celestial day is perpetually bright and shining with brilliant light; clouds can never darken its skies. In the same way, the light of Christ is eternally glowing with luminous radiance and can never be extinguished by the darkness of sin. This is why John the evangelist says: The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has never been able to overpower it.

And so, my brothers, each of us ought surely to rejoice on this holy day. Let no one, conscious of his sinfulness, withdraw from our common celebration, nor let anyone be kept away from our public prayer by the burden of his guilt. Sinner he may indeed be, but he must not despair of pardon on this day which is so highly privileged; for if a thief could receive the grace of paradise, how could a Christian be refused forgiveness?

Called & Gifted Workshops

Discover God's Call for Your Life

Did you know God gives you spiritual gifts to help you to be effective at your work and a more effective witness to your faith in the workplace? A teaching team from the Catherine of Siena Institute will offer the introductory Called & Gifted workshop on Saturday, May 21st, 9am-5pm. If you wonder how you are called to be a channel of His love and provision at work or in your community, come and begin to discern your unique mission in life. Everyone is invited to participate. To register or find out more, contact Jacob Nelson at jnelson@stchb.org or 612-787-1181. Register by May 15 at stchb.org/called

Women's Council

Our final Beloved event is approaching and we would love to see you all there so that we can THANK YOU for all you have done this year. God has worked through Women's Council this year in many wonderful ways, and many individuals and families have been blessed by the work of Christ in each of you. Please join us on Tuesday, May 17th at 6:40pm for the Rosary and 7:00pm welcome in Doran Hall for a meeting that will be all about gratitude!

ALSO: Women's Council is collecting travel-sized personal hygiene products to donate to Catholic Charities. Please bring items to the Atrium. Thank you for your generosity!

ACCW "ON THE ROAD" IS COMING TO MINNEAPOLIS DEANERIES!

June 2nd, 6:30 – 9:00 pm in the Community Room
St. Vincent De Paul Church (9100 93rd Ave N, Brooklyn Park)

ACCW Board members invite all parish CCW officers and members to a special program called "On the Road". On Thursday, June 2nd, ACCW will present ideas and plans for your parish groups. Intertwined with fun and facts, we hope you will learn more about the office you hold, whether it be president, secretary, treasurer, or member. Included will be parliamentary hints to help make your meetings organized and informative. Presenting will be ACCW President Mickey Nickelson, Secretary Colleen Hogan, Treasurer Karen Vanney, Parliamentarian Lucy Johnson and more! Join with other women for a fun evening exploring the many facets of the Council of Catholic Women. Plus there are refreshments!

There is NO COST, but registration is required, so we can provide plenty of materials and snacks. Sign up by May 23rd by calling or texting Mary Cameron at 612-232-6286 OR email her at Tomacambass@gmail.com.
