St. Charles Outreach

We are again working with Cabrini Partnership/Project for Pride in Living to brighten the holidays of those in need. This year, we are giving $50 Wal-Mart gift cards to give to families so that they can celebrate their own family traditions and get what they need most. We are hoping for 40 to 50 participants. To help, you can purchase a Walmart Gift Card and bring it to St. Charles in an envelope marked for Cabrini Christmas Gifts, Attention Deacon Najarian. Or, if you prefer, you can write a check to St. Charles for $50, also in an envelope marked for Cabrini, attention Deacon. Deadline to get cards/checks to the parish office: Wednesday, December 7.

Thank you for your generosity!

Mats for the Homeless are meeting this Monday, November 28 at 9:30-11:30am in Doran Hall. There are several different stations that one can work at. No experience needed.

We will close with time for prayer and end at 11:30am. ADVENT SOCK AND MITTEN COLLECTION

St. Charles parish is once again collecting these crucial winter items during the weeks of Advent for Catholic Charities, to be distributed to families in need and to homeless shelters. You can leave them under the "mitten trees" in the atrium and main entrance anytime during Advent through Dec. 26.

Blessed to Attain Our Deepest Desire

From the Magnificat-November, pages 408-409

"The experience of waiting will continue to be wrongly understood unless one sees that we are meant to learn from it [and] that the deeper meaning of life is to keep watch. Here is what lies behind it: man must notice and feel that the longing for sun, for happiness, is only the foreground; that it is his affliction to hunger for something more…. There is no earthly event, power, or love that can bring peace to man's heart. There are promises about mankind: above and beyond all your wishes and ideas, what counts is that the Lord has consecrated you and created you for an intimacy with God that no human eye has seen, no human ear has heard (1 Cor 2:9. We are designed for this…. This should be our first Advent light: to understand everything, all that happens to us and all that threatens us, from the perspective of life's character of waiting….

The character of life is to keep going, to keep a lookout, and to endure until the vigilant heart of man and the heart of God who meets us come together: presently in the true interior meeting in the sacraments, and later in the final homecoming. God enter only his own rooms, where someone is always keeping watch for him…. Are we living out of the center of our being, or from memory, from impulses, but not because we are settled in the center of reality and find our stability nourished there? This is the deeper sense of Advent: that we scrutinize this center, little by little, and set up lights of recognition in our lives, and form the center master life's gloominess. There is no absolute darkness…. Those who really wait on the Lord God will not be disappointed. –Father Alfred Delp, S.J.

Father Delp (†1945) was a German Jesuit priest condemned to death by the Nazis in Berlin, Germany."

Congratulations

Luke & Anna Narog
